BUDGET AND FINANCE

Mertens said that the financial report as of April 23, 1969 is as follows: The Reserve Fund contains $7,606.76 and the Investment Fund contains $5,233.99 which makes a total of $12,840.65.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Briscoe made the following announcements:
1. Central Board will now conduct its meeting on third floor of the Student Center so that observers will be able to attend the meeting.
2. All of the delegates and commissioners will receive copies of the Constitution, Budget and By-Laws at the next meeting.
3. Briscoe said that he will also submit a new constitution at the next meeting.
4. He said that from now on, the meetings will be conducted on an agenda basis. He said that proposals can be noted and a committee will be formed to submit the proposal to. Then the committee will recommend an action to Central Board.

NEW BUSINESS

Briscoe asked for a committee of three to study his commissioner appointments. Dave Gorton, Rick Applegate and Joe Mazurek will report on their findings next week. Briscoe suggested having CB meetings every other week. He said that CB members would then be given time to study the issues and make a decision. Members of the gallery disagreed and said that at a time when the University is undergoing rapid change, action needs to be taken immediately. Briscoe said that there would be another meeting next week to decide on this issue. Briscoe went on to say that he wants to channel student protest into special sub-committees. Any action introduced during a CB meeting would be referred to a temporary sub-committee which would consider the proposal and return recommendations to CB.
To avoid unnecessary debate during CB meeting, Briscoe said students should go before the sub-committees. If the dissenting students still did not feel that they were being heard, they could come to CB and speak in an open discussion period immediately following regular CB business. Skip Davidson said from the gallery that sometimes interested students would be unable to attend sub-committees and sometimes CB would not want to hear their testimony. Pat Crowley, who was also in the gallery, said that this would make the meetings closed and would cut down communication with the students. He said that pertinent information would come and go before the meeting is opened to the clackery. Briscoe said that he was willing to change this plan and that CB would not decide on this issue until next week.

Applegate said that the idea of elements of campus coming to CB to cause trouble was highly questionable and that he thinks the meeting should be open. Briscoe said that the plan of having questions after the regular business of Central Board is over was only an idea for CB members to think about. APPLEGATE MOVED THAT THE FOLLOWING RESOLUTION BE ACCEPTED BY CENTRAL BOARD: RESOLVED THAT THE CENTRAL BOARD OF ASUM, LOOK ON THE RECENT DRAFT CARD TURN-IN AND ANNOUNCEMENT OF NON-COOPERATION WITH THE SELECTIVE SERVICE SYSTEM, WITH GUARDED RESPECT. FURTHER, THAT CENTRAL BOARD OF ASUM URGE ALL STUDENTS ON THIS CAMPUS TO MAKE THEMSELVES AWARE OF THE SELECTIVE SERVICE LEGISLATION AND THE ALTERNATIVES. THE MOTION WAS SECONDED BY MAzurek. Applegate said that if CB passed the resolution, it would show respect for men who act with conscience. Non-cooperation means the refusal to carry a draft card, accept classification, appear before a draft board or go along with induction.

Wicks said that he agreed with the resisters that the Draft laws are poorly written. He also said that it is not appropriate for CB to respect people who break laws. Briscoe said that he did not see what endorsement of the resolution would accomplish and recommended that this be referred to a committee. Strong said that an endorsement of the resolution would be highly significant and would show oblique sympathy for the resister NICKS MOVED TO TABLE THE MOTION UNTIL NEXT WEEK. GREEN seconded the motion WICKS WITHDREW HIS MOTION TO HAVE THE ORIGINAL MOTION TABLED. WICKS MOVED TO SEND THE RESOLUTION TO A SUB COMMITTEE. THE MOTION WAS SECONDED BY GREEN. THE MOTION WAS DEFEATED WITH NICKS AND GREEN IN FAVOR. THE ORIGINAL MOTION PASSED WHICH WAS TO TABLE THE MOTION UNTIL NEXT WEEK.

The meeting was adjourned.
