WINTHROP RESIDENT WINS MUSIC COMPETITION

MISSOULA, Mont. --

Amy Chisholm, a student at The University of Montana-Missoula from Winthrop, is a winner of the UM music department's annual Concerto/Aria Competition. A win in the competition, held each spring, gives music majors the opportunity to perform in concert backed by a full orchestra.

A senior in vocal performance, Chisholm's credits include three seasons with the Virginia City Players, who perform during the summer at the Opera House in historic Virginia City, Mont. She also performs in UM theater and the Chamber Chorale.

Chisholm plans to pursue a master's degree in music at the University of Arizona in Tucson. She is a 1992 graduate of Winthrop High School. Her parents are Mary and Bill Mastin of Mt. Vernon.
