Haarr replied in the affirmative. MOTION PASSED "WITH WHEELER OPPOSED.

Harstad said election day editorial endorsements are a raging debate. It is the contentions of editors that to prohibit writing election day endorsements is an encroachment on the freedom of speech. Seconded by Wheeler. Van Heuvelen believed the decision should be that of the present board since the money was accumulated through it and since there is $10,000 in the Reserve Fund. Haarr yielded the gavel stating that the grant from the Hill Foundation is more likely to be given if interest is shown. Student government spends time on limited objectives and the project could benefit the whole state. Tolliver said if the grant from the Hill Foundation is not received, he will finance the pamphlet himself.
