VOLUME XXV. NUMBER 7.

CENTRAL BOARD OUTLINES PLANS

Program for Varsity Day Includes Class Contests and Dance

Plans for Varsity day, which is on this year as a possible annual day, were discussed at the regular meeting of the Central Board in the ASUM offices Tuesday afternoon. One of the principal events of the day will be the flag race to the "Y" between representatives from Freshman and Sophomore classes. The point system regarding all contests was referred to Harry Adams, secretary of intra-mural athletics. Points will be counted in class football, tub race, sack race, obstacle race and push ball.

Homecoming Report Made

A report from the Homecoming committee, of which Helen Newman chairman, was also given at the meeting and several plans were discussed. SOS will be held on Wednesday instead of Thursday night, as previously announced, and Walter Ford, yell king, was chosen to lead a committee which will be appointed later, to arrange for entertainment between halves of the Ag-Montana game. It was decided to charge students 50 cents for the homecoming dance Thursday evening. The best decorated house was referred to Pan-Hellenic and the Interfraternity council.

An individual prize of $10 will be paid to a girl leading in sales. Sororities and the dormitories will be notified of the plans for the campaign. The downtown office will be the American Bank and Trust company building, on the corner ofiggins and Cedar. The sales girls will be on the principal downtown streets and the University district 9 a. m. Saturday. Posters will be placed in store windows explaining the purpose of the drive. One-half the proceeds of the sale to the local chapter to be used to raise loans to needy ex-service men. The other half was expended last year for this purpose. The state department received a fourth and the national headquarters a fourth of the proceeds. The Forget-me-nots are sold by disabled veterans in government hospitals throughout the country. No definite sum is charged for flowers, people giving any amount at their desire.

YWCA TO LAUNCH DRIVE; ARRANGE STUDENT PARLEYS

Plans for a membership drive for the YWCA to be conducted soon, were discussed at the YWCA cabinet meeting held Tuesday evening in Main hall. Annabelle Rogers of Great Falls was appointed as a new visitor member. Eleanor Stephenson will have charge of arranging a schedule for the individual and group conferences with Miss Elizabeth Schaff, field student secretary of the Presbyterian church. It will be on the campus October 31 and November 1 and 2, for the purpose of interviewing students interested in full-time Christian service at home or abroad. Miss Schaff's lect in visiting the campus is to press upon students the necessity of basing the choice of a life work on Christian principles. Any girls desiring consultations with Miss Schaff should see Miss Stephenson for an appointment.

IRJORIE JONES TALKS AT MATH CLUB MEETING

"Life and Works of Pascal" was subject of a talk given by Marie Jones before the Math club Tuesday evening. The club, which is open to all those created in mathematics, now consists of 35 members, seven of whom were admitted at the meeting. The officers are: Raleigh Baldwin, president; Conrad Faick, vice-president; Elizabeth Flood, secretary-treasurer.

DRAMATICS DIRECTOR WRITES ABOUT SHAW

Carl Glick, director of dramatics at Montana, is writing a series of articles on George Bernard Shaw and his plays for the Theater Guild of New York City. The first of these appeared in the Sunday magazine section of the New York Herald-Tribune October 4.

The Theater Guild is devoting the 1925 season to Mr. Shaw's plays. This organization has been for New York what the Moroni Olsen Players are doing for the Northwest. Their entire interests are devoted to play production and their purpose is to present a repertory season of worthwhile plays over a wide itinerary each year. They are opening this season with what has been called Shaw's funniest comedy, "Pygmalion," and will appear in Missoula for the first time October 30 with this play, and again January 13 and March 23 with "The Ship" and "Friend Hannah."

Masquers Sponsor Plays
The Missoula performances of this group are being sponsored by the Montana Masquers and the American Association of University Women. Student tickets may be secured from the Masquers or from the University Players until the meeting of the Masquers in Main hall next Tuesday evening, when all tickets not sold must be turned in. The prices for student season tickets are $3 for the best seats at the Liberty theater and $2 for all other seats.

The repertory players are appearing in all the leading cities of the northwest, and will give performances in the following Montana cities: Missoula, Kalispell, Butte, Helena, Great Falls, Lewistown, Livingston, Billings, Bozeman and Dillon. They were organized three years ago in Ogden, Utah, and have produced such plays as George Bernard Shaw's "Candida," Arthur Richman's "Ambush," A. A. Milne's "The Pim Passes By," St. John Ervine's "Jane Clegg," Eugene O'Neill's "Beyond the Horizon," Philip Barry's "You and I," and Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew."

GLICK TO SPEAK BEFORE SCRIBES ON SHOW PUBLICITY

"Theatrical Publicity" will be the subject on which Professor Carl Glick, director of the Montana Masquers and the University Players, will speak at the next meeting of the Press club in the Journalism shack Tuesday evening at 7:30. The meeting was changed to that date due to the Varsity day dance Wednesday night.

Professor Glick will be the principal speaker of the evening, but several other talks will be given. A social session and refreshments will follow the business meeting. All students enrolled in journalism courses are invited to attend.

During the past two years Mr. Glick has been director of the Players' club and instructor in literature at the University of Colorado. He attended the University of Montana during the years 1911-14, and received his B. S. degree from Northwestern University in 1915. He became an instructor in dramatic art at Fairmont college where he remained for two years. In 1917 he was made director of the Community theater at Waterloo, Iowa. He has directed plays for the Stuyvesant Neighborhood house, New York City, and at Camp Balfour, New York. Mr. Glick has also written short stories, sketches and articles of various sorts that have been published in several of the country's leading magazines.

GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM BEGINS PRACTICE

Training of the girls' rifle team was started Tuesday under the supervision of Major George L. Smith and Sergeant Maywood Kirkwood. "There are about 65 girls at present divided into eight sections," said Sergeant Kirkwood. "This is a much larger class than ever before and we have good chances for developing a winning team."

Those who competed on last year's team were: Carma Cole, Eleanor Stephenson, Frances Crabb, Maebelle Mohrrehr, Esther Mohrrehr and Kathleen O'Donnell. Of these, Carma Cole, Eleanor Stephenson and Kathleen O'Donnell are back this year.

Work on the men's rifle team will start as soon as all the students have finished their medical examination. Ten new rifles have been ordered for the first of the year, when the pending matches will probably take place.

Perle E. Clanton has withdrawn from school and returned to his home in Shell Lake, Wisconsin.

Co-Ed Frolic Prizes To Test Originality of Feminine Talent

"Prizes will be given for the prettiest, the funniest and the most original costumes at the Co-ed Frolic," according to Dora Hauck, manager.

Each organized house will put on an individual act, and a first and second prize will be awarded to the two best stunts. Work has already commenced on the acts.

The Co-ed Frolic, which is one of the annual traditions of AWS, will be staged Halloween night, October 31, in the men's gymnasium. All the women on the campus are urged to don any kind of a costume and attend the frolic. Hot dogs and doughnuts will be sold, so those who attend should be supplied with nickles and dimes.

The following committees have been announced by Dora Hauck: Food, Helen Groff, chairman; Betty Peterson, Louise Snyder, Winifred Brennan, Lauretta Wills. Music and floor, Katherine Kiely, chairman; Lillian Bell, Dorothy Norton, Gertrude McCarthy, Marguerite McFadden.

Invitation, Betty Johnson, chairman; Elizabeth McCoy, Zelma Hay, Helen Chaffin, Eleanor Stephenson. Stunt, Evelyn Siderfin, chairman; Clara Dell Shriver, Mary Kirkwood, Alva Larson, Helen Dahlberg. Advertising, Annabelle Desmond, chairman; Esther Davis.

M CLUB CONSIDERS VARSITY DAY PLAN AT MEETING IN GYM

Members of the "M" club held their first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon in the new gymnasium. "Cammie" Meagher, who was elected president of the organization last spring, presided, and plans for the coming year were discussed.

After last year's business had been discussed, plans for the coming Varsity day were taken up and "Cammie" Meagher, in charge of the day, named the captains of the farce football team which will play as a part of the afternoon program of Varsity day. For the plow jockies, Captain Jake Miller will take the helm, while Heman Stark will captain the Horse Marines. Anyone wishing to try out for either of these teams will see either Miller or Stark.

Plans for reviving activities of the old "M" club were considered and a committee was appointed to locate the old constitution and revise it. The committee is composed of Emil Blumenthal, chairman; Force Baney, Clarence Anderson, and Heman Stark. The club decided to have a page in the Sentinel, as it has had in previous years, but will not have its picture taken until next quarter.

Plans for having "M" club pins were discussed, but no action was taken.

BUTTE GAME CLEARS VARSITY FUND DEBT

Although no financial reports from the Washington or Gonzaga games have come in yet, the $2,100 guarantee from the Butte Chamber of Commerce will just about pull the athletic board out of the red, according to Kirk E. Badgley, auditor of student activities.

About 7,500 were admitted to the Gonzaga game Saturday, 334 of which were students at the University. A majority of these went down on the special and returned on the N. P. Sunday night.

LITERARY MAGAZINE IN NEED OF MATERIAL

"We should like to have more material submitted for the November issue of the Frontier," said Professor Sidney H. Cox yesterday, confirming the call sent out last week for more copy. "We expect the work to be immature, but we have a high standard of genuineness. We want the students to write what they really feel, instead of attempting to imitate something that is beyond their ability."

Contrary to general opinion, the class in Creative Writing has not a monopoly on work in the Frontier, but articles from any student interested in writing are requested. Mr. Cox will be glad to see anyone who has written something already, or who is interested in submitting articles to the Frontier.

"Doc" Brewer, fullback on the soph team, had his shoulder dislocated Tuesday during a scrimmage with Missoula high. He expects to play in the frosh-soph game Saturday.

NOTICE
Members of the Christian church are cordially invited to a dinner to be given after services next Sunday.

Ed Hellman and Louis Stevens were appointed to represent Sigma Delta Chi.

These programs will be sold during the game and will carry special features on Dornblaser field, and cuts of former football teams.

Frosh to Repaint M; Women Don Ribbons

Rules governing the conduct of freshmen on the University campus were taken up at a meeting of the sophomore class held in Main hall yesterday afternoon, and referred to the committee on traditions.

The following articles are brought to the attention of the freshmen:

1. You must renew the covering of the "M" in spotless white before Thanksgiving. (We justly condemn your first abominable attempt.)

2. Girls of the class, you must prepare a feed at the bottom of the hill for the shiftless workers if they can do their work at all satisfactorily.

3. There will be no more loitering or congregating on the steps of Main hall, the library, or the Law school building by you who make up the shameful green peril upon our school.

4. There will be absolutely no parking on the senior bench.

5. The badge of your insignificance and submission must be worn at all times:

a. The men must wear their green caps.

b. The women must wear green ribbons, starting Monday.

LEST YE VIOLATE THESE, OUR SACRED TRADITIONS, MEMBERS OF THE CLASS OF '29, BEWARE!!!

Author's Club Votes Membership to Four at Special Meeting

Professor Fred Stimpert, Professor C. H. Reidell, Professor R. L. Housman and Professor Carl Glick were voted into membership in the Authors' club at a special meeting held Thursday afternoon. The club is made up of faculty members who have published some of their work.

Professor Stimpert is the author of several scientific pamphlets dealing with research work in Biology. The treatises were written in collaboration with Professor J. W. Howard. "The Book of the Dance," by Professor Reidell, was published in 1925. He has published a number of other things in addition to this book.

Professor Housman has written "Numbers," a book of verse, which was published this year. His verses and short stories have appeared in several magazines.

"Art Craft" and "It Isn't Done" are two plays written by Professor Glick and published in the "Treasury of Plays for Men." "It Isn't Done" was translated into Hungarian and was produced last year in the Modern theater in Budapest.

The club will meet for the first time this year on Saturday, October 31, when Professor E. L. Freeman will give the principal talk of the evening.

TANAN BANQUET POSTPONED TILL THURSDAY NIGHT

The Tanan banquet, which was to have been given tonight at the Florence hotel, has been postponed until Thursday night, October 29, according to Kathleen Hainline, chairman of the committee in charge.

The banquet, which is an annual tradition, is a get-together meeting of all the Tanans on the campus. Members of each class give toasts, and the general business of the organization is discussed. Elizabeth Kilroy will act as toastmistress, and the toasts from the various classes will be given by Lillian Shaw, sophomore; Alice Lense, junior, and Stella Skulason, senior.

ART LEAGUE TO INSPECT CHARLES RUSSELL'S WORK

The Art League will meet in the Fine Arts studio Tuesday evening at 7:30, when reproductions of paintings by Charles Russell, the Montana artist, and other articles and pictures concerning him will be shown. It is hoped that the artist will be present at the meeting. There will be music, refreshments and dancing. All former or new Art League members and any others interested in art are invited.

CLEF CLUB SECURES NATIONAL CHAPTER

Sigma Alpha Iota, national music fraternity for women, has granted a charter to the Clef club, according to a telegram received this week by members of the organization. PROFESSORS TO CONVEENE

Members of the American Association of University Professors will hold their regular monthly meeting at the YWCA Saturday at 6:30. Dean R. H. Jesse will be the principal speaker of the evening. COMMITTEE DRAFTS HOMECOMING PLANS

Members of the 1925 Homecoming committee have been busy during the past week, completing arrangements for this year's event. Tentative plans, drawn up at last Tuesday's meeting in Main hall, are nearing completion, according to Helen Newman, secretary to the president.

The Homecoming parade will not be held as announced in last Tuesday's Kaimin. The committee has decided that a parade on Thanksgiving day would be unwise.

No communication has been received from the State College relative to producing a stunt between halves of the football game. In case Bozeman decides to co-operate in the matter a prize will be offered to the school with the best production.

The general letter in regard to Homecoming is to be sent out soon. Letters enclosing reservation blanks will be mailed later. An effort is being made to secure special railroad rates for the entire week.

NORTH HALL DECORATED; STAGE SET FOR FORMAL

"Plans for the North Hall Formal are complete and we are expecting the dance to be a big success," said Billy Kester, president of North hall, in commenting on the annual dormitory hop.

The dining room and parlors of North hall are to be decorated with autumn leaves and balloons and confetti will be used during the dance. The programs, which are white and gold, have arrived.

The chaperones for the dance are Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Clapp, Dean Harriet Sedman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Miller, and Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Jesse.

Dormitories Plan Social Program

North hall and South hall are making plans to exchange dinner guests Wednesday of next week. It will be the first social function of the sort undertaken by North hall this year. It is planned to have an hour or so of dancing after dinner.

COMMITTEES FOR QUARTER'S WORK CHOSEN BY SOPHS

Matters concerning the sophomore dance, which will be given November 6, and details of the Varsity day events were discussed by the sophomores at a meeting held in Main hall Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Lillian Shaw, vice-president, conducted the meeting in the absence of the president, Ted Hodges.

Elizabeth Veach was appointed chairman of the dance committee, Ed Simoni and Francis McCrae are in charge of the poster advertising and Alice Dodds has charge of the program committee.

It was decided that every member of the sophomore class should be assessed $1 and senior and junior men charged $1 admittance to the dance. As the affair is given in honor of the freshmen they will be admitted free.

Otto Bessey was appointed to take charge of the sophomore participation in Varsity day and Bob McKenzie and Ed Simoni were chosen as assistants.

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS PLAN TO REORGANIZE

The Student Volunteer group reorganized at a meeting at the home of William L. Young, the interchurch pastor, Wednesday evening. The new organization will become a part of the national body, known as the Student Fellowship for Christian Life Service, and may now include in its membership students planning to enter Christian work both in home and foreign fields.

The Student Fellowship will meet twice a month hereafter. It will decide on a line of study for the year at the next meeting, which will be held in the form of a luncheon October 30 in honor of Miss Elizabeth Schaff, who has been a teacher in South America for several years. Any student eligible for membership should see Rex Spelman, president of the organization, or Mr. Young.

The Student Volunteer group of the University was organized two years ago. The purpose of the organization has been to bring together all University students planning to enter some type of Christian work in foreign fields.

SHOCK TROOPS TO START GAME

First String to Be Held in Reserve for O.A.C. Game at Corvallis

Montana's shock troops will be used to stop the charges of the Oregidgers from the School of Mines when they invade Dornblaser field tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. Because Coach Clark's old war horses must be in top notch condition for the grueling game with the Oregon Aggies next week they will be used only in case of necessity.

Coch Charley McAuliffe comes here with a tight, but game squad. Word from the Mining City says, "The Miners are in excellent shape for the game and promise a hard game for the Grizzlies." They have beaten Intermountain and Mount St. Charles this year, but succumbed to a ferocious Bobcat attack.

Last year's clash with the Miners amounted to a track meet for the Grizzlies, who romped off with a 106-6 victory. Montana tallied 16 touchdowns, and would have whitewashed its opponents except for a fumble which permitted the Oregidgers to score.

Aho Is Star
In tomorrow's tangle, which will be the only home game outside of the State College classic of November 26, Aho, Oregidger half, will be the power of the invading eleven. He radiates fight, and may spring a few surprises. In the game with Inter-mountain he recovered a fumble five

Forestry Club Elects New Representatives

Nelson Fritz, sophomore in the Forestry school, was elected publicity agent of the Forestry club, at the annual election of the executive board, held in the Forestry library Wednesday evening, October 21.

Harold Russell was elected senior representative of the executive board; Al Roemer, junior representative; Clarence Spaulding, sophomore representative and William Brenner, freshman representative.

After the regular business meeting Rev. J. R. Hahn of the University church gave an interesting talk on "The Practical Necessity of Forestry and Religion." H. S. Inboden, president of Bricks Industrial College of North Carolina, gave a short talk on forestry in Carolina, telling briefly of the state's agricultural and forest products. W. E. Schreiber and J. C. DeJarnette, both honorary members of the club, also addressed the members.

Andy Staat and Nelson Fritz entertained the boys with recitations and songs, after which followed a feed of sandwiches, doughnuts, coffee and a keg of dill pickles, which was presented to the club by Mr. DeJarnette.

FORESTERS TO HIKE UP MARSHALL GRADE

Committees have been appointed for the annual Forestry club hike which will be held Saturday, October 24, at Marshall grade. The hikers will meet at the corner of Higgins and Front, and will take the Bonner car to the gulch.

Clarence Spaulding is in charge of this year's affair. He will be assisted by Al Burbank and Nelson Fritz. Entertainment will be furnished by members of the club who have worked up some original stunts. Several speeches will be delivered by officers of the club and members of the faculty.

The eats will consist of apples, hot dogs, coffee and roasted marshmallows. The committee assures everyone a good time and asks that everybody remember the place, Marshall grade.

Crabb Studies at Stanford

Paul Crabb of Missoula, a senior in the pre-medical department last year, is studying this year at Stanford university, according to a letter received here by P. C. Sparks, operating manager of the physical plant. Crabb is doing work with the highway commission on Saturdays. "Stanford has a wonderful campus," says Mr. Crabb, "and offers many advantages to the students."

Crabb's sister, Frances, a former Montana student, is studying this year at Berkeley.

Lurena Black, '25, of Butte, is spending several weeks in Missoula.

A Dusty Reminder

"MONTANA needs an honor system."

That line was dug up from a Kaimin editorial dated March 27, 1910. In the article the editor asks for an organized effort on the part of the student body to incorporate into school life the principles of common honesty. "The honor system," the writer pointed out, "is not a new fangled idea on the Montana campus. It is as old as the school itself."

Communications

The Kaimin hereafter will have to insist that all communications be signed and cut down to a maximum of 500 words. This has been a rigid policy of the paper in the past and must be strictly adhered to in the future.—Editor's note.

Dear Mr. Editor:

From the Tuesday edition of the Kaimin I read in your editorial column wherein, at least to the eyes of the athlete, you have been unjust in your criticism of the Montana-Gonzaga game in Butte last Saturday.

In the first place, when one of our players reads that his team "was lucky to leave the field in a 14-14 tie with a weaker team," he feels that that he has been accused of laying down on the job, that the school paper, the organ of student thought, has called him yellow and does not appreciate his efforts. I also believe that you, the editor of the Kaimin, were among those not present at the game in Butte and are therefore not in a position to make editorial comment in the radical manner in which you did in your paper. I have interviewed both the coaches, many of the players, and I was on the bench with the team during the Grizzly-Bulldog fray in Butte, and I know that no man on that team is yellow and I know that no one of them laid down on the job. In fact, if you had half the school spirit that any one of these fellows you call "bewildered smothered line-men" you would never have written this article.

Since when does a school paper "pan" its own team for tying a game that was as hard fought as was the game of last Saturday? Our opponents "medicore backfield" that you speak of is just another case of you not knowing what you are talking about. Gonzaga, on the other hand, has one of the fastest backfields on the coast, and I will say that it is the shiftest.

Individually, I doubt that Montana's men are really much better, if any, than some of Gonzaga's star performers. Ingram, the high-yardage man of the game, is a man with much experience and is said by those who have played against him to be the hardest man in the conference to tackle clean. With other fast men that Gonzaga had in their backfield they were able to hit the line quicker than backs of other teams we have played. It seems that you, in your own mind, have belittled the other team to the extent that you have over-estimated the power of our own team. I know that a Montana team will always do their best or at least the best they can, and it is the least the student body can do to stand behind them and the coach.

Mr. Editor, please try to put yourself in the position of a coach in this school. His means are limited. He has many would-be advisers (otherwise known as wolves), who are supporters of athletics and a very necessary evil of course, who pick his teams before the year is started, and it is amusing to hear some downtown business man say, "Well, if he had put in so and so" the game would have been different. That is just what you have done—you have joined the pack and are now one of the most outstanding howlers.

Your sports editor, in order to fill up his column, has printed a clipping from the Butte Miner, in which it says that with one exception the Montana team was a group of individuals, and that their tackling, their interference, their offense, and their charging was terrible. In fact, he almost ran out of adjectives trying to describe how rotten our team is. Still, with the score 14-7 in favor of Gonzaga, the Fighting Grizzlies went through Gonzaga's offense and tackled a man so hard that he dropped the ball, and while one of the slowest runners on the team proceeded down the field with the ball he was guarded by half a dozen other teammates who had also fought their way through to the man with the ball, and were running interference.

I called the Grizzlies "Fighting Grizzlies," because I think that they are Fighting Grizzlies.

Sincerely,
AN "M" MAN.

Editor of the Kaimin:

"Butte Lands Montana's Premier Football Event"—in these words did Friday's Kaimin hand the latest jolt to students of the University of Montana, and presumably also to those of the State college. To say that this news is unexpected and disappointing is mild. To say that it, if true, is an unjust trick would be more to the point. How many times have we heard fellow students say, "I may not be able to see all of the games here this year, but I sure won't miss the Aggie game." Premier game is correct—in display of real enthusiasm, rivalry, team support, and everything else that makes an athletic contest part of school life. And because Butte "desires a good college game" and is willing to buy one—those who apparently have charge of such affairs calmly wrap it up and pack it a hundred and thirty miles away. We fee-paying students have our choice of patronizing the railroads, bumming over, or staying at home and listening to the telegraphic returns in town. Unjust? And consider further some of these quotations from various sources, with comments as they occur to the writer:

From introductory paragraphs on the April (1925) plea for alumni support of the new athletic field fund: "The new field will not only be an inspiration and incentive to the students and those interested in athletics, an appropriate memorial to Paul Dornblaser and the other alumni who made the supreme sacrifice in the Great War, but the successful completion of the project at an early date will prove to the citizens of the state that the alumni have confidence in their alma mater. . . . Will the Homecoming game with the State college on November 21st be played on the new field?" (Yes, and future ones will be in Butte. Quite like a memorial—something to see and admire but never to be used.)

The Missoula Sentinel of October 13 expresses its sentiment: "All this is bound . . . to make a collegiate holiday for the big mining camp. Perhaps we . . . should not begrudge one such occasion to Butte. But nevertheless, we can not but feel that we are being deprived of something that is justly ours. However, the decision has been made and we'll let Butte have the Grizzlies this one time. But let us not get into the habit, no matter what the financial inducements, of sending our home games away."

To quote the Kaimin editorial of the same date: "Scheduling the Gonzaga game in Butte with only two conference games on the calendar

It is as old as the school itself. Therein lies the discouraging memorial of years of editorial comment. It has been talked about and written about until it is almost hackneyed. Still it never has been tried.

To be sure the honor system is an ideal—but it is proven by practice to be a workable one. As an ideal it is worth thinking about. As a practical substitution for a prolific source of dishonesty it is worth a trial.

The change cannot be effected over night. It must come about through a system of gradual transition, requiring months of careful thought and study. To place the honor system on the campus as a distinct unit—to isolate it and surround it by institutions that are the very antithesis of honor, is to condemn it to failure at the outset. The University system of grading, as well as traditions that have outworn their usefulness and exist on the fruits of compulsion are not conducive to an atmosphere of individual honesty.

Due to the length of the communications in this issue of the Kaimin the editorial columns of the paper have been purposely neglected.—Editor's note.

was a mistake. Plans were completed before any attempt whatever was made to sound out the student body." Again: "It is such an excellent opportunity to establish a pernicious precedent." (If the first is representative of town feeling, and the second of student feeling, should not their opinion be considered together with that of the athletic directors of the two schools and the Butte Chamber of Commerce? And here precedent barely precedes practice!)

Your own ASUM ticket says: "Good for one admission—State Agricultural College vs. University of Montana." (But does it say where every student is to get his $4.32 to go to Butte every year—to say nothing of the costs of the girls' telegrams home for permission to see their school "beat the Aggies"?)

The writer realizes that the guarantee made by Butte on the Gonzaga game is expected to turn this encounter from a loss to a profit. But, grasping one single opportunity to swing a financial coup is one thing, and making a steady practice of charging students for specified benefits and then deliberately making it impossible for hundreds to enjoy the thing for which they have paid in advance is another. "Too strong language" you say? The $5 quarterly student activity fee specifically entitles the student to free admission to all intercollegiate athletic and debate contests. It is naturally understood that these will be held in alternate college towns. And self-supporting students who are forced to realize the cost of a college education in terms of labor by the hour rather than an allowance by the month have no $4.32 per game to give to the railroad company, even at a special rate.

Finally, a few comments on the transparent, easily-answered arguments given in Friday's bombshell. "Athletic relations are strained." Too bad! If conditions are so extreme, far better to continue severance of these relations rather than to meet in "neutral territory" like a Franco-Prussian peace conference. "High prices for tickets heretofore charged." If the writer's arithmetic is correct, even $1 or $1.50 admission in alternate years is less than $4.32 fare each year. "Faulty train service." Raspberries! How is this improved under the new arrangement, and besides, what was the trouble with our $10 special to Bozeman once in two years? "Butte has desired a good college game." Is an intercollegiate athletic contest an intrinsic part of school life, or a by-product to be sold to the highest bidder? "A splendid advertisement for state athletics." Seems like we alumni at least have heard that phrase applied to our new Dornblaser field, when being respect, fully asked to contribute—as most of us did.

In conclusion, whether the recent article is fact or rumor, how does the outlined proposition strike the student body? If the University as a whole or its athletic department is so short of funds, let them openly charge higher registration or activity fees, as larger schools do. Let them even openly and continually charge students a nominal admission to games, but let's drop this childish plan of extolling the nominal registration expenses at the University of Montana and then re-selling to some other party what we have paid for and expected to receive.

Montana Fight

November 11, 1918

A joy-mad world! Paris, Shanghai, Bombay and Chicago had flung themselves headlong into a seething whirlpool of wine . . . and shouted song.

Time stood still. Human atoms, intoxicated with happiness, flung wide their arms and raised their voices in unrestrained relief.

The war was over.

In that sanitary laboratory known to headquarters as Field Evacuation Hospital No. 14, a courageous heart fought the extended hand of death.

For days and days, since that broken form had been tenderly carried from the Argonne, the unequal battle had been in progress.

The next morning, while the world lay exhausted after its wild orgy, a doctor in Hospital No. 14 slowly drew a white sheet over the face of an American hero.

Another Grizzly had given his life in the name of a cause.

Today, in the cemetery of Chapparral, near the Meuse, there stands a cross that bears the name of . . . William Emmett Ryan.

STUDENTS MAKE USE OF STUDY FACILITIES

Student use of the University library this week has increased at least 25 per cent over the first two weeks of the quarter, according to Miss Gertrude Buckhous, University librarian. Class rooms on the first floor are being used for study, the main reading room and the new reference book reading rooms failing to accommodate all students.

More books are being placed on the rental reserve shelves each day; students may obtain these volumes for an hour and a half without charge. A large number of bound magazines will be placed on the loan shelves the first of next week. Source theme material will be largely chosen from these magazines.

"The loitering and talking in the halls is somewhat improved," said Miss Buckhous, "but students must bear in mind the warning issued by the president."

Grace Simms was confined to the sick room at North hall for a few days this week.

Banker Wills of Wibaux has been appointed assistant manager, and Robert McKenzie, circulation manager.

The Kaimin this year has enlarged its scope of advertising and has re-contracted with Roy Barnhill, Inc., of New York, and Collegiate Special Advertising Agency of New York and Chicago, for national ads. Several large contracts are now under consideration in this field and it is expected that the Kaimin will be one of the heaviest advertising mediums among the collegiate newspapers for the coming year. KUOM GETS PRAISE FOR RADIO PROGRAM

KUOM, the University broadcast station, has succeeded in reaching the Atlantic coast. Two verified reception reports, from Pennsylvania and New Jersey, were received by the station in yesterday's mail, according to Mr. G. D. Shallenberger. In commenting on the reports, Mr. Shallenberger declared that the distance covered so early in the game was beyond his best estimate.

The Philadelphia fan enumerated several of the selections on last Sunday's program, and said that the station signals were clear and strong; he also congratulated the staff and expressed a desire to hear the station again. The other listener, in Bloomfield, N. J., reported hearing the same program. The technical staff has figured that an actual air line distance of 1,800 miles was covered.

Reports from the West continue to come in with every mail. One fan, in Hobart Mills, Cal., says that KUOM is as loud and clear as KFI, Los Angeles, and KPO, San Francisco.

Here's how to set the world afire

EVEN green wood burns, under the concentrated heat of the burning glass. Even this green earth can be kindled by the man who concentrates all the fire of his brain on what he is doing.

Concentration—secret of all great work.

—secret of the winning basket shot by the player who might well have been distracted by "burned" elbows and eyes clouded with perspiration.

—secret of the scholarship prize that might more easily have been allowed to slip by in favor of the twittering birds and the flowers that bloom in the Spring.

—secret of the electrical short cut devised by the engineer too intent on that single task to let the thousand and one time-killers of the business day get the upper hand.

Concentration was their burning glass. And focused ability set their worlds afire.

FROSH-SOPH GAME IS VARSITY OPENER

Freshmen and sophomores will battle for the inter-class football crown at 1 o'clock Saturday in a preliminary game to the Montana-School of Mines struggle, which is scheduled for 2:30. The gridiron warfare is being staged under the supervision of Harry Adams, director of intra-mural athletics.

The Frosh reserves, whose membership is chosen from the third and fourth teams on the yearling squad, are heavy favorites to win the struggle. Long hours of scrimmage coupled with football fundamentals and other practice work has put the reserves in the "pink" of condition. The second year outfit donned football attire Monday and this week has been staging strenuous practices. Tuesday they scrimmaged against Coach Stegner's Missoula county high team and on the following nights held lengthy workouts which for the most part consisted of signal drills and elementary football.

SHOCK TROOPS GET CHANCE SATURDAY

yards behind his goal line, and slashed through the entire length of the field for a touchdown. In the past the Miners have been exceptionally quick to take advantage of the breaks.

Coach Clark has placed much stress on interference running in this week's workouts. Some lineup changes have been tried in scrimmages, Rafferty and Coleman being tried at ends with Tom Kain at guard. Axtell has worked some at tackle with Larson at end, Streit at tackle and Fletcher at guard. In the backfield Griffin has been playing full, Sam Kain half, and T. and W. Hodges at quarter and half. These changes have been tried in an effort to develop a strong reserve team to send against the Miners.

The Probable Lineup

Montana's probable lineup for tomorrow's fracas is: Larson and Rafferty, ends; Vierhus and Streit, tackles; Fletcher and Cogswell, guards; Plummer, center; Griffin, full; S. Kain and W. Hodges, halves; T. Hodges, quarter. Steve Sullivan of Butte will umpire the contest, and Dr. Beall of Anaconda will referee.

Building Goodwill In Merchandising

"Do unto others as you would be done by"—the Golden Rule in our ethical life—must needs be carried into merchandising to make it successful.

The merchant, for his own use, wouldn't consider a poorly made garment. He wouldn't continue to patronize a store unless he had confidence in its integrity—bonafide values—merchandise above reproach.

"Doing as you would be done by" is the most solid foundation of goodwill.

SPORTY-VENTS

George Byrd, fullback on the frosh team, who was reported to have dislocated his arm in scrimmage last Monday, will be out for the rest of the season. An X-ray revealed a compound fracture.

Here's hoping the reserves will handily take care of the Miners so the regulars can smack the Oregon Aggies at Corvallis without any handicaps next week.

The frosh reserves, picked from the last two teams of the yearling squad, and the sophs will battle tomorrow before the Varsity contest. This preliminary game will start at 1 o'clock.

Whitefish high has asked for a game with the frosh reserves for a week from tomorrow at Whitefish. Montana mentors say that the yearlings may make the trip.

If Montana has any hidden ability it's going to get a chance to reveal itself tomorrow. Last year the regulars started the Mines game at Butte, but after a tremendous score had been piled up a host of subs were turned loose.

Here's what the Exponent says about our frosh eleven: "The Cubs have a flashy team. With a few more games under their belts they will be, undoubtedly, the most promising eleven yet turned out at the U. Their efforts Saturday showed lack of concerted action so essential to any successful team. The game was clean, hard and fast, and was marred at no time by any unnecessary roughness or fouling."

Coach Wee Maudlin's Cubs leave for Pullman tonight at 10:45 to tangle with the W.S.C. Cougar babes tomorrow. How about a cheerful send-off, frosh?

Stockton, last year's captain of the Bulldog eleven, and Bob Fitzke, former Idaho gridiron star, are playing professional football in Philadelphia. Recently the team they are on humbled Jim Thorpe's New York eleven in the National professional football league, 14-2.

GRIZZLY-W.S.C. CUBS TANGLE AT PULLMAN

Montana Frosh Are Out for Win; Game Should Show Improvements

The Cougar babes of W.S.C. will face a different team from the Frosh squad which lost to the Aggie yearlings 21 to 7 last Saturday. A week of scrimmage has worked miracles with Montana's yearling line, while the backfield has improved greatly.

Thrown for five nights in the pathway of two varsity squads the Frosh have been toughened. Two-hour scrimmages were the program in the football realm this week and the Freshmen have benefited from the experience. Grizzly Cubs learned to scuff and snarl when holding the Varsity under the shadow of their goal posts.

Twenty Men Make Trip

Coach "Wee" Maudlin will take 20 men to Pullman on the train which leaves here this evening. The squad will return Sunday morning. From these 20 candidates Maudlin will pick his starting string. Otto Bessey, manager, will accompany the team.

Montana's yearlings will have the advantage of one collegiate game's experience over the W.S.C. Frosh who are yet to be tried on the field of battle. Though green W.S.C. believes it has the strongest squad in freshman football in the Pacific Coast conference. While Montana had some 65 candidates to pick a team from W.S.C. had 164 gridsters from all sections of the country on the field when Coach Harry (Hack) Applequist blew the opening whistle.

Clipping Praises Frosh

Following is a clipping from the "Evergreen," official W.S.C. paper, which shows the condition of the Cougar babes:

"With the W.S.C. Frosh football machine executing their plays like veterans and gradually working themselves up to the pink of physical condition, all attention is centered on the prospects of the outcome of the first game of the babes' series against Montana on Rogers field October 24. "The Cougar babes are determined to follow in the footsteps of the varsity and give the Grizzlies another beating, while the Montana yearlings will come here with a thirst for blood that will be hard to deny."

Five Men to Enter Cross Country Run

Ten men are still in training for the trout cross-country meet here between halves of the Idaho-Montana frosh football game scheduled for October 31.

A four-mile course will be laid out and anyone is eligible to participate. The winner is to be given a white shaker knit sweater, provided he is not a letterman. This gives a man who has not won distinction in track a chance to win the sweater.

The first five men will be taken to Idaho to the Coast Conference cross country meet November 7, if they are eligible.

The entries who will run on the 31st are: Williams, Davis, Gillette, Orr, Arsel, Gauzan, Martin, E. Blumenthal, Osness, Robinson.

RESERVES MAY PLAY WHITEFISH GRIDDERS

The frosh reserves may journey to Whitefish a week from Saturday to play the high school there, according to an announcement made yesterday by the coaching staff.

Whitefish is having trouble completing a gridiron schedule and invited the reserves to play them October 31. The north state boys are said to have a strong football machine and the game should prove an interesting one from the sidelines. In addition to giving Whitefish a practice game, the struggle will complete the reserve schedule.

Professor Merriam Wants Kaimin

Dean A. L. Stone is in receipt of a letter from Professor H. G. Merriam of the English department, who is studying at Columbia University, New York, in which he asks that the Kaimin be sent him as a means of keeping in touch with what is going on at the University. In his letter he mentioned having seen Evan Reynolds, Dan Harrington, Helen Ramsey, and two Rhodes Scholarship students, Radcliff Beckwith and Eck Farmer, since his arrival in New York.

OLSEN HEADS LUTHERAN STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

Hans Olsen was elected president of the Lutheran Students' association at a meeting held in the church parlors Tuesday evening. The other officers are: Vice-president, Frances Erickson; secretary, Solvay Andersen; treasurer, Chester Onstad. A social committee headed by Wilfred Fehlhaber, with Helen Dahlberg and Chester Onstad as members, will make arrangements for the next meeting, November 4.

Preceding the business meeting, a buffet supper was served by the ladies of the St. Paul English Lutheran church. Anna Peterson and Solvay Andersen sang during the evening, and a talk was given by Rev. S. Sorenson, representative of the Lutheran Students' association, with headquarters in St. Paul.

Professor R. L. Hausman of the Journalism school addressed the Missoula County Federation of Women's Clubs at Bonita Tuesday. The subject dealt with the different functions of the newspaper as a social organ.

Dinner guests at North hall the past three days were Georgia McRea, Ernestine Dawson, Kathryn Kelly, Elvira Madsen, Lois Miller, Jack Crutchfield, Esther Skystead, Katherine MacPhearson, Jean Cowan, Mildred May, Florence Barker, Patti Duncan, Grace Nelson, and Lucille Grave.

Genevieve Clay will spend the week-end visiting in Helena.

SECTION RESERVED FOR VARSITY MEN

"M" men will be given seats in a part of the bleachers set aside for them at the Aggie game, according to an announcement made by the Athletic board. Tickets will be furnished all "M" men upon application to Coach Stewart.

Herman Stark was appointed basketball manager, with John McNiven as assistant. Walter Mondale will manage frosh basketball. It was also decided that new sweaters for athletic managers will have a uniform four-inch block M instead of the circle M formerly used.

Members of the club agreed to give a sweater to the first non-letter man who crosses the tape in the cross-country run.

Seats on the bleachers for the Aggie game will be reserved for both Aggie and Montana students. The seating capacity of the bleachers will be ample for both schools.

FRESHMEN SET RECORD FOR PHYSICAL CONDITION

W. E. Schreiber, director of physical education, states that the freshmen men he has thus far examined are in better physical condition than any group of men in his experience.

There were fewer students ruled out of the Military department due to physical defects this year than ever before, although the class is the largest in the history of Montana, according to Dr. Schreiber.
