UM STUDENT FROM MILES CITY PUTS ACADEMICS TO WORK

MISSOULA --

Miles City resident Jacob Eaton, a senior at The University of Montana-Missoula, participated in a fall-semester internship program offered through UM's Center for Work-Based Learning.

The center provides opportunities for undergraduate and graduate students to integrate academic theories and principles with practical job experience related to their chosen fields.

Eaton, a political science major, worked for the re-election campaign of U.S. Rep. Denny Rehberg. He graduated from Custer County District High School in 1999. He is the son of Charley Eaton of Dane, Wisc.

UM's Center for Work-Based Learning serves about 2,000 students each year, placing them in internships throughout Montana, the United States and overseas in more than 35 fields of employment. For more information, visit the center's Web site at www.umt.edu/internships.
