UNIVERSITY MAKES PLANS FOR LARGEST HOMECOMING

Homecoming, November 26th. Plans have been made for the biggest Homecoming the University has ever had. The Bobcat-Montana game promises to be a scrap from the start to the finish—the Alumni dinner promises to be so good that there won't be a scrap left—and then to climax the events of the day with the big Homecoming in the Gym.

The program will start with a band concert at 7:15 Wednesday night, November 25, to be followed by SOS. A bon fire and rally will raise pep for the Aggie game the following day, following the rally a reception for former students and Alumni will be held at the home of President and Mrs. C. H. Clapp, 661 University avenue.

The Grizzly-Bobcat game will start promptly at 2:30 on Thursday afternoon, November 26th. Hundreds of old grads and former students will find themselves stirred up by a thrill of accomplishment when they see the new Alumni Athletic field, as it stands against Mount Sentinel, a symbol of alumni loyalty to the Alma Mater. The Fungs and Bear Paws are to put on competitive stunts between halves of the game.

It is 16 years since an Aggie eleven chalked up a victory against a Grizzly team. Last year the ancient rivalry did not clash, but the year before they staged a thrilling tussle at

Dean Jesse Explains Homecoming Activity

To Montana's Alumni:

A university consists not only of a group of buildings but also of all its members, both present and past. It follows, therefore, that it is never completely assembled at any one time and place. Yet it is of value at intervals to bring all of its parts together, as nearly as may be, for mutual acquaintance and encouragement. This is the function of Homecoming.

R. H. JESSE,
Dean of Men.

Strawberry Stark's Horse-Marines and Jake Miller's Puddle-Jumpers, named for the Varsity day which was postponed, will take off the Aggie-Montana game in which there will be no doubt as to the outcome. Stark's team, representing Montana, is made up of lengthy material. Inches, not ability, count on this team and no man on it can get through a door less than six feet high.

Jake Miller will captain the "Aggies." Quality, not quantity, counts here, as inches are considered a drawback rather than an asset. Brevity is the soul of the team. The "Aggies" will appear in native costume.

The captains ask that the members of the two teams report at the gym at 4 o'clock today for a tight workout and signal practice.

RED CROSS OPENS DRIVE ON CAMPUS

The Red Cross nation-wide drive for membership on the campus will begin this week and continue until Thanksgiving. The campus campaign has been delayed because of the delay in receiving the material. The YWCA has charge of the campus drive.

One girl in each sorority house has been appointed to take the subscriptions for her house. The Tanans are canvassing the various fraternity houses. Anabel Rogers, at North hall; Rodney Zachary, at South hall, and Jessie Taylor, at Craig hall, are managing the Red Cross campaign in the dormitories.

DRAMATIC CLUB OFFERS TICKETS FOR BIG PLAY

MASQUERS TO FEATURE PLAY, HOMECOMING

Aaron Shull Leads Cast in Producing the Famous Romantic Melodrama, "Captain Applejack."

Tickets for "Captain Applejack," the fall major production of the Montana Masquers, will go on sale tomorrow, according to Bob Harper, president of the dramatic club. The romantic melodrama will be presented at the Liberty theater Friday evening, November 27, as a part of the Homecoming program.

The sets for all three acts of the production were completed this week. Work on the costumes has been started, and a staff under the direction of Lauretta Wills, is making costumes for the pirates in the second act. The scene of the first and third acts is laid in the library of Ambrose Applejohn's mansion on the coast of Cornwall. The second act takes place on board an old pirate ship.

The cast is rehearsing nightly in the University auditorium under the personal direction of Carl Glick, who took charge of dramatics at Montana University this fall. Mr. Glick attended the University during the years 1911-14, and received his B. S. degree from Northwestern University in 1915. For the past two years he has been director of the Players club at the University of Colorado. He has been an actor and producer in a number of cities throughout the United States, and his short stories, sketches and articles of various kinds have been published in several leading magazines.

Most of the major parts in the production will be played by Montana Masquers. The cast includes: Ambrose Applejohn, Aaron Shull; Poppy Faire, Dorothy Keefe; Aunt Agatha Whitcombe, Mary Kirkwood; Anna Valeska, Maureen Desmond; Ivan Borolsky, Ed Heilman; Mrs. Pengard, Margaret Sparr; Horace Pengard, Edward Simon; Johnny Jason, Ray Wegener; Dennet, Aubrey Houston; Lush, William Charteris; Palmer, Kathleen O'Donnell; Pirates, Nelson Fritz, Henry Douglass, Harry Hooser, William Garver, Lawrence Ulvestad, Dean Gillespie, Henry Crippen, Grant Elderkin.

A majority of the members of the cast have appeared in campus productions or have been a part of the producing staff of the Masquers. Tickets will sell for 50c, $1 and $1.50.

FRESHMEN DEBATERS TO FACE BOBKITTENS

Child Labor Question is to Be Subject for Debate in Coming Contest

Definite arrangements have been made to use the child labor question for the freshman dual debate which will be held between the University and State College some time in December or January, according to H. M. Keele, debate coach. In this debate, 10 minutes will be allotted to each member of the team for constructive speech and five minutes for rebuttal.

The freshman teams will probably be composed of three members each, who will be selected from the present squad, which is composed of men and women. Professor Keele called a meeting of the freshman squad last night at 5 o'clock in room 306 of the library, to present the question and get the members started on their reference reading. After the freshman meeting he held a short meeting of upperclass women who are interested in debate. It is planned to have three members on each of the Varsity women's teams. No definite arrangements for a women's debate have been made, but they will probably debate the child labor question also.

The Varsity men will debate the prohibition question, according to Mr. Keele, and their teams will be composed of two men each. Their schedule will include the state trip which will take place some time in January or February.

Attend Homecoming, Prexy Urges Alumni In His Annual Letter

To the Alumni:

We are always glad to have you former students back with us on the campus, but we are especially glad to welcome you home for Homecoming. The local committee has been buzzing around in my outer office so industriously for so long, I am sure they are going to make your homecoming very well worth while.

I wish that it were possible for you to have a larger and larger part in the control of the University. However, such control is not a right, just because you are Alumni. It is a privilege and a right that is earned only by your greater sense of obligation to the University and by your greater knowledge of conditions, and hence by your greater fitness to serve fairly all the interests of Montana.

If you would have this greater knowledge, come back and see the old game on the new field, which you have helped to build, listen to the noise from the stands, talk to the old and new members of the faculty, chum with your classmates and fellow alumni, and meet the largest student body Montana has ever seen.

Yours for Montana,
C. H. CLAPP,
President.

HOMECOMING ALUMNI WILL RECEIVE RATES

Railroads Offer Special Fare to All Persons Interested in Annual Classic

Rates of a fare and a third from any point in Montana to Missoula are being offered to Homecoming alumni by the Northern Pacific and Milwaukee railroads co-operating with the University authorities in an effort to make this year's event the biggest and best of all of the Homecomings held since the annual gathering was instituted in 1914.

These tickets will be put on sale November 25 and 26 and will have validity until November 29, allowing those who wish to stop over and really renew former friendships without having to dash away on the first train that leaves Missoula after the game.

Aggie rooters will be here to support their team, coming from Bozeman on their special train. Rates of $7.75, or one fare, are being given the State College students. More than 200 Bobcat rooters are expected as the railroad demands at least 200 passengers before the special will run. The Exponent is boosting the sales of the tickets and reports fine progress to date. The addition of the price of a duet for a seat in their reserved section makes the total cost to Bozeman enthusiasts $9.

SEDMAN WILL SPEAK AT GIRLS CONGRESS

Dean Harriet Sedman will leave Thursday morning on the Northern Pacific for Bozeman to attend the annual Vocational Congress of Montana high school girls. She is scheduled to give a speech of greeting to the girls.

Each high school in the state may send representatives to the congress. They are generally selected on the basis of their services to the school, leadership, scholarship and ability to bring back a report of the congress. The Women's clubs in the various towns often finance several of the high school representatives. Two representatives from Missoula county high school are being financed by the Missoula club. Ten girls, who are selected by the sponsor of the Girls' club, which is an organization of all the girls in Missoula county high school, will be sent to the congress, according to Principal G. A. Ketcham.

Helen Bennett, who spoke at the 1923, will be one of the prominent speakers on the program. Mrs. Theodore Brantly, director of North hall, will accompany Mrs. Sedman. They expect to return Saturday night.

KUOM STATION WIDELY KNOWN IN NORTHWEST

UNIVERSITY PROGRAMS GAIN POPULARITY

New 250-Watt Radio Station Enables Fans Throughout the Country to Hear Montana's Best Artists.

Since its opening in the fall of 1923, the University broadcasting station has increased in popularity until it is one of the most widely known stations in the Northwest.

The original equipment consisted of one five-watt tube and a small amount of apparatus reconstructed from some of the Physics laboratory material. With this primitive equipment the station started operating under the amateur call letters of TIF. The license held was in the name of Earl Lenigan, one of the operators. In the spring of the following year, the power was increased to 10 watts. Most of the programs in that year were transmitted by a telephone line from the Main hall auditorium to the transmitting equipment which was housed in the workshop of the Physics department. Under the temporary call letters of KFLW the station was heard on one occasion in Pennsylvania.

The fall of 1924 witnessed the first real progress toward a permanent station. The entire fall quarter was devoted to getting material and supplies for a 250-watt station. After many delays in the arrival of apparatus, a period of experimentation was begun in the early part of February, 1925. Charter day, February 17, of that year marked the opening of KUOM. The University of Montana was on that day fixed as a point in the radio universe. Programs were broadcast on a regular schedule, and reports of congratulation started pouring into the station in an apparently never-ending stream.

During the last months of summer, the original plans neared a fuller realization. The old equipment was dismantled and a new set gradually took shape in the Simpkins hall workshop. New material and apparatus was combined with the old to conform to the plans of a 500 watt station. A new transmitter was completed and housed behind a marble panel within a few days of the opening of the fall term. With a few days of intensive testing the station was again ready to go on the air, and on the afternoon of October 3 the power was turned on to broadcast the report of the W.S.C.-Montana football game.

Since its fall opening, the station has established a nation-wide range. The piles of letters and post cards in the station office bear witness to the fact that KUOM is an established institution. In spite of weather handicaps, in spite of every difficulty, the staff makes good its promise to "advertise Montana to the world."

COMMITTEE WILL SUBMIT REPORT ON CONSTITUTION

Reports from the committee appointed to revise the ASUM constitution will be discussed this afternoon by the Central Board at its weekly meeting at 5 o'clock. The committee, composed of Charles Conley, chairman, Dr. W. E. Schreiber, Dr. M. J. Elrod, Harold Hepper and Zelma Hay, has been at work on the constitution for several weeks. Many changes in the present ASUM constitution have been made according to suggestions received from the examination of constitutions from other universities and colleges.

CROSS-COUNTRY RUN WILL BE WEDNESDAY

Preceding the Varsity day farce football game tomorrow afternoon, the cross-country run will take place, according to Harry Adams, director of intra-mural sports. The runners will start in front of Main hall and go up the Rattlesnake to the tourist camp. On their return, they will run around the oval once and finish the race at Main hall.

Dean Stone Grooms Homecoming Alumni

The old campus needs the presence of all alumni and they will feel better if they make this a personal contribution toward fixing permanently the Montana Homecoming tradition. This 1925 Homecoming should be the finest in point of numbers and in the matter of loyalty to the University that has ever been held. There's a lot here that's new to the alumni and they should come and see it. Better, there's a lot that's old—the very stuff for which they have been homesick ever since they left the campus. It will renew and strengthen the old associations and it will establish new bonds which will hold them more closely and more dearly to the University they are helping to become great.

DEAN STONE.

COPY FOR FRONTIER IN PRINTER'S HANDS

Copy for the fall number of The Frontier, University literary magazine, is in the hands of the printer and will be issued during Homecoming, according to Professor Sidney H. Cox, of the English department. Included in the first number are two letters from former University students who are now abroad—Maurice Angland, who is with the consular service in Sweden, and D'Arcy Dahlberg, who is studying at Oxford. There will also be a short story, several sketches, much good poetry and an amusing diary of a Montana girl. The Snitch Box contains sketches of varying length.

The class in Creative Writing has charge of the publication but in this issue several contributions were accepted from students who are not members of that class. Joan Burkeland, circulation manager, has added several names this fall to the mailing list of the magazine.

Dr. Freeman Daughters, professor of education, has been confined to Northern Pacific hospital where he will remain for three weeks. During his absence, Professor Maddock will teach the education classes.

GRIZZLY-BOBCAT SUMMARY SHOWS MONTANA IN LEAD

When Grizzly meets Bobcat on Dornblaser field Turkey day state gridiron supremacy will be settled for another year.

Thanksgiving day, November 26, will be the twenty-eighth anniversary of the first football game between State University and State College. In that period the two schools have battled 26 times with 17 Grizzly victories, five Bobcat wins and four draw games.

The initial contest played on a snow-covered field in 1897 went to the Copper, Silver and Gold of the University by an 18 to 6 count.

In the first of a series of two games the following year Heyfron's touchdown gave the Missoula institution a 6 to 0 victory. The second meeting went the same way but by a score of 16 to 0.

Finances prevented a contest in 1899. The 1890 struggle fell to the State College by a one-point margin when the home team failed to make good on their second try for goal. The score was 12 to 11.

The following two years the Aggies had little trouble in whipping the Grizzlies, winning by tallies of 31-0 and 30-0.

In 1903 the Bobcat made it four straight by annexing the annual game 13 to 6 on a snowy gridiron.

The largest score ever piled up in this state classic was made in 1904

Montana Line Stops Strong U.S.C. Team While Kelly and Illman Star

Fighting better than at any time this season, the Grizzlies stopped the mighty Trojan eleven 27-7 at Los Angeles Saturday. The final whistle found Coach Clark's men lugging the pigskin close to the enemy goal in a brilliant display of traditional Grizzly grit.

Billy Kelly scintillated as he did in the victory over Idaho, and even more so because he also carried the punting burden Saturday. He out-foxed the big blue-clad eleven time and again with his generalship, and after having skirted the ends and smacking the tackles for 50 yards he zipped the oval 25 yards to Sugrue, who trotted five more for Montana's only score. Captain Illman also came in for his share of the glories. In the final period Chief strode from the field step by step with his head bowed. He had spent his last bit of strength in a knightly effort to see the Copper, Silver and Gold flying over the Trojan camp.

It was just a case of U.S.C.'s beef being too much for the Grizzlies. Had Sweet been in there to punt, and thereby more equally divide the burden, Montana might have lowered the highly touted Trojans. Our liemen must have fought like tigers to hold U.S.C. to the same score that they did the Oregon Aggies.

Five minutes after the brawl began Kaer, the Trojan speedster, corralled a lateral pass and hopped six yards across the goal line. A few minutes later Ritter fumbled and Adams recovered. Then Kaer backed over for another counter. Lanarata smacked right tackle for a touchdown in the early part of the third quarter, and a little later the high scoring Kaer tallied again.

It was in the third period that Montana's work won the big ovation from the large crowd. With the aid of hard tackling by Illman and neat interference work, Kelly carried the ball from the shadows of his own goal posts to the Trojan 30-yard line, from where he heaved to Sugrue who went the necessary five to save Montana from a whitewashing. During this march the deceptive Grizzly reverse plays and passes started from the same formation baffled Coach Jones' warriors time and again.

Montana's second play was a toss

when the State University overwhelmed the State College 79 to 0. Due to friction between the football squad and the Bozeman school's faculty the 1905 contest was cancelled just four days before the battle was scheduled.

This same altercation placed the gridiron sport under ban in the State College for the two following years.

The next Grizzly-Bobcat struggle came in 1908 when the Copper, Silver and Gold held a heavier opponent to a 0-0 count on the Missoula field.

In a return game at Bozeman, Fransham, Aggie star, shook off four tacklers and carried the oval 35 yards to give the State College a 5 to 0 win.

Winstanley, Grizzly player, booted a field goal in the last 90 seconds of the initial 1909 contest to defeat the Blue and Gold of the State College 3 to 0.

The second battle of the season ended 15 to 5 for the State University.

Not enough punch to push over a touchdown forced the Bozeman school to a 0-0 tie in the first 1910 struggle. Four times the Bobcat had the oval within inches of the Grizzly goal.

The Missoula crew completed 11 out of 15 attempts at passes on the home field and won 10 to 0 in the

Varsity Day

TOMORROW marks the arrival of Varsity Day. The powers that be have decreed that this day be given over to feats of strength and daring, amusement and hilarity, sense and nonsense. Plans are in readiness for a day replete with entertainment. It rests with the students whether or not it will be a success.

Three years ago the traditional sneak day was crossed off the calendar and in its place a legitimate holiday, Varsity Day, was created. Although it lacks the zest and joy of a day stolen, and despite the fact that it takes from us one more tradition, it was thought that this legalized holiday, filled to the brim with speeches, dances and entertainment, would fill the bill in much better shape.

Tomorrow is its final chance. It's up to you.

GRIZZLY BEATS MSC IN MOST OF GAMES

season's second game between the two adversaries.

Cancellation of the Bobcat schedule in the midst of the fall of 1911 annulled the annual struggle.

Owsley of the State University eleven smashed over for a touchdown to give the Copper, Silver and Gold a 7 to 0 win in the first contest in 1912.

On the Missoula gridiron the home team won easily with a count of 39 to 3.

The following year Kress duplicated Owsley's feat and the Grizzly enjoyed another 7 to 0 victory.

Again, the State University had easy going on the Missoula field, winning 20 to 0.

The undefeated 1914 Grizzly team beat the Aggie eleven 26 to 9.

There was no game the following year due to the severance of relations between the two schools.

Once more the feud was resumed the next season when Jones of the State University hung up six points that were equalled by the State College when they completed four consecutive 20-yard passes.

A last-minute touchdown by Bentz of the Grizzlies gave the Missoula team a 9 to 7 win in 1917.

War prevented a 1918 encounter.

A 20-yard run by Taylor of the State College and a 70-yard sprint by Adams of the State University put the 1919 battle into a 6-6 tie. Failure to advance the ball three inches in the third quarter forced the Aggies to accept a draw.

The Grizzlies had little opposition in the next annual scrap, winning 28 to 0.

Sullivan's fierce smashes enabled the State University to nose out the Bobcat 14 to 7 in 1921.

One of the greatest Grizzly-Bobcat struggles of all time came in 1922. "Bullet Joe" Kerschner of the Missoula school went over for a touchdown in the last four seconds of play to hang up a 7 to 6 victory.

The last battle in Bozeman two years ago ended 24 to 13 for the State University.

Severed relations again accounted for the failure to hold the annual classic in 1924.

Suffering under 16 years of defeat and draw games the Bobcat is bringing one of the best teams that ever wore State College colors to Missoula this year to do their best to take back the state supremacy that has hung in the Grizzly lair since 1909.

NOTICE.

Quadrans will hold a meeting Thursday, at 4 o'clock at the Alpha Chi Omega house. All senior women are urged to be present.

Come and See

YOU say you want to know who is going to win the Aggie game? Well—hold your ear close and listen to this.

The State College has a great team—the best it has had in years. Until mid-season the Bobcats were undefeated and to date have lost but two games—one to Wyoming 7-6 and the other to the Utah Aggies Thursday by a score of 10-7. The Homecoming letter sent out to ex-students of M.S.C. says, "We go to Missoula to watch the best team in the history of the State College in action against the spectacular Grizzly. We go to win."

Montana State, with two possible exceptions, has the best team in history—but so has Montana. In the Pacific Coast conference the Grizzlies have faced the fastest competition in the country, losing to W.S.C. 9-0, University of Washington 30-10, O.A.C. 27-7, U.S.C. 27-7, drawing a tie from the Gonzaga Bulldogs and whipping the Idaho Vandals 20-14.

It will be a good old-fashioned battle—the kind that used to get under your skin in the days of Gattin and Dorn. In the place of those two heroes you will see such stars perform as Kelly, Ilman, Sweet for Montana, and Gregory, Wylie and Glynn for the State College.

Will the Grizzlies win?

Dope it out for yourself—but remember that the maroon jerseys have gone undefeated by the Aggies for 16 years. In all events, be here to see the game!

Montana Fight

November 26, 1897

Twenty-two tensed figures on a snowy field awaited the signal that would throw them into the first inter-collegiate football struggle in the state of Montana.

Along the sidelines beribboned rooters shouted hoarse encouragement.

The whistle tore the wintry air. Bobcat and Grizzly were locked in battle.

The University eleven crouched low as it prepared to rip the College wall.

In the center of the line two hundred pounds of Grizzly fight clutched the frozen oval.

Back of him one hundred twenty pounds of Grizzly fight waited for that frozen oval.

The snapped ball . . . and a squirming pile of battling flesh.

Three times the Copper, Silver and Gold carried the ball across the Blue and Gold line.

Once a slippery Aggie back sped the length of the field to shave his team from the zero column.

The score: University 18, College 6.

The feud had begun and the twenty-eighth anniversary of that nearly forgotten battle will find the Bobcat and Grizzly once more fighting for supremacy.

THE professor continues, "Perhaps other papers were equally intelligent, but their merit was obscured by illegible penmanship. If everybody would learn to use a portable typewriter, it would save your time and mine and relieve me from the drudgery of reading longhand."

Neat, legible, typewritten manuscript keeps the "profs" in perfect "reading humor." And perfect "reading humor" tends to mean better marks. Then too, a writing machine for your personal use is helpful in compiling your notes, and in writing those letters home.

GRIZZLY CUBS WIN FIRST GAME; BEAT BABES 15-6

Davis Plays Sterling Ball; Lusher, Giant Halfback, Stars for Idaho

Montana's Grizzly Cubs, charged between halves from an awkward squad into a team of fighting, snarling, slashing, spectacular football players, and tore through the Vandal Babes for a sensational 15 to 6 triumph Saturday afternoon.

Leaving the field at the end of the first half, Montana trailed 6 to 0 as the result of erratic work in the Cub's backfield whose judgment at times bordered close upon football insanity. When the whistle blew for the start of the third quarter, Idaho faced a different outfit from the one they had played on better than even terms the two periods before. The Cubs now played daring football, took numerous chances and by the ferocity of their attack drove back the Vandal Babes. Sometimes in leaps, again more slowly by the Cubs forced the Idaho team back—back behind the shadow of their goal posts, where Brown, Idaho quarterback, was tackled by Fogarty as he attempted to punt. This resulted in a safety which gave Montana two points, her first score of the game.

Aerial Attack Wins.

Forward passes paved the way for Montana's victory. A long toss to Blair put the ball in striking position and another toss from Olson to Davis, for 15 yards, resulted in the first Cub touchdown. Several minutes later a pass to Fogarty placed the oval in position for Blair to slip around end on a reverse and cross buck combination and he ran 15 yards for the second touchdown. Late in the game a 40-yard pass from Davis to Olson, gave Montana another opportunity which did not materialize.

The Vandal Babes took the lead in the first quarter when Olson attempted to nab a bounding punt on his own five-yard line. The ball slipped through his fingers and Hall, Idaho left guard, picked it up and dashed five yards across the goal, the sole Idaho score. Idaho lost an opportunity in the second quarter when Fogarty recovered a Babe fumble near the Montana goal.

Many passes, long, short, of all varieties, with most everybody on either the receiving or throwing end, kept the handful of spectators at a high pitch of excitement. No less than 47 passes were attempted, with 13 being completed, Montana gaining 100 yards on six of 17 tries and Idaho 126 yards on seven of 30 attempts.

Tom Davis Stars.

Tom Davis at right end was the star of the game. When the teams were waiting for the ball to be snapped he urged his teammates to take the measure of the Vandal Babes. He tackled viciously, got down fast under punts, ripped through the Idaho interference and all in all played a most brilliant game. Sweetman at right half-back was a sensational defensive and offensive performer. His speed enabled him to out-run the Idaho eleven and he cut back on his wide end runs when further advance toward the sidelines was impossible. Blair, like Sweetman, was the other Cub backfield star, though Parmelee, who played with a cracked rib, did excellent work at full and backed up the line in splendid fashion. Olsen punted well but showed poor judgment on several occasions in directing his attack when Montana near the Idaho goal. Fogarty at left end was another stellar Montana player as was Barfell at right tackle. Taylor at center and Perry at left guard played good ball. Burgher, giant Idaho left half-back, Brown, Pagoga, Rawlings, Cheyne, Hall and Axtell were the shining lights of the green-jerseyed Idaho eleven. Coach "Wee" Maudlin in the last three weeks had accomplished much with the Cub squad. Long hours of practice showed its effect Saturday.

Yardstick Figures.

First down—Montana, 3, Idaho, 3. Yards from scrimmage—Montana, 134, Idaho, 157. Ball lost on downs—Montana, 3, Idaho, 3. Punts—Montana, 11 for an average of 36 yards; Idaho, 11 for an average of 34 yards. Montana completed six passes for 100 yards, 10 being grounded and one intercepted. Idaho completed seven passes for 126 yards, 18 being grounded and five intercepted. Each team fumbled five times and each recovered on three occasions. Montana returned punts 14 yards, Idaho 71 yards, Idaho was penalized 50 yards, Montana nothing.

from its 20-yard line. From then on the air was filled with passes.

Coach Clark and his band of heroes returned today, and after a brief vacation will go into the most grueling practice sessions of the season so that they can keep the record of 16 years without a defeat from the Aggies on Turkey day.

A wonderful spectacle of new models, new fabrics, new colors, in our great assortment of Specialized Values—

Seen at the Chicago-Dartmouth Game Last Saturday

The Eastern college man's suit with wide shoulders, narrow hips and full-cut trousers was the leading favorite. Double-breasted were much in evidence. Trousers bottoms varied from 17 to 19 inches.

Colors were blue, blue-gray, brown, gray-brown and others in light and medium shades. A goodly number of knickers were seen—they're getting fuller and fuller.

The New Wedge Suits $40

ACCENTING the athletic lines of young men's figures—wide shoulders, snug hips, full-cut trousers. Made up in chevots, worsteds, cassimeres and tweeds and tailored in a way that puts the style and fit there to stay. Plain patterns, checks, plaids, diagonals, herringbones. Blues, browns, grays—and more blues! Some of them just arrived from Fashion Park.
