

Montana Law Review

Volume 61
Issue 1 Winter 2000

Article 2

1-2000

Special Appreciation

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/mlr>

Part of the Law Commons

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

, Special Appreciation, 61 Mont. L. Rev. (2000).

Available at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/mlr/vol61/iss1/2>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in Montana Law Review by an authorized editor of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

SPECIAL APPRECIATION

The Montana Law Review would like to express its sincere gratitude to John. G. Hursh for the generous gift that established the James R. Browning Symposium Series. The James R. Browning Symposium Series has made it possible to bring together outstanding scholarly speakers and authors whose debates and articles have greatly benefited the Montana legal community.

The Montana Law Review would also like to extend a special thank you to Julie M. Lake of Martin-Lake Associates, Inc., for graciously providing her professional transcription services to help make the publication of the Symposium transcripts possible.

For the success of this Symposium, the Montana Law Review owes a debt of gratitude to many who have generously committed time, energy, experience, and talent to make it possible. Accordingly, a special thank you goes out to the Faculty Advisors for the Montana Law Review, Professor J. Martin Burke and Professor Sally Weaver, each of whom were an enormous resource for the Board of Editors, providing their advice, encouragement, and expertise.

Finally, a Symposium of such quality could never have been possible without the great generosity, time, scholarship, and dedication of the speakers. The Montana Law Review would like to thank each speaker for their contribution to a successful Symposium. A special thank you to George Maxwell and Art Rosin for generously providing Symposium materials, as well as to Rick Bulman and Jorge Gutierrez, who braved hurricane-force winds to participate via teleconference from Miami, Florida.