4. The President announced that the faculty would proceed to the election of a member of the Service Committee and members of the Budget and Policy Committee for the ensuing year; that following previous practice, (unless the faculty objected), nominations would be made by ballot, a majority on nominating ballot would constitute election; if no majority, the two highest on the nominating ballot would be voted on. Arnold, Briggs, and Cogswell were appointed tellers:

On the nominating ballot for member of the Service Committee, Professors W. P. Clark and Ely received the highest number of votes, and on the next ballot, Professor W. P. Clark received a majority of all votes cast and was therefore declared elected. The President announced his re-appointment of Professor Toelle as the President's appointee on the Service Committee.

On the nominating ballot for Chairman of the Budget and Policy Committee, Professors Freeman, Castle received the highest number of votes cast; on the second ballot Professor Castle received a majority of all votes cast and was therefore declared elected.

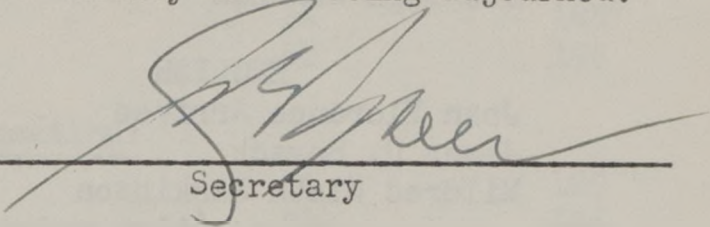

The faculty then adjourned to their respective groups and the following elections were subsequently reported to the Secretary:

Arts Group: Marvin (two-year term) (holdover member, Miller).

Science Group: Severy (re-elected, two-year term) (holdover member, Howard).

Professional Schools Group: Ames (re-elected, two-year term) (holdover member, Crowder).
