SOCI 355: Population & Society

Spring 2012 (Revised Version)

Course Meetings: MWF 1:10-2:00 p.m., SS 344

COURSE DESCRIPTION
As global citizens of the 21st century, we face a variety of dilemmas related to population: a dearth of babies in some countries and an excess of babies in others, environmental degradation, threatened food and water security, the pressures of international migration, human trafficking, and the HIV/AIDS pandemic, to name a few. This course introduces theoretical and empirical literature concerning selected population problems, with a special emphasis on those related to less industrialized countries and development. We will use the basic concepts and measurement techniques of demographic analysis to better understand the causes, meanings, and implications of these population issues. Students will be expected to develop a critical perspective as to why certain population trends are defined as problems and why analysts may disagree on the extent or nature of these problems. Student performance will be evaluated based on three exams, homework, weekly quizzes, attendance, preparation for and participation in class, and a small group poster project.

This course is a content course for the International Development Studies minor. Please contact me or Dr. Peter Koehn (243-5294 or peter.koehn@umontana.edu) if you are interested in exploring this minor.

COURSE OBJECTIVES
During this term, students will:
1. Employ demographic concepts and basic measurement techniques to describe and explain trends in fertility, mortality, migration, population structure, and population growth.
2. Evaluate theories and measures of fertility, mortality, migration, population structure, and population growth.
3. Employ population theories and concepts to assess contemporary demographic issues.
4. Analyze population policies and related population outcomes.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

Classroom Environment
We will be talking about some sensitive and potentially controversial issues this term. Please treat each other and each other’s ideas respectfully. Keep in mind that the University of Montana forbids discrimination on the basis of ethnicity, race, religion, sex, age, marital status, sexual orientation, or disability.

Attendance, Class Preparation, and Participation (20%):
I expect students to attend each class and to be on time. If you are habitually absent or tardy, your grade will be lowered. I also expect you to complete assigned readings prior to the class for which they are assigned and to be prepared to discuss them with your peers in class. Several times during the semester, your participation and preparation for class will be evaluated with attendance, discussions, problem solving activities, homework exercises, and/or other exercises, which are listed in the syllabus. Keep in mind that if you miss a class, you may not make up missed class work or attendance, which ultimately lowers your grade. Together, homework assignments, quizzes, class participation, attendance, and preparation for class will be worth 20 percent of your overall grade.

Late Homework:
If you have to miss the class for which a homework assignment is due, please drop it off in my mailbox before class or send it to class with a friend. Late homework exercises will be accepted; however, assignments turned in later than the class period in which they were due will be lowered one letter grade from what they would otherwise have received. In other words, a homework assignment that would originally have received an “A” will receive a “B.” Quizzes, group discussions, problem solving activities, etc. conducted in class may not be made up. All late assignments must be turned in by the last day of class.

Quizzes: Nearly every week we will have a quiz over the readings since either the first day of class or since the last quiz. A total of 13 quizzes are scheduled for the term. However, I will drop your two lowest grades! If you are absent for a quiz, that can be one you drop. Quizzes may NOT be made up!

Exams (65%):
During the course, three exams will be given. Exams most likely will include essays questions, multiple choice, true/false, short answer, or essay questions, as well as a few fairly simple demographic calculations or interpretations. Exams will ask you to think critically and synthesize arguments and will cover materials from course readings, lectures, and videos. The exams will be non-cumulative. The Final Exam will be held on 5/8/12 from 3:20-5:20 p.m. Please mark it in your schedules and plan your departure from Missoula accordingly!

Make up Exams:
Students with documented health issues or who have three or more final exams in one day may be allowed to take a make-up exam with prior notice and permission from the professor. Make up exams will be scheduled at a time convenient to the professor, either very soon before or no more than one week after the scheduled exam date. It will not be possible to make up exams more than a week after the scheduled exam date. Make up exams likely will be in an essay format. Make ups for the final should be scheduled BEFORE our regularly scheduled final.

Small Group Poster Project (15%)
In a group assigned in class, you will collaborate to complete a poster project on an issue or problem related to some aspect of population. You and your group members will present the poster during the poster sessions held 4/16 and 4/18 in class. No late posters will be accepted! Be sure to attend the poster session itself as information from the posters will be on the final exam! The degree to which you cooperated with and helped your small group will be a part of your grade, and those who fail to adequately participate in their small group will receive a zero for the project. Note the poster evaluation form and citation guidelines at the end of the syllabus.

If you are enrolled Pass/Not Pass, you must earn a C or better to pass. All materials (books, videos) borrowed from Dr. Sobieszczyk must be returned by the final exam for the class or you will earn an ‘Incomplete,’ which will remain on your record until the materials are returned or replaced.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION
Office Hours:
Please feel free to visit me during office hours. Generally, I will be available for a few minutes before and after class if you have a quick question. If you are unable to attend our scheduled office hours, you may arrange to meet us at a different time by appointment.

Extra Credit:
From time to time, extra credit opportunities may appear. I will let you know about them in class.

Required Readings:
Students should purchase the following textbook:

One copy is on reserve in Mansfield Library. Additional assigned readings are available through Mansfield Library's On-line Course Reserve. You can access the readings under my name with the access code SOCI355. In addition, a complete set of the paper readings is available on regular reserve.

SOCI 355 Spring 2012 Reading/Assignment Schedule (subject to change)

ML = available on reserve at Mansfield Library front desk
TS = Dr. Sobie’s video collection
Short films available on-line are listed with their web addresses.

CITATIONS & PLAGIARISM

To avoid plagiarism you MUST cite your sources if you use a direct quotation, statistic, table, map, chart, or idea that is not common knowledge taken from course readings, lecture, movies, websites, or another source. Passing off someone else’s work as your own (plagiarizing), even unintentionally, violates the university’s code of academic conduct and will result in serious consequences. Citations for direct quotations and statistics MUST include a page number. Please see me if you have any questions about citations or plagiarism.

Forms of Citations
For this class, please use the Chicago method of citation (detailed below). For the Chicago Style of Citation, two forms of citation are permitted. These are (1) the traditional method of footnotes with a bibliography and (2) the now generally favored method of parenthetical references with a reference list at the end of the paper or poster. This guide follows the second, parenthetical reference method. Titles of works cited should be italicized.

Parenthetical References (Turabian, Section 10)
In the parenthetical reference system recommended in this guide, authors' names and dates of publication are given in parentheses within the running text or at the end of block quotations, and correspond to a list of works cited which is placed at the end of the paper. This list is arranged alphabetically by author's family names and chronologically within lists of works by a single author. It can be called "References."

Below, I detail what your references in the text of your poster should look like.

A. Parenthetical reference in which you use the author’s name in the sentence:

B. Parenthetical reference following a quotation for a quotation less than 2 type-written lines long, without the author’s name used in the sentence:

Steinbeck is an imaginative writer who sought to breach "the narrow constraints of conventional language" (Huggins 2002, 180). His is the finest example of this type of writing.

C. If your quotation is more than two type-written lines, then you should indent it uniformly and single space it (with double spacing between rest of the text and the indented, single-spaced quotation):

Labor migrants who go abroad through unauthorized channels tend to increase their risks of being exploited, though there is some possibility for gaining redress. As noted in the 1980 Thai Labor Code,

Those who deceive others by claiming that they have the ability to find them employment abroad or can send them abroad for training and ask for money or gifts or other benefits from the person they are deceiving must be punished with imprisonment of between three and ten years, a fine of between U.S. $1,622 and $5,405, or both (Damrong and Thipin 1985, 37).

Clearly, according to the code, migrants who use or attempt to use an unauthorized mode of recruitment have a limited recourse for obtaining redress from their recruiters.

(NOTE THE LACK OF QUOTATION MARKS AROUND THE LONG QUOTATION. THEY AREN’T NEEDED AS YOU HAVE ALREADY SET OFF THE QUOTATION BY INDENTING EACH LINE AND SINGLE SPACING IT!)}
Be sure to title tables, charts, photos, and maps used in your poster! Put the citation after the table!

Examples
The following sets of examples illustrate parenthetical reference (PR) forms for use in your text and corresponding reference list (RL) entries for when you type the reference list that should be attached to your papers (for reading question assignments, it is alright to omit the reference list).

Book, Single Author
PR: (Franklin 1985, 54)

Book, Two Authors
PR: (Lynd and Lynd 1929, 67)

Book, More than Three Authors
PR: (Greenberger and others 1974, 50)

Chapter in a Book
PR: (Taylor 2006, 505)

Article in an Academic Journal
PR: (Jackson 1979, 180)

Article in a Magazine or Newspaper
PR: (Weber 1985, 42)

Electronic Documents (example extrapolated from information in Section 8)
PR: (Baker and Hunstead 1995)

For electronic documents, if no author is provided, please list the article in your in-text citation using the first three words of its title and the year of publication. In the reference list, again, list the article by the title of the article.
Films, DVDs, and Videorecordings
PR: (DeNonno 1985)

Poster Evaluation Criteria

___ Poster content (60)
___ Adequate/concise introduction of population issue or problem, including its location, extent, time frame, who it impacts, etc. (30)
___ Adequate/concise discussion of the various key impacts of the problem (e.g., on society, population, families, policy, gender equality, future generations, etc.) (30)

___ Poster format (30)
___ Overall attractiveness of presentation (10)
___ Easy to read & understand (5)
___ Use of creative media (tables, photos, etc.) (10)
___ Coherent, free from grammatical or writing errors (5)

___ Research, citation, and documentation (10 points)
___ Correct citation of appropriate items in poster (statistics, quotations, obscure historical facts, & data, tables or charts clearly not your own, etc.) (5)
___ Alphabetized reference list in correct format (either on front of poster OR attached to back of poster (5)

___ TOTAL (Out of 100)

Note: Group members will each evaluate the other members of the group at the end of the poster sessions. Group members who receive a rating of "0" (out of 5) for their participation in the group will earn a "0" for the project. Group members who earn a "1" or "2" will receive one letter grade lower than the grade earned by their group.
