FOR RELEASE SUNDAY, JULY 23

Montana State University will become a mecca for musicians when the Montana State Music Teachers Association joins the MSU Department of Music in their annual observance of Montana Music Week, Sunday through Friday.

Special public performances are planned in addition to a full schedule of clinics, workshops, master classes and MSMTA business meetings, according to Mrs. Evelyn Lindblad of Anaconda, MSMTA president, and Dean Luther A. Richman of the MSU School of Fine Arts.

Hungarian pianist Bela Boszormenyi-Nagy, Indiana University professor, will conduct master piano classes Monday through Friday and will give a public recital in the University Theater at 8:15 p. m. Monday.

Other visiting professors will be Mrs. Louise Grant, Pasadena, Calif.; Dr. Lara Hoggard, Hemet, Calif., and Dr. Alfred Humphreys of Helena, state supervisor of music.

Evening programs, in addition to Dr. Nagy's recital, will include a recital by MSU organist Laurence Perry on Sunday, the annual Montana Artists Recital on Tuesday and an Evening of Opera on Thursday. A banquet for participants is slated Wednesday.

Registration for Montana Music Week will open Sunday at 4 p. m. in the Music building lobby, according to Mrs. Lindblad and Dean Richman.
