FIRST CLASSIC DANCE BILL TO BE PRESENTED SATURDAY

Little Theater and Women's Dance Organization Combine on Production

"Tickets for the Little Theater dance program will be on sale at the theater box office Friday afternoon," said John Bolton, business manager for the Masquers, yesterday afternoon. Bolton reports that the advance sale of season tickets, which include admission to Saturday night's dancing exhibition, has been more than 100 of the total number of available seats and that many of the remaining places have been spoken for by advance mail orders.

A special children's matinee has been announced for Saturday afternoon. This program was planned to meet the special request of numerous persons who felt that the artistic and educational features of the program would also be of interest to Missoula children. The matinee house will be sold without reservations, tickets for children to be placed on sale at 25c each, with an additional charge for any adults who may care to attend. The afternoon program will be opened at 2:30 o'clock, the evening performance to start at 8:15.

Is First of Its Kind According to dramatic and educational authorities on the campus, Saturday's offering by the Little Theater and women's athletic department will be the first of its kind in University history. Miss Mary Lann, under whose direction the dance numbers were rehearsed, was taken ill before the completion of her work, but the program has gone on to final perfection under other direction.

Weird and unusual lighting effects have been promised for the occasion by John Schroeder, stage electrician. Under the direction of Carl Glick, head of the Dramatics department, Schroeder has been occupied during the past week in the development of this special lighting.

Spring Production Announced Later Plans for the spring dramatic presentation have not been completed, but will be announced sometime in the near future, according to the director. Rehearsals for "The World and His Wife," which is to be given the latter part of this month, are under way and a finished performance has been promised for the opening.

The complete program follows:

Part I
Statues—Ensemble.
Practicing—Alice Lease.
Raggedy Ann and Andy—Mary Jo Dixon, Maureen Desmond.
Teddy Bear—Alice Lease.
Baseball Game—Ensemble.
Part II
The Three Graces—Scandal, Night, Dawn, Ensemble; To a Wild Rose, Maureen Desmond; Balloon Dance, Fire, Ensemble; Roman Slave Dance, Ruth Rae.
Part III
An Egyptian drama, ensemble, with solo dances by Evelyn Clinton and Maureen Desmond.

STUDENTS ARE REQUESTED TO CO-OPERATE WITH WAA IN CANDY SALE AT GAMES
Members of WAA are urged to attend the party, set for next Thursday night at 7 o'clock. The program is not as yet complete, and is being planned by Harriet Johnston, Margaret Johnson and Evelyn Clinton.

Everett Richards, '27, received notification of his appointment to the Officers' Reserve Corps recently. Other members of the Officers' Reserve Corps who received their appointments in previous years and are now on the campus are: R. P. Rea, Philip Ring, C. W. Peterson, Dorris Skeels, Eugene Finch, T. C. Spaulding, E. A. Atkinson, Edgar H. Reeder, Jack Lincke, Fred S. Wiekner and Edward Orr.

PREXY CLAPP LEAVES FOR BOZEMAN MEETING
President C. H. Clapp left last night for Bozeman, where he will speak at the Boys' Vocational Conference being held there this week. His subject will be "Geology and Mining as a Profession." This noon he addressed the Rotary club of Bozeman on "The Geology and Mineral Resources of Montana."

Alpha Chi Omega Party
Alpha Chi Omega pledges entertained in honor of the active chapter at an informal carnival dance Saturday evening at the Country club. More than 40 couples attended. Punch was served during the evening. Chaperones were Mrs. Christine Finch and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Finch.

Joseph Glattirana moved into South hall Monday.

STATE HIGH SCHOOLS ENTER PLAY CONTEST

New Interscholastic Feature Brings Inquiries to Glick

Three letters have already been received by Professor Carl Glick from high schools interested in the Little Theater tournament, a new addition to the 24th annual Interscholastic. The choice of a play from each high school must be in the hands of the Little Theater committee by noon of March 1, 1927.

Rules for the tournament are as follows: Any accredited high school in Montana may compete with one play. There are no restrictions as to choice of a play except that it must contain but one act and be of no more than 45 minutes duration. Time will be counted from the rise of the curtain to its fall. The eligibility of actors will be the same as those governing other interscholastic contests. Each team must pay its own expenses. The University will furnish the auditorium and some stage properties. The winning team will have its expenses refunded. Places on the program will be allotted by a committee chosen from the Masquers and the faculty of the State University.

A plan for sets must be sent to Professor Glick by May 1, 1927. Members of the Masquers will do the scene shifting between plays.

Three to Judge
The contest will be judged by three judges chosen by Professor Glick. The plays will be judged on suitability of choice, on interpretation through speech and action and on general effectiveness.

Prizes will be as follows: Expenses paid by the interscholastic committee on the winning team for a cast not to exceed five persons. The Masquers, State University dramatic organization, will present a cup which will be the permanent property of the high school winning first place in three contests. To the second best team the English department of the State University will give a $20 cash prize. Medals will be presented to the best actor and actress. An additional prize of $10 given by the Frontier, University literary magazine, to the high school pupil, who writes a one-act original play, which a group presents and which the judges recommend as worthiest of recognition.

DEBATE UNION SENDS THREE TO CALIFORNIA

Three men, Herbert Haugland, Arthur Acher and Louis Aronowky, will make the California debate trip which starts March 18, instead of two men as had been planned. These men are all seniors in the Law school and will finish their last year of Varsity debate.

Those to take the Seattle trip will now be Sid McCarthy and James Beck. Beck was elected to take the place of Acher on this trip by the members of the Montana Debate Union when it was learned of the change in the California lineup. The union held their last meeting Thursday evening, when these things were decided. It was also decided at this time that the debaters would sponsor a mock trial to be featured some time in March.

Game Receipts Are Below Total Average

Net receipts on the basketball game Thursday night amounted to $83.50, according to the student auditor's financial report. The amount paid to the referee, Morris, was $60.95, and to Mulligan, the umpire, $66.64. The University of Oregon still is the only school still adding by the conference ruling made last year that there should be two officials at every conference game. Because of that, the game last week was played with two officials. Morris' expenses were pro-rated among all the conference schools that Oregon has played and will play this season, and $60.95 is the share of each.

The receipts of the Oregon game fell far short of the $210 mark set as the average receipts for all games by the athletic board budget. The expenses of the basketball season will come within a dollar of the estimated amount, however.

Fred Miller has been released from South hall infirmary where he was confined the last few days with a cold.

CONTEST CONTRIBUTIONS ARE COMING IN SLOWLY

Contributions to the ASUM song and yell contest are few and far between so far, according to Mike Thomas, chairman, who urges that those students who are working on songs or yells complete them as soon as possible. Next week is the sixth of the quarter, and the contest closes the last week of the winter session, so there is not much time left in which to await an inspiration. Every student, former student and "alum" should get busy and do his part in getting a lot of new songs and battle-cries for the Varsity.

Don't forget the first prize of $45 that goes to the writer of the best contribution. The prizes are to be awarded by the judges at the beginning of the spring quarter.

UNIVERSITY IS BEST COAST ATTRACTION

Forensic Managers of Opposing Teams Ask for Publicity on Montana

Colleges with which Montana is scheduled to debate are featuring the meeting as one of the best attractions of the forensic season. Debate Coach N. B. Beck and Debate Manager Carl McFarland have received letters from coast schools asking for publicity matter and for pictures of the teams that will travel.

The University of Southern California expects a treat from the Montana men. W. B. Henley, debate manager of that school, writes, "We are looking forward with great pleasure to opening of forensic relations with the University of Montana."

"It is our intention to play this debate up as one of the biggest of the year," writes C. P. Schleicher, debate manager of the College of the Pacific at Stockton.

"We are looking forward to the Montana debate with interest and expect to make it a feature debate," was the theme of the letter from the University of Redlands in California. Letters have been received from the University of Wyoming at Laramie asking for a debate with the Montana team. It is proposed to hold the meeting in Rawlins, Wyoming, and the business men of that place have undertaken to guarantee expenses for the team. So far this has not been added to the schedule because of so many dates being taken. It may be arranged in the future, according to Mr. Beck.

FORMER MONTANA STUDENT IS AMONG THE YOUNGEST OF COUNTY ATTORNEYS

Practicing law in Liberty county is one of the youngest, if not the youngest, county attorney in Montana. The person is J. H. McAlleer, who graduated from the University Law school last spring. He was admitted to the bar in Helena, June 15, 1926.

He went to Chester, the county seat of Liberty county, about three weeks before the primaries and ran against a veteran lawyer for the position. He won by a wide margin. He has been made city attorney for Chester and has been admitted to practice before the federal courts.

Although he is only 26 years old, McAlleer is holding the key position in the law offices of Chester. A story about his rapid rise was recently printed in the Anaconda Standard.

PRESS CLUB SOCIAL PLANS MAKE RAPID PROGRESS; BANQUET TO BE HELD

Plans for the annual Press club banquet, which will be held February 23, are progressing rapidly, according to Heloise Vinal, chairman of the committee in charge of the event. The banquet is to be held at Bonner and a novel program has been arranged to amuse the guests. Music will be furnished and a short toast program has been outlined.

The "Incinerator," the razz sheet which is issued at the banquet, will have several new features this year. The entire makeup of the paper will not be revealed until the evening of its release.

More than 100 students are expected to be present. The committee in charge of the banquet is composed of Heloise Vinal, chairman, Andy Cogswell, Betty Johnson and Curtis Brittenham.

CO-ED COMMITTEES APPOINTED BY LEASE

Groups Will Meet Wednesday in Main Hall Auditorium to Discuss Plans

Alice Lease, manager of the Co-ed Formal which is to be given February 11, has appointed the following committees to assist her:

Refreshments—Dorothy Morrow, chairman; Ellen Barrows, Lillian Bell, Kathleen McGrath, Emily Thrall-kill, Kathleen Hainline, Bernice Blomgren.

Publicity—Pauline Swartz, chairman; Martha Dunlap, Gertrude White.

Miss Lease would like to meet the chairmen of the various committees in Main hall auditorium Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. She has her plans well under way to make this the best Co-ed Formal in the history of the University, and she wants to get the committees started at once.

Schenck to Speak at Special Meeting

Dr. C. A. Schenck, noted German forester, lecturing for a period of three months in the School of Forestry, will be presented to the entire University in the early part of next week. Dean T. C. Spaulding reported today that a special convocation would be held at 11 o'clock Tuesday, February 8. It is an opportunity that every student should take advantage of for undoubtedly his talk, undecided at present, will relate, in his pleasing manner, many interesting experiences he has had on his tours through Europe every year.

WORK ON SENTINEL PROGRESSES RAPIDLY

John Ryan, photo editor of the 1927 Sentinel, took some action pictures of the basketball team Saturday. Different play positions of the individual players were photographed.

John Allen, art editor, is making linecut out of prominent athletes which will be used for the heads of the various athletic branches. For example, a linecut of Arnie Gillette will be used to introduce the track section.

MANY STUDENTS ATTEND ANNUAL INTER-FRAT BALL

More than 250 couples attended the annual Interfraternity formal given by all fraternity men on the campus Friday evening at the Winter Garden. Several feature dances and carnival favors added to the evening's entertainment. Punch was served and Sheridan's 10-piece orchestra furnished the music.

YELLOW SLIPS TO BE RELEASED NEXT WEEK

Yellow slip blanks will be sent out to the instructors this week, according to Harry Stuber of the registrar's office. The mid-quarter examinations will probably be given the latter part of this week, for the names of students who are to receive poor work slips for this quarter must be in the office by 9 o'clock Monday, February 7. The slips will be mailed out from the office immediately.

MONTANA KNIGHTS TEMPLAR CREATE STUDENT LOAN FUND

Art Studio to Display Bad Land Pictures

Sunday the art studio had numerous guests and customers when the Japanese art exhibition was opened to the public. About $40 worth of orders were taken, 25 per cent of which goes to Delta Phi Delta. The exhibition is to be left up over Sunday, and on Monday the sketches and small pieces are to be sold from the collection. This has not been done before because it was thought best to leave the entire exhibition in the studio for the benefit of the students and townspeople.

When this exhibition is taken down Professor Riedell hopes to put on display 50 photographs of the Bad Lands of Montana which were taken by K. D. Swan, official photographer for the forest district. This collection will also be open to the public. Mr. Riedell believes that a great deal of interest will be shown in this exhibit because of the fact that the photographs are of the well-known bad lands of our own state.

GLEE CLUB TO LEAVE ON FIRST TRIP SOON

Members Announced by DeLoss Smith; Program to Include Violin Solos by Alton Bloom

The University Glee club will leave on its first trip the latter part of this month. It will appear first in Deer Lodge on the 24th. Their next stop will be Butte on the 25th and on the 26th they will journey to Helena, where they were fortunate enough to obtain the Consistory Temple. At the present time the club is practicing in preparation for the several trips that they will take over the state.

Although Dean DeLoss Smith has no definite program for the tour, he has decided to have two parts to the program. The first will include the regular Glee club program and the second will be Gilbert and Sullivan's comic opera, "Pinafore."

Alton Bloom will be violinist, Miss Bernice Berry, pianist, and Dean DeLoss Smith will be the soloist.

The Glee club will also take three other trips in this end of the state. They will go as far north as Kalispell, taking in Polson and Whitefish and possibly Columbia Falls. They also go west to Thompson Falls and probably the last trip will be a trip up the Bitter Root valley as far as Hamilton.

WOMEN'S TEAM DEBATES STATE NORMAL SCHOOL

At the woman's debate with the State Normal school at Dillon, Elsie Blair and Pauline Astle debating for the University, met Charlotte Succo and Helen Harkin on the subject, "Resolved, That Congress Should Enact a Uniform Marriage and Divorce Law."

It was a no-decision, open forum debate, and the audience asked the debaters questions for nearly two hours after the debate itself had closed.

The arguments were heard last Friday, January 28, at Dillon. The team returned Saturday night. Montana presented the negative side of the question.

Stone Procures Legislative Copies

Dean A. L. Stone of the School of Journalism has procured the copies of the bills appearing before the House and Senate of the State Legislature. Senator J. L. Campbell and Member of the House M. R. Marshall will assist in sending these copies to the Journalism school.

Several Thousand Dollars to Be Available to Juniors and Seniors

The grand commandery of Knights Templar of Montana has established a loan fund of several thousand dollars which is available to students of the State University in their junior and senior years, who are unable to continue their studies without financial aid.

Applicants for these loans must have junior standing at least and satisfactory recommendations as to character and scholarship.

Thursday evening, February 3, Dr. T. T. Rider, local representative for the fund, will meet all applicants from 7:30 to 8:30 in the office of J. R. Speer, registrar.

The loan to a student in any one year from this fund is limited to the sum of two hundred dollars, and the money is remitted to the student in quarterly installments until the entire amount is received. The rate of interest is 5 per cent per annum. Interest on unpaid portions is payable annually.

The loan is to be repaid as follows: Interest and 10 per cent of the principal payable one year after graduation. Interest and 20 per cent of the principal, two years thereafter; interest and 20 per cent of the principal, three years thereafter; and the balance of interest and 40 per cent of the principal, four years thereafter; the whole of the loan, principal and interest, to be repaid on or before four years after the interest starts to run.

Applications for this loan may be made to the business manager of the State University. Remittances in payment of the loan may be made through the office of the registrar of the University or sent to the chairman of the Knights Templar committee direct. The committee will from time to time advise the student having the loan as to the name of the person to whom the remittance shall be made payable.

FIVE DOLLAR PARTIES DECLARED NO GOOD

Minneapolis, Minn.—(IP)—A proposed $5 limit on all-university social functions was unanimously voted down by the All-University Council of the University of Minnesota here. In a written report the council gave the following reasons for disapproval of the plan:

1. It is impossible to produce at this cost a social function such as the student body wants and will support.
2. Within the limit we would be unable to accommodate the increased number of students who would wish to attend.
3. The limiting of the cost of these functions might give rise to new social factors which we believe would be vitally detrimental to the institution.
4. There are enough low-priced parties to furnish adequate social life for students generally.

HAMLIN U GLEE CLUB TO APPEAR AT WILMA

Sixteen singers from the Hamline University, of St. Paul, Minn., will appear between the first and second showings of "The Midnight Kiss" at the Wilma theater Friday evening. The men are under the direction of Professor John A. Jaeger. Many of the members of the organization have given frequent entertainments over station WCCO in St. Paul. They appear here under the auspices of the Epworth League of the First Methodist church, which is conducting a ticket sale at Roberts' Book Store.

The Glee club program will consist of sentimental, sober and gay ensemble numbers, tenor, violin and saxophone solos, chalk talks, a popular trio, and a trumpet quartet.

Philosophical Circle to Meet

Members of the Philosophical Circle will hold a meeting Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in Rev. John R. Hahn's home at 400 Connel avenue. The following question will be discussed: "How I Harmonize Evolution and Religion in My Own Thinking."

The Why of the Cram

"IF I CAN only get through these next few weeks—" There isn't a student on the campus who, if he has not expressed that thought, has not been conscious of it. The last two or three weeks of every quarter have come to be nightmare to every student, conscientious in his work or not.

Nine instructors out of ten will advise the student not to cram the night or so before an examination, and yet these same instructors will assign so much extra work during the last few weeks, to prove that their courses are not pipes, that there is no chance for a sane review if the student expects to keep up with his daily work.

The result is that there is a mad rush and dash that sets everybody's nerves on edge and gains the ones most concerned practically nothing.

If the instructors would only learn to give the bulk of their work at the beginning of the term and allow the students time at the end to get a real review, there might not be so many failures and there certainly would be more education gained, which is usually conceded to the primary aim of a college course.

Holy! Holy! Holy!

SHADES of William Jennings Bryan! We have lately learnt of a new society called "The Supreme Kingdom" and described as "a religious, patriotic and benevolent organization to combat atheism and its accursed ally, evolution." We wonder if America will ever grow up, or will ever forgive a certain Charles of England who prattled to the world about monkeys in 1859.

The spirits of Tennessee, it seems, must be upheld and old Bill Bryan avenged.

The mantle of leadership has fallen on the able shoulders of the Rev. John Roach, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church in New York City. This reverend gentleman is to deliver 60 lectures on the aforementioned "accursed ally" as the leader of the Supreme Kingdom, not from the fiery zeal to preach of a Christian martyr, not from the immortal urge of a John Wesley, but, we are told, from the attractive glamor of $30,000.

To us, five hundred dollars seems a lot for one little hour of hypocrisy. But this is the plastic age; it nourishes its liberty with intolerance and waters its freedom with bigotry. For $30,000 a man is to tour the country proclaiming the incompatibility of the laws of nature with those of God. May we humbly advise Dr. Straton that possibly he has struck the one case in which all the money in the world cannot influence the judgment.

Perhaps, however, he aspires to a noble award for his services after death. For if the Heaven of the Supreme Kingdom Society honors its workers at face value, we can surmise the mighty paean of praise as the Rev. John Roach Straton rolls his $30,000 clinking cartwheels before the final altar, and as the clatter dies away, rise to the imperious command of his Supreme King: "Well done, thou good and faithful servant!"

Students of the State University are again fortunate, for the Montana Knights Templar organization is making available for students a new loan fund.

The plan is very similar to the University student loan fund, which has been used at the University up until the beginning of the winter quarter. The Knights Templar fund is indeed a life saver to many Juniors and Seniors who need money to carry them through the remainder of the school year.

Those students who wish to take advantage of the loan should report to the registrar's office this coming Thursday evening at 7:30 when a local representative of the fund will interview all applicants.

Although they have yet to win a conference game, Coach Stewart and nine basketball men left this morning with high hopes of turning in a victory or two on the last coast trip of the season.

The Grizzlies meet the strong University of Washington team tomorrow night, then visit the two Oregon camps. The Washington Huskies have a strong team, though there are but few veterans on the squad this season. The two Oregon quints are nothing to be laughed at. Montana gave Oregon a tough battle here a week ago and may be able to turn the tricks at Eugene Friday night. It looks like the Grizzlies best bet will be against the Oregon Aggies, which seem to have the weakest team of the three.

At any rate, we hope the fighting Copper hoopsters will turn in at least one win.

Paul Bunyan

(With No Apologies)

To Montana came Paul Bunyan. Came Paul Bunyan with his boots on, Came Paul Bunyan with his bunnions, Came to see them dance the Charleston.

Came to see them dance Black Bottom. "By the old Yem Cris," yelled Paulo,

"Wat is dis I see them dancing?"

Dean Mollett Sends Report to Bureau in Form of Photos

C. E. Mollett, dean and professor of the School of Pharmacy, made his annual report last week to Dr. W. W. Stockburger, of the Department of Agriculture Poison and Medicinal Plants bureau, in the form of photos taken of the products of the Montana School of Pharmacy's botanical garden.

Particular experiments were conducted with seeds of an annual belladonna, furnished by the Bureau of Poison and Medicinal Plants. The plant attained the unusual growth of eight feet nine inches. The usual growth for that plant is three feet. From year to year the faculty carried out experiments with plants furnished by Dr. Stockburger to see if it could be grown successfully in this climate. Leaves of the plant are at present the basis of a special problem of Jack Wheatley, an advanced student in the School of Pharmacy, to determine the percentages of active ingredients. The common belladonna is a perennial plant requiring several years to mature the root, which is the chief portion used for medicinal purposes. Medicine atropine is extracted which, besides its use in prescriptions, is used in surgery to lessen secretions, and by optometrists to dilate the pupils of the eyes.

The garden was moved from in front of the men's gym to a plot of ground south of the ROTC building last year. Many photographs were taken of the drug plants which are being exchanged with similar photos from other institutions. Even if the garden does occupy just a small space, enough plants are raised which can be used by the Pharmacy school here that an average of $50 a year is saved on some drugs that would otherwise have to be bought.

King Smith returned to school Sunday evening. He was called home last week because of the death of his mother.

GRIZZLY BASKETBALL SQUAD TO ENCOUNTER COAST FOES

Nine Men to Leave This Noon On Milwaukee for O.A.C., Washington and Oregon

Captain Jim Stewart and Manager John McNeven, accompanied by nine Grizzly basketball players, left this noon on the Milwaukee for their last invasion of the coast for the present hoop season.

The Grizzlies will meet Washington university, Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon on their present jaunt. These three games will be hard tussles and the Grizzlies will have a tough time in registering a win against the strong Coast conference quint.

Seattle First Game

The Montana quint goes to Seattle for the first game against the Washington university cagers. The Huskies, although having to rebuild for the present season, have a whirlwind aggregation. They have so many good first year men that the veterans have had to fight to keep their position and some of them have been replaced by new men.

Their record is very good on their home floor and the invading quint has failed to register a victory against Coach Edmundson's cagers. Monty Snider, a sophomore, is a shooting star, never misses his goal. His running mate, Captain Al Schuss, very capably assists him in running up the score.

Friday they meet the Oregon Aggies at Corvallis and Saturday they tangle with the University of Oregon at Eugene. The Grizzlies' best chance for a victory will be against the Oregon Farmers.

Those men that are making the trip besides Coach Stewart and Manager McNeven are: Captain Clarence Coyle, Cloyce Overturf, Jake Miller, forwards: Sam Kain, Raymond Flightner, centers: Steiner, Larson, Louis Wendt, Guard Kuroy and Bus Graham, guards.

The men will return Monday morning at 7 o'clock.

KESTER, SHEID SCORE 99 IN WOMEN'S RIFLE SHOOT; COMPLETE FOR CUP PRIZES

In the last match fired by the women's rifle team, Coma Sheid and Billie Kester made the score of 99 each, the highest score ever made by any member of a woman's rifle team of the University.

Two cups will be awarded to the women's team. One will be awarded to the member making the high total aggregate score for all matches fired and the other will be awarded by the Missoula Mercantile company to the member making the highest score in a special match.

Miss Mildred Stoick was confined to her home at 1413 Fourth street, west, due to illness.

Ralph Zoppi was released from South hall infirmary yesterday where he was confined the last few days with a cold.

PORT GLIMPSES

This noon Coach Stewart and Manager McNeven left with nine Varsity basketballers for a jaunt to the coast. The Grizzlies will tangle with three Coast conference teams.

Washington University will face the Grizzlies at Seattle Wednesday. The Grizzlies will have a tough time in downing the Huskies on their own floor as they seem to be well acquainted with the University of Washington basketball floor by the way they have handled all of the visitors.

The Montana cagers then breeze south to tussle with the Oregon Aggies and the University of Oregon.

Montana has a good opportunity to down the Oregon Farmers as they have been beaten on their home court. They have rebuilt a fairly strong aggregation but are unsteady in their play and should Montana be able to meet them on one of their off nights, the press would report a Montana victory.

After returning from their coast invasion, The Grizzlies will have a short stay at home before journeying over to Bozeman to meet the Bobcats in the return game. The tri-color squad hardly expects to get over Ott Romney's Utahns but the Bobcats will have to fight in order to duplicate the feat of the University floor.

Chief Illman is with us again. He has just returned from the coast, where he wound up a season of professional football. He played with George Wilson's Wildcats and they had a fairly good season's record. They wound up the season by defeating all of the professional teams on the Pacific coast. Chief played halfback and fullback for the Wildcats.

Following is a report on the University of Washington basketball quint that was printed in the Seattle Times:

Washington's basketball team of this year is not so strong on size or experience according to the official figures on the first eleven players of Coach Edmundson's squad.

There are but three players on the squad that class as three-year players and no one ranges six feet or better in height. Four of the Huskies are players in their second season of Varsity and four are sophomores who are in their first season of play.

Captain Al Schuss, Harold St. John and Earl Jewell are playing their last season for Washington while Hall Johnson, guard; Perry Hack, center; Monty Snider, forward, and Perry Bolstad are making their initial efforts. Snider and Johnson are regulars. Hall Johnson will be the only Husky that will be in the opening lineup against Montana that is six feet tall.

"CHIEF" COMES BACK; TO RESUME STUDIES

Ted Illman, Montana Athlete, Completes First Professional Season

After several months spent with George Wilson's professional football team, Ted "Chief" Illman has returned to Missoula, and has announced his intention of completing his college work. Illman was one of the mainstays of Wilson's team and his performance has been of the stellar order in all of his contests. The "Wildcats" have been one of the great drawing cards of the professional league and have ranked high in a season when many great stars broke into the "pro" game.

Illman was a nine-letter man at Montana and was captain of the football team in his senior year. He was generally acknowledged to be one of the outstanding athletes of the Pacific coast and has been placed on several all-conference honor teams. Besides being a football player, he was a baseball and basketball performer of note.

Presbyterians Lose to Methodist Quint in Church Series

Between racing on the maple floor and endeavoring to play a game of basketball, the Methodists managed after 10 minutes of mad scampering to secure enough points to defeat the Presbyterians 18 to 6 last evening, in the sixth round of the Church league tourney. The second game of the evening was forfeited to the Disciples, as the Lutherans failed to appear.

At the opening of the first half both sides raced madly up and down the floor for full 10 minutes before Lund converted a closeup. Soon Jones made a middle distant shot, tying the score. Many long tries were attempted. The Methodists began to tire and called for time just as the half ended with the score 2 to 2.

In the second frame the Methodists began to calm down and work the ball in for close shots. The winners changed their lineup, putting White in at center. For the rest of the game the ball remained in the Methodist's territory but they failed to cage it for further counts. Whenever the Presbyterians secured the ball down the floor they raced, only to lose it on a bad shot or a pass. Jones and Robinson converted for several baskets. The game speeded up near the end but the losers were too far behind to overcome the lead.

The lineup and summary:
Presbyterians (6) Methodists (18)
Rice Jones
Lund Coumbe
Higham Young
Adams Robinson
Bloom Thomas
Sub-White, Free throws—Robinson 2, Field goals—Rice 2, Lund, Jones 3, Robinson, White, Thomas.

"M" Club to Hold Annual Tournament Early in March

Having completed all arrangements for the annual carnival of clout and claw, the "M" club is now waiting for the instructors of the two manly arts to prepare their students for the show. "If winter comes," then March 11 is not so far behind, said the members of this organization as they set the aforementioned date for their widely heralded display of courage and broken cartilage.

However, an insect is floating in the ointment of the "M" club. The state boxing officials, or some such authoritative body, is accustomed to charging a sum for a boxing show license and the local Tex Rickards are endeavoring to settle this matter with satisfaction to all concerned. Whether they will be able to do so is an object of conjecture and concern.

Meanwhile the boxing and wrestling classes are hard at work, laboring to perfect a means whereby they may successfully snipe and claw each other. It is the sincere hope of all boxing lovers that the men will be in condition to inflict great bodily harm when the long-awaited day arrives.

Members of the South hall club will hold a meeting tonight in South hall. There will be a discussion of the South hall dance, which will be held some time in March, and plans for a smoker will be made.

TWENTY CANDIDATES ANSWER TRACK CALL

At the meeting of all Varsity track candidates, called by Coach Stewart last Friday afternoon, the plans for early training were presented to the men. There were some 20 tracksters who reported.

"Early training goes in effect to-day," says Stewart, "so that the men will be ready to run by March 1." Rules have been laid down for the routine of getting into shape, these have been posted in the gymnasium. As there is still snow on the ground and probably will be for some time the men will work out in the gymnasium, getting their muscles limbered up and themselves in good condition.

There will be another meeting of the track men when Coach Stewart returns from the basketball trip to the coast. No definite date has been set.

Cubs Leave Tomorrow to Meet Bob Kittens

Coach Harry Adams, with his yearling floor team in tow, will leave Wednesday morning on a three-day trip, having as a prime objective an avenging victory over the swashbuckling Bobkittens and, incidentally, a humbling of the court athletes of the Billings Polytechnical institute. A victory over the Bozeman babes would be a plum in the freshman headgear as the agriculturists boast a polished and powerful team. A triumph over the Billings collegians would be acceptable, too, as they are touted as being a somewhat formidable organization.

Adams will take with him the following men: Rule, Miller, Mitchell, Linville, Wilson, Rankin, Bachey and Robinson.

The frosh will tackle the Bobkittens Wednesday evening and then will engage the Polytechnicians Thursday and Friday evenings.

Helen Coleman of Corbin hall entertained her mother, Mrs. A. Coleman, from Butte over the week-end.

Speed and Fight Make Jake Miller Valuable Player

Although track is his forte, Jake Miller performs on the basketball floor in such a manner as to stamp him as Varsity caliber. This is his first year of court play but he has already engaged in many of the Varsity combats and has displayed creditable form.

Miller's speed and strength are valuable assets and, thus far, he has made excellent use of them. Husky and aggressive, he is a star relief performer, as he comes on the court with a world of fight. True, he would be still more valuable could he seize his "trusty" bamboo vaulting pole and leap to unattainable heights in order to drop the spheroid through the rim, but such is out of the question and may be imagined only when in the wildest attacks of delirium tremens.

Miller came to the University in 1924 from Columbus high school and was a member of the Cub football, basketball and track squads during his first year. He made his letter in track last year and is the holder of the state pole vault record, having attained a height so great that we dare not print it lest we be arrested for making false statements.

Miller, however, has felt the need of more sweaters and seems destined to wear one awarded for proficiency in things pertaining to basketball. He has two seasons of track and basketball yet before him and should become quite widely renowned, especially in the former pastime, in which he possesses really great ability.

Delta Gamma Entertains

Activities of Delta Gamma were entertained by the pledges at a dance Saturday evening at the chapter house. Forty-five couples attended. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Chaperones were: Mrs. J. Wilson Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Porter, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris.

Mrs. Christine Finch and Mrs. Edna Palmer were guests of Mrs. Turner at Corbin hall for dinner Friday night.

Toots-E Whistle to Direct Traffic at Foresters' Ball

"Positively no yamma yamma suits or other masquerade costumes will be given admittance to the Ball," was the fierce proclamation issued by Louis Vierhus, assistant chief push. Assistant chief push is right for Lou has predicted the "bum's rush" for any persons appearing in such inappropriate garb. For several years it has been most unfitting to see such clown and other unsuitable costumes parading around. Since the Lumberjack ball represents a true western gathering it is hoped that the dance has been so long anticipated that it will not necessitate the hurried dusting of cowboys from costume boxes in a last frantic effort to procure some unnatural disguise. If such be the case, it is feared that Lou's promise of the "bum's rush" will be fulfilled.

On the other hand, the matter of prizes should be a huge incentive. Andy Anderson definitely reported to-day that the prizes should be straight cash instead of some useless material gift. As was stated before, the prizes are as follows: $8 to the best couple; $4 to the second best couple; $4 each to the most cleverly dressed man and woman; totaling $20 in all. The orchestra will be attired in fitting fashion and it will take quite some inspiration to outdo their makeup.

As has been promised, many novelties are in store, but Mr. Cook let one of them slip this afternoon. On account of the vastness of the gymnasium, its capacity and the 900 expected guests, it will closely resemble a traffic jam of Broadway and 52nd street. Realizing that a traffic cop would be but a hopeless pedestal whose orders would float into dimness by the powers of the four winds, a most clever device has been arranged. The J. M. Lovsted company presented the Forestry school with a "Toots-E" whistle in the early part of the autumn quarter. When one sharp whistle penetrates the noisy drum of voices below it signifies "Stop," and all must remain motionless, breathing lightly; when two reports its sharpness, action may again be resumed in either the Charleston or Black Bottom, both old time jigs of the foresters, but the action must be kept in a steadily forward motion; lastly, when three reports sink within the depths, action must be reversed and spurs and French heels will be removed from the adjoining trouser cuff or ankle. It would seem most advisable to memorize and analyze these signals more closely, in order to obtain a clearer insight into their importance on the noted evening.

It is going to be one gala affair, not to be forgotten until the return of Paul Banyon next year. It really is a shame that all the tickets have been sold.

Ninth Corps Area Rifle Match Started

First stage of the Ninth corps area rifle match was fired last week. The stage consisted of 10 shots prone and 10 shots sitting. The results of the stage are as follows:

| | Prone | Sitting | Total |
|-------------|-------|---------|-------|
| F. Alling | 88 | 96 | 194 |
| E. Koch | 97 | 91 | 188 |
| P. Mack | 97 | 91 | 188 |
| D. Burbank | 94 | 94 | 188 |
| M. Shearer | 93 | 93 | 186 |
| L. Briner | 97 | 86 | 183 |
| J. Fallman | 91 | 90 | 181 |
| G. Pease | 90 | 88 | 179 |
| F. Blaschke | 90 | 85 | 175 |
| R. Benjamin | 94 | 81 | 175 |
| J. Lennes | 84 | 88 | 172 |
| F. Spencer | 90 | 82 | 172 |
| E. Feurt | 99 | 64 | 163 |
| S. Brown | 91 | 67 | 158 |
| E. Hugo | 67 | 65 | 132 |

There will be five medals awarded to the members of the rifle team who make the first five highest scores for all stages of the Ninth corps area match.

The firing for the remainder of the month will be devoted to the completion of the second and third stages of the Ninth corps area match.
