APPLY NOW FOR UM ENVIRONMENTAL WRITING INSTITUTE

MISSOULA-

The University of Montana will host the annual Environmental Writing Institute May 25-28.

The workshop, led by authors Janisse Ray, Kim Todd and Phil Condon, provides writers an opportunity to work on existing writing, new writing or book proposals with published environmental and nature writers. The workshop will include small group discussions, a daylong field trip, individual consultations and a public reading.

Applications and information are available online at <http://www.umt.edu/ewi>. The registration fee for successful applicants is $250, which includes all activities and some meals.

For full details, a printable application and information on the authors, visit <http://www.umt.edu/ewi>.
