Taylor commended Cole for the fine panel discussion and said that the girls seemed to have learned something from the discussion. Cole also reported that he arranged to have one person per Masquer tour spring break accompany the Masquers and talk with high school students after the performances or whenever they wished. He is sending letters to all the presidents of the senior classes of those schools in the circuit asking if they would desire to talk to a spokesman from MSU. CROMWELL commended Cole for arranging this and stated that this was needed.

Old Business

Jones reported that Bob Hoffman is chairman Nancy Taylor is secretary of the MSPA convention to be held in Bozeman, February 29, 1964. There will be four discussion groups. Jones said that he was going to talk to P. J. Hill, pres. of ASMSC about social regulations at MSU and MSC.

New Business—After discussion about a letter that Paul D. Kemp, vice president of the Missoula Speakers Bureau, sent to various newspapers around the state citing disrespect to the flag at the Goldwater speech on the MSU campus as taught by "some of the staff of Montana State University," JONES MOVED THAT CENTRAL BOARD, THE GOVERNING BODY OF ASMSU, SUPPORTS THE FACULTY AND STAFF OF MSU AGAINST THE ACCUSATIONS OF TEACHING DISRESPECT FOR THE AMERICAN FLAG BY PAUL D. KEMP, VICE PRESIDENT OF THE MISSOULA SPEAKERS' BUREAU. WHILE FLAGRANT DISRESPECT HAS NO PLACE IN AN INSTITUTION OF HIGHER LEARNING, TO BLAME THE FACULTY FOR TEACHING OR INCITING SUCH DISRESPECT IS FALLACIOUS. WE BELIEVE MR. KEMP'S DEMAND FOR AN INVESTIGATION OF THE FACULTY IS UNFOUNDED AND PURPOSELESS. THE MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY ARE CERTAINLY NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR THE CONDUCT OF THOSE FEW STUDENTS OF MONTANA STATE UNIVERSITY WHO MAY HAVE SHOWN DISRESPECT, AND THE FACULTY NEED NOT BE INVESTIGATED. SECONDED REHAN. MOTION PASSED (10-1-1) WITH ULMER OPPOSED AND RICHARD ABSTAINING.

Respectfully submitted,

Absent: TURNER, WATTS, SPECK, SCHWANKE, MACDONALD.

Bonnie Bowler, Secretary, ASMSU
