Division I

ASMSU Fee Requirements and Special Qualifications

Article I

The ASMSU student activity fee shall be forty-eight dollars ($48), payable in three installments of sixteen ($16) at the time of registration each quarter except in case of students in University schools operating under a semester system; whereby these students shall pay $24 at the time of registration each semester.

Article II

Central Board shall be responsible for the apportionment of the regular activity fee and all other ASMSU funds.

Article III

Every active member of ASMSU shall be entitled to one copy of the Sentinel, provided that he has been an active association member for three quarters or has paid an equivalent cash deposit for those quarters not attended.

Article IV

In filling the vacancy of a class representative to Central Board, those students who are members of that class shall be entitled to vote. Class membership shall be determined according to Division I, Article V, of the bylaws.

Article V

Sec. 1. The eligibility of candidates for all official positions shall be determined on the basis of credits as follows:

a. Candidates for sophomore positions--30 credits; candidates for junior positions--75 credits; candidates for senior positions--105 credits. In making credit evaluations, a candidate may not include those credits for which he is currently registered. Candidates for sophomore, junior, and senior positions shall have a 2.0 grade average.

b. The eligibility of a candidate for the position of freshman delegate shall be determined as follows:

1. A candidate shall be eligible if he is enrolled as a student of MSU with no previous college credits.
2. A candidate shall be eligible if he has been enrolled in no more than one quarter of one semester of college work and has maintained a 2.0 grade point average.
Sec. 2 A candidate to fill a vacant official position must have an additional average total of fifteen credits per quarter, applicable to all quarters between the last regular election in which he seeks candidacy.

Sec. 3 New ASMSU officers and Central Board delegates shall assume responsibility for the affairs of the Association at an installation dinner to be held within two (2) weeks of the general election. The committees of the retiring administration will function until the new committees are organized.

Division II

ASMSU Committees

Article I

Sec. 1 The work of ASMSU Committees shall be the responsibility of the Vice-president of ASMSU.

Sec. 2 Each ASMSU Committee shall be directly responsible to Central Board, through the vice-president of ASMSU. Committee chairmen shall submit quarterly reports to the ASMSU vice-president and minutes of all meetings within one week of meeting.

Sec. 3 Central Board shall appoint the upperclass committee members within two weeks after being installed. It shall appoint freshmen committee members within two weeks after the election of freshmen Central Board delegates, each fall quarter. It shall appoint as many additional members to each committee as it may from time to time deem necessary.

Sec. 4 Each committee chairman may change the membership of his committee with the approval of Central Board. Committee chairmen may be removed by the vice-president with the approval of Central Board.

Sec. 5 A personnel committee consisting of the president, vice-president, and the three hold-over delegates of Central Board who will be serving the second year of that term shall be responsible for the selection of the committee chairmen and members. Appointments will be made with the consent of Central Board by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

Article II

Budget and Finance Committee

Sec. 1 Membership
This committee shall consist of a chairman and at least six student members, three of whom shall be women, and the Student Auditor. The ASMSU business manager shall be chairman. He shall appoint a secretary, who shall file a copy of the minutes of each meeting with the ASMSU vice-president, the Student Auditor, the Budget and Finance permanent files, and all groups to whom particular portions are pertinent prior to the next Central Board meeting.
Sec. 2. Duties

a. This committee shall carry out the following duties in regard to the ASMSU budget:

1. It shall call for a written budget estimate and request representatives from any ASMSU financed organization to appear before it to discuss the same;

2. It shall appear at the first Central Board meeting of the spring quarter to discuss and receive suggestions for the budget of the coming year;

3. It shall prepare and submit this budget to Central Board at least three weeks prior to the end of spring elections;

4. It shall seek tentative Central Board approval of this budget at the initial or succeeding meetings set aside for discussion of it;

5. It shall meet jointly with the old and new Central Boards, following the spring elections, for the purpose of gaining final approval of this budget by the Old Central Board.

b. It shall adopt the following policy for entering into contracts and paying claims:

1. It shall require a requisition signed by the manager, director, or chairman of any organization or committee wishing to enter into transaction falling under one of these categories;

2. It shall require the signature of the Student Auditor to be on all requisitions in excess of $25.

Article III

Division IV

General

Article I

Elections Procedure

Sec. 1 A member shall vote in that class of which he is a member according to credits as per Division I, Article V, Section 1.

Sec. 2 A primary election shall be held between the beginning of spring quarter and April 30, inclusive. A general election shall be held between the date of the primary election and May 5, inclusive, provided that it shall be held at least five days after the primary election. The primary election for freshman representatives to Central Board shall be held within six weeks after the commencement of classes fall quarter, at the call of the president of ASMSU, and the general election shall be not more than two weeks later.

Sec. 3 Each candidate for an official position must satisfy the credit requirements set forth under Division I, Article V, of the bylaws, must be nominated by a petition bearing his own signature and twenty other signatures of active members qualified to vote for him, and must file this petition with the Elections Committee Chairman. The closing filing date shall be April 7 for the spring elections, and the Friday preceding the week of the primary elections for the freshman elections and special elections. If an above date is not a school day, the first subsequent school day shall be the closing date. Spring election petitions shall be validated by Central Board not later than April 15, and petitions for other elections on the Monday of the week in which the primary is held.

Sec. 4 Write-in votes shall be counted in both the primary and general elections. The eligible candidates for an elected official position who receive the highest number of votes in the primary elections and who consent to be candidates shall be nominated and voted on in the general election, even though one candidate may have received a clear majority of the votes cast.
Sec. 5. Failure by the incumbent of any position of the association to comply with the qualifications for active membership set forth in Article I, Sec. 3, shall be deemed to create a vacancy in that position.

Sec. 6. If a vacancy occurs in any of the official positions, as defined in Art. III of the Constitution, between spring and fall ASMSU elections of the same year, then this vacancy shall be filled in the fall ASMSUU elections. If, however, the vacancy occurs between the fall ASMSU elections of one year and the spring ASMSU elections of the next year, then the vacancy shall be filled by presidential appointment with the consent of Central Board by 2/3 vote. The appointee shall serve only until the spring election following his appointment.

Sec. 7. Appointment of committee chairmen to fill vacancies occurring between fall committee selections of one year and spring committee selection of the next year shall be made by the president of ASMSU with 2/3 consent of Central Board.

Sec. 8. The names of all candidates shall be published in the Kaimin immediately after the validation of petitions by Central Board and the names of all nominees shall be published immediately after the primary election. Notice of all closing filing dates and election dates shall be conspicuously given in the Kaimin. Notice of special elections shall be given at least twice.

Sec. 9. The number of candidates to be nominated by a primary election for a general election shall be twice the number of vacancies in each position to be filled.

Sec. 10. A tie vote in a primary election shall cause the names of those candidates involved to be included on the general election ballot, provided the number of votes cast would qualify each tying candidate in the absence of the tie. No candidate shall qualify for a general election as the result of a tie between other candidates receiving a greater number of votes.

Sec. 11. Central Board shall provide for a special election to determine a general election winner, in event of a tie vote.

Sec. 12. Regularly enrolled freshmen shall be eligible to vote for ASMSU officers only after they have representatives to Central Board.

Sec. 13. It shall require a plurality of the votes cast for a given position to effect the election of any candidate.

Sec. 14. Officers and class representatives shall be installed at the first Central Board meeting following their election and shall hold office until their successors are installed.

Sec. 15. No electioneering shall take place in the building in which an election is taking place.

Sec. 16. Campaigning.
   a. No signs, handbills, posters, or related material shall be posted on university trees or shrubbery. There shall be no defacing of University property or sidewalks by the application of any kind of paint. All signs shall be removed from authorized space by the organizations or individuals erecting them immediately after their use is ended.

b. Special booth setups on campus grounds must be arranged through the maintenance department and must be kept free from ground litter.
c. All signs must be printed on paper, posterboard, or some other medium.
Masking tape only is allowed for the fixation of signs, except in the case of bulletin boards where tacks may be used. Scotch tape is allowed for the fixation of signs on windows.

Sec. 17. Each candidate for student office shall have the right to demand and receive one recount; the need for additional recounts shall be determined by the election committee chairman. Recount requests must be made within 24 hours after the candidates have been notified by the posting of the results outside the ASMSU office.

Sec. 18. The signatures of the election committee chairman, the ASMSU president, and the faculty or administration representative present are required to make the ballot count official.

Article II

Any soliciting of the student body by campus or downtown organizations shall be subject to approval by Central Board.

Article III

Any distributing or selling of publications, handbills, circular, or calendars on campus by individuals or groups shall be subject to approval by Central Board.

Article IV

No faculty member may present a financial request to Central Board, unless specifically invited to do so.

Article V

Any solicitation of advertising by student publications, student groups, or individual students shall be subject to approval by Central Board.

Article VI

The date of each new printing of this Constitution, its amendments, and its bylaws shall be noted on all copies. These shall be distributed to the president of Montana State University, the members of the Montana State Board of Education, the Dean of Students, the Associate Dean of Students, the Comptroller, the presidents of associated organizations, presidents of living groups, and interested students and faculty at the time each new Central Board is installed. Copies shall be made available to all students at the time of each fall registration, and these shall be taken from those reprinted the previous spring.
Article VII

All ASMSU organizations shall submit a summary of the year's activities to the vice-president, who shall file them for future reference.

The government and activities of the association shall be carried on through (1) the association as a whole with a general governing body known as Central Board; (2) special and standing committees as hereinafter provided for; (3) and any other associated organization that may be deemed necessary by the association.

Sec. 2. The association may also cooperate with independent student groups in common interests. Such cooperation of itself shall not impose any financial responsibility on the association.

Sec. 3. The associated organizations may enact their own constitutional government, provided that these do not conflict with the ASMSU Constitution.

Article III

Official Positions

Sec. 1. All official positions of the association shall be elective, according to Article VIII. These shall include: (1) the offices of the association as a whole; (2) the class representation on Central Board; (3) the chairmanship of Judicial Council; (4) and the ASMSU representation in all associated organizations.

Article IV

Officers

Sec. 1. The officers of the association shall be president, vice-president, business manager and secretary.

Sec. 2. The president shall preside at meetings of the association, and shall be the ex-officio chairman of Central Board. He shall be the official representative of the association.
Sec. 3. The vice-president shall have such duties as are enumerated in the bylaws.

Sec. 4. The business manager shall be the chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee and shall be the financial manager of ASMSU, subject to the direction of Central Board. He shall see that any individual or organization receiving ASMSU property at the direction of Central Board shall be responsible for its safe-keeping, and that any property or funds belonging to ASMSU on the day of its dissolution shall go to Montana State University.

Sec. 5. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings and shall carry on the official correspondence of the association and of Central Board. She shall immediately file a duplicate copy of the minutes of each meeting with the president of Montana State University, the Comptroller, student auditor, the faculty and administration members of Central Board, University dormitories, social fraternities, and all other persons or organizations to which particular portions are pertinent. She shall have published up-to-date copies of amendments to the ASMSU Constitution and the constitutional bylaws.

Sec. 6. In the absence of the president, the order of succession shall be: vice-president, business manager and secretary.

Sec. 7. The president, vice-president, and business manager must have attended Montana State University for five quarters, must have the equivalent of seven quarters' college residence, and must satisfy the senior position credit requirement set forth in Div. I, Art. V of the bylaws at the time of election. The secretary must have attended Montana State University for three quarters, must have the equivalent of five quarters' college residence, and must satisfy the junior candidate credit requirement set forth in the same article at the time of election. No candidate for one of these positions shall include the quarter for which he is currently registered to satisfy the above requirements.

Sec. 8. Candidates for the above offices must have a 2.5 grade average at the time of election.

Sec. 9. Should the University term or method of computing grade point averages be changed, all qualifications shall revert to their nearest equivalent.

Article V

Central Board

Sec. 1. All affairs and activities of ASMSU shall be under the control and supervision of Central Board.

Sec. 2. Meetings of Central Board shall be held regularly and shall be open to the student body, except where otherwise provided.
Sec. 3. Central Board shall be composed of the following members: (1) president, vice-president, business manager, and secretary of ASMSU; (2) two faculty representatives; (3) one administrator representative; (4) and twelve class representatives.

Sec. 4. The class representatives shall be elected as follows: (1) in the spring elections the junior class shall elect two delegates, each being designated to serve a one-year term; (2) in the spring elections, the sophomore and freshman classes shall each elect two delegates, the ones from each class receiving the greater number of votes being designated to serve two-year terms, and the others to serve one-year terms; (3) in the fall elections the new freshman class shall elect three delegates, the one receiving the greatest number of votes being designated to serve a two-year term, and the others to serve a one-year term.

Sec. 5. The Kaimin editor, president of AWS, chairman of Traditions Committee, chairman of Publicity-Travel Committee, chairman of Judicial Council, director of the Student Government Information Service, and the Student Auditor shall be ex-officio member of Central Board.

Sec. 6. Central Board may create additional ex-officio positions and non-voting positions by a 2/3 vote. It may disestablish any of these positions by the same vote. Ex-officio positions, once established, shall become permanent additions until such time as Central Board shall deem them unnecessary. Non-voting positions shall be temporary and shall be reestablished on a yearly basis. Individuals holding non-voting positions shall be excluded from all executive sessions of Central Board. Voting privileges shall not be accorded to persons holding positions in either of these categories.

Sec. 7. Each member of Central Board, as enumerated in Sec. 3, shall be entitled to one vote on all matters of business, with the exception of the chairman, who may vote only in case of a tie or when necessary to constitute a quorum, and the two faculty representatives, who shall have one vote between them.

Sec. 8. Two thirds (2/3) of the voting members of Central Board shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 9. Central Board may call an executive session by a 2/3 vote.

Sec. 10. All actions, recommendations, or decisions of any committee shall be subject to the approval of Central Board.

Sec. 11. Any member of Central Board who is for any reason unable to attend meetings may be removed by a 2/3 vote of the remaining members.

Sec. 12. When a question arises that is not specifically covered in the Constitution and bylaws, Central Board shall have authority to decide the matter.
Article VI

Judicial Council

Sec. 1. Judicial Council shall be composed of an executive chairman and twelve student members, six of whom shall be women.

Sec. 2. The executive chairman shall be elected in the regular ASMSU elections each spring. He shall (1) preside over all meetings of the Council, (2) appoint members to serve on investigating committees and interviewing boards, (3) and act as official representative. He shall not vote in Council decisions. At the time of his election he shall (1) have attended Montana State University for five quarters; (2) have the equivalent of seven quarters' college residence; (3) have a 2.5 over-all grade average; (4) and satisfy the senior candidate credit requirements set forth in Div. 1, Art. V of the bylaws. He shall not include the quarter for which he is currently registered to satisfy the above requirements. He shall take office the first day of fall quarter and shall be of legal age (twenty-one years) at this time.

Sec. 3. The student members shall be appointed to two-year terms by a committee composed of (1) ASMSU President, (2) the executive chairman of Judicial Council, (3) five Central Board delegates, (4) and two holdover Judicial Council members. This committee shall select six junior members, three of whom shall be women, by interview from a list of applicants called for by the executive chairman of Judicial Council prior to the end of each winter quarter. All applicants shall have an over-all 2.5 grade average, and between 60 and 104 credits, inclusive. No candidate shall include credits for which he is currently registered.

Sec. 4. Judicial Council shall be divided into a men's board and a women's board, each of which shall elect a vice-chairman. Each vice-chairman shall preside over the meetings of any investigating committee composed solely of the members of his or her board, should the entire Council deem such a committee advantageous.

Sec. 5. Judicial Council shall (1) strive to maintain a high standard of conduct within the Montana State University student body, through a program of education and enforcement in regard to such University and student-formulated regulations as it shall, in consultation with University officials, deem to fall within the range of its effectiveness; (2) handle all ASMSU impeachment proceedings as enumerated in Article IX of the Constitution; (3) and interpret this Constitution and its amendments at the request of Central Board.

Sec. 6. Judicial Council shall, through interview, select a recorder prior to the end of each winter quarter. The recorder shall keep accurate records of all meetings and case procedures and shall not be eligible to vote.

Sec. 7. Associated Women's Students shall have one representative on Judicial Council. She shall act as liaison between the two bodies and shall not be eligible to vote.
Sec. 8. The Dean and Associate Dean of Students shall act as advisers to Judicial Council. They shall be present at any regular meeting; they shall also present at any interview or meeting at which a decision is to be rendered, unless requested not to attend by the majority of the members of Judicial Council.

Sec. 9. In the absence of the executive chairman, the order of discussion shall be: (1) chairman of men's board; (2) chairman of women's board. In the case of a vacancy in the executive chairmanship, the chairman of men's board shall serve the unexpired term.

Sec. 10. All vacancies in the appointed membership of Judicial Council shall be filled, through application and interview, by the committee enumerated in Sec. 3. Credit requirements shall be increased by fifteen credits for each fall quarter lapse between the original spring selection and the occurrence of the vacancy.

Sec. 11. Central Board members shall not be eligible for any Judicial Council position.

Article VII

Committees

Sec. 1. The affairs and activities of ASMSU shall be handled through such standing committees as are enumerated in the bylaws and any other committees which Central Board shall deem necessary for the administration of ASMSU. These committees shall be subject to the supervision and approval of Central Board.

Article VIII

Elections

Sec. 1. Only active members, as defined in Article I, are eligible to hold any official or appointive position, or to vote in any ASMSU election. No person shall hold or be a candidate for two official positions as enumerated in Article III.

Sec. 2. Election procedures shall be as enumerated in Article I of the General bylaws.

Article IX

Impeachment

Sec. 1. Any ASMSU officer or class representative to Central Board may be removed from office. Removal proceedings may be instituted by a petition to Judicial Council signed by ten per cent of those eligible to vote for the accused.

Sec. 2. The chairman of Judicial Council shall appoint a committee of two men and two women to hear the removal charges and the defense of the accused. This committee shall recommend appropriate action to the entire Council. A removal shall be confirmed by a three-fourths (3/4) affirmative vote of the Council.
Meetings

Sec. 1. The Association shall meet upon the call of the ASMSU president.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the president to call such a meeting upon petition by any 75 active members of ASMSU.

Sec. 3. A notice stating the time and place of such a meeting shall be published in the Kaimin at least three school days beforehand, except that Central Board may deem it to be held on shorter notice by declaring an emergency; whereby, notice may be posted on the official University bulletin board.

Finance

Sec. 1. The Association shall be supported and maintained by funds derived from the following sources: (1) student activity fees, (2) receipts from all entertainments, activities and benefits conducted under the supervision of the association, (3) proceeds received from its associated organizations and (4) donations.

Sec. 2. All net profits over and above reasonable reserves for operations made by any associated organization created to carry on association interests shall inure to the association at the end of each fiscal year. The financial manager of the organization shall, subject to the approval of Central Board, determine the operating reserve needed for the organization.

Sec. 3. The fees, donations and receipts from any source are to be used only for purposes of the Association under the control of Central Board and the Student Auditor. No incumbent of any official position of the association shall receive any salary or compensation by virtue of that position, except for ASMSU scholarships to the four officers of the Association. No part of such funds shall inure to any member of this association or any other individual, except that Budget-Finance Committee, with the approval of the Student Auditor, may, at their discretion, authorize a reasonable compensation for work done, or labor and material furnished.

Sec. 4. Any funds remaining in an association account at the end of the fiscal year shall be transferred to the ASMSU General Reserve Fund, as soon as reasonable accounting permits. However, Central Board may authorize any association account to retain its year-end balance for the following year's operations, or may transfer year-end account balances from one association account to another.
Sec. 5. A salaried auditor appointed by the president of Montana State University shall have general advisory powers on all matters concerning finance. The responsibility and duties of the auditor shall be: (1) to serve on Central Board and all of its committees in an advisory capacity, where finances are involved; (2) to enforce ASMSU constitutional and bylaw provision in regard to finances; (3) to have complete responsibility for keeping satisfactory financial records; (4) to provide financial advice; and (5) to prepare or to have prepared an annual report covering financial transactions of all organizations and activities subject to his supervision.

Article XII

Amendments

Sec. 1. This Constitution may be amended by allot in either the primary or general election of spring quarter. A proposed amendment shall be submitted to vote by a majority approval of Central Board, or by a petition of fifteen per cent of the active members of ASMSU. Thirty per cent of the active members must vote, and 2/3 of those voting must ratify the amendment. The proposed amendment shall be published in the Kaimin in at least two issues a week for two weeks prior to voting. A special meeting of ASMSU to discuss the amendment may be called under the provisions of Article X.

Article XIII

Enactment of Bylaws

Sec. 1. Central Board may enact bylaws at any meeting by a 2/3 vote.

Sec. 2. On petition of ten per cent of the active members of ASMSU, an immediate student vote shall be called to determine whether any bylaw shall remain in force.

Article XIV

Special Enactment

Sec. 1. This Constitution shall go into effect when the members of the 1958-59 Central Board take office in the spring quarter of 1958. It shall repeal and replace all existing constitutions.
