Mr. BAYH. I am glad to yield to the majority leader.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, if the Senator will yield, may I say it is a matter of real and deep concern, and I do hope something will be done to alleviate the situation of these people who have to pay a price to emigrate, which I think is most unfair, is certainly not called for, and does create a situation which causes a certain amount of disturbance in the minds of some Senators.
