Central Board
May 22, 1963

The meeting was called to order by President Rick Jones at 7:05 p.m. in the Silverbow Room of the Lodge.

Letters

1. Jones read a letter from Monarch Press, Inc., New York City, representing British and French students, stating that they would like to be put in contact with "charter-flight groups" of Americans who are traveling to Europe in order to reduce air passage rates for both groups and thereby encourage greater cultural exchange.
2. Jones read a letter from U. S. Senator Lee Metcalf stating that Central Board's letter and views will be kept in mind when the bill for federal income tax exemptions for students comes before the Senate.
3. Jones read a letter from U. S. Senator Mike Mansfield stating that he had referred our letter to the Treasury Department and received an answer saying that Assistant Secretary Surrey would send comments to Senator Mansfield on which to base a reply to Central Board concerning Senate Bill No. 98 which would provide a Federal income tax credit on amounts spent for college tuition, books and other expenses.

KOSITZKY MOVED THAT THE NEW ASMSU ADMINISTRATION CONTINUE TO SUPPORT THE TAX EXEMPTIONS BILL. SECONDED BY RICHARD. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Planning Board

Linda Phillips, chairman, presented a by-law change for Div. III, Art. I, Sec. 3 and 7 of the ASMSU By-Laws. It was to change the wording of Sections 3 and 7 from "Three associate editors" to "four associate editors." She stated that the purpose was to take the burden off the Kaimin News Editor who does the duties of an associate editor one night a week. Due to the expansion of Kaimin advertising, the Kaimin budget can handle the extra $25 a month that a new associate editor would receive. BOWLER MOVED THAT DIV. III, ART. I, SEC. 3 AND 7 BE CHANGED TO READ FOUR ASSOCIATE EDITORS AND DELETE THE WORDS THREE ASSOCIATE EDITORS. SECONDED BY COLE. MOTION CARRIED (10-0-2) WITH WATTS AND STONE ABSTAINING. Wilbur Wood, Kaimin editor, explained that with the increased advertising, the volume of the paper has gone up and they have been forced to put out bigger editions. The staff has been working on special articles, special columns, and has increased their depth writing articles.

Publications Board

Phil Miller, chairman, stated that the selection of Venture positions was postponed because application notices and deadlines were not stated in the Kaimin the two required times.

Special Events

Stacy Swor, chairman, stated that until last Thursday night, the committee had decided upon Henry Mancini for the Homecoming entertainment. However, Jack Ryan received a phone call from Bob Hope's agent and stated that possibly Hope could be obtained for the Homecoming entertainment but that he couldn't say for sure until July 1. The committee decided that if Hope could come, he would have greater drawing power to the alumni and students since Mancini was relatively unknown compared to Hope. Hope would be easier to promote and to make arrangements for in the Field House. Swor also reported that there are two agents standing by in case Hope should fall through to which ASMSU is not obligated by contract. Alternatives could be the Smothers Brothers or the Glenn Miller Band. RICHARD MOVED THAT BOB HOPE BE OBTAINED FOR HOMECOMING ENTERTAINMENT FOR $5,000 OR 70% TO BE UNDERWRITTEN BY BONNIE KOSITZKY, ASMSU BUSINESS MANAGER, AND RICK JONES, ASMSU PRESIDENT. AND IN THE EVENT ASMSU CANNOT OBTAIN A CONTRACT WITH HOPE, SPECIAL EVENTS COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN AND THE ASMSU PRESIDENT WILL BE RESPONSIBLE FOR OBTAINING SUBSTITUTE ENTERTAINMENT, THE COST NOT TO EXCEED $5,000 OR 70 PER CENT, TO BE UNDERWRITTEN BY THE ASMSU BUSINESS MANAGER AND PRESIDENT WITH THE CONSENT OF CENTRAL BOARD. SECONDED BY ASSELSTINE. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY. Jones commended Swor and the committee for their fine work.

STONE MOVED THAT JONES WRITE TO BUD PURDY THANKING HIM FOR THE LETTER REGARDING HOPE'S ENGAGEMENT IN BOZEMAN SEVERAL YEARS AGO. SECONDED BY COLE. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Traditions Board

Jim Erickson, chairman, reported that the annual Interscholastic Barbecue would not be held this year because of the financial burden it would involve. He said that there were less than 150 interscholastics participants at the barbecue last year and that it was not serving its purpose since it was losing money. He said that T-Board was trying to broaden the Interscholastic scope by promoting more interscholastic activities such as speech, drama, etc., and not just concentrating on the athletic aspects of Interscholastics. He said also that the committee was trying to something about the schools who hustle their students home after they have participated and who do not let non-participating students come to Interscholastics. He said that next year possibly a symposium of top professors could be arranged to talk to the visiting students. Speck stated that the students of MSU should show more interest in the high school students and interest them in coming to MSU.

Budget & Finance

Bonnie Kositzky, Business Manager, stated that Tim Miller, president of the Parachute Club, asked for a loan of $175 to pay for a bill incurred by them for repairs on a truck that they rented from Spartan Motors to make their trip to the national parachute championships in Orange, New Jersey. Due to previous good financial relations with the Parachute Club, KOSITZKY MOVED THAT CENTRAL BOARD GIVE THE PARACHUTE CLUB AS A "GIFT" $175 TO COVER THE COST INCURRED BY THEM. SECONDED BY MacDONALD. MOTION CARRIED (10-1-1) WITH COLE AGAINST AND SPECK ABSTAINING. Kositzky stated that Budget and Finance was not setting a precedent by doing this.

KOSITZKY MOVED TO SEND FLOWERS TO FRED REWEY'S FUNERAL FOR THE COST OF $7.50. SECONDED BY RICHARD. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Vice President's Report

RICHARD MOVED TO REAPPOINT LARRY STRAITE AND BILL PAPESH TO TRAFFIC BOARD AND APPOINT CAROLYN SPECK AND LINDA WOOD TO TRAFFIC BOARD. SECONDED BY ULMER. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Richard stated that he had received two applications for Freshman Camp co-chairman to serve with John Ulyatt. They were Barbara Nesbitt and Roger Zentzis. RICHARD MOVED THAT BARBARA NESBITT BE APPOINTED CO-CHAIRMAN OF FRESHMAN CAMP. SECONDED BY MacDONALD. MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

He said that the Personnel Committee (Jones, Richard, Kositzky, Bowler, Asselstine, Schwanke, and MacDonald) would meet Saturday at 9:00 a.m. in the ASMSU office to select the committee members and chairmen. He also stated that Traditions Board members were not selected by the Personnel but are selected from each living group and service organization on campus.

Special Committee Reports

Student Interest Committee

George Cole, chairman, stated 1) that the job list had been given to the Kaimin, 2) that the committee was trying to arrange for a Central Board Bulletin Board in the Lodge for publicizing CB matters to the students, 3) that he had received a letter from Margaret Low stating that the students should be selected for Freshmen Camp only on the basis of being from out-of-state or in-state, with preference being given to out-of-state students.

Carolyn Speck said that she would rejuvenate the old Central Board bulletin board this summer.

Old Business

Jones stated that Newburn had signed the Memorandum of Agreement concerning the use of certain facilities at MSU to the general student body, either without payment of usual admittance charges or at reduced rates.

Jones assigned Speck to Budget & Finance Committee, Asselstine to Publications Board, and MacDonald to Visiting Lecturers Committee.

New Business

Jones reported that he had attended a meeting of alumni in Butte and that the alumni were pleased that we were trying to obtain Bob Hope for Homecoming. He also stated that the alumni have a loan fund available for student use and that information concerning a United States Aid Fund will be published in the Kaimin.
