FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Montana State University has received a bequest of over $1,000 to provide financial aid to students in the Law School, Dean Robert E. Sullivan announced.

The bequest was provided for in the will of Florence E. Heyfron as a memorial to her husband, Gilbert J. Heyfron, who was born in Missoula in 1882 and died a few years ago in Hollywood, Calif. Mrs. Heyfron also died in California.

Heyfron earned a law degree from the University of Michigan and was admitted to the bar in Montana in 1909. He was assistant county attorney in Missoula under E. C. Mulroney from 1909 to 1913. He moved to Hollywood about 1915 and was counsel for several screen stars during his long practice there.
