COT CULINARY STUDENTS TO PRESENT BRAZILIAN FARE

MISSOULA-

The University of Montana College of Technology will hold its annual Capstone Dinner Saturday, April 21.

A fundraiser for the Culinary Student Education Fund, the event begins at 5 p.m. in the foyer at COT, located at 909 South Ave W.

This year's multi-course dinner – prepared by the graduating class of the COT's Culinary Arts Program – features the cuisine and culture of coastal Brazil. The event highlights the celebration of Carnivale.

Tickets are $75 each and may be purchased beginning Wednesday, March 21 through The Source, located in the University Center Atrium.

The dinner will feature authentic Brazilian cuisine, including “feijoada,” the Brazilian national dish that is served on special occasions. It's a stew of black beans, coconut rice, a variety of sausages and roast meat. Regional breads, beverages and desserts also will be featured. There will be live entertainment and a raffle; door prizes will be given away throughout the dinner.
