ANNUAL SPRING DANCE CONCERT IS HERE TO 'A MUSE' YOU

MISSOULA –

This year's Spring Dance Concert at The University of Montana promises a blend of humor, athleticism and beauty.

Highlights include "ETA TBA" and "a Muse," which are both choreographed by UM students. Together with six other pieces, they represent a wide range of styles within contemporary dance.

The concert, which UM's Department of Drama/Dance said is the best of the year, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. May 2-5 in the Montana Theatre of the Performing Arts and Radio/Television Center.

Other highlights are "Lunchbox," choreographed by UM senior Laurel Wall-MacLane, and "Transmissible Joy," choreographed by UM dance Professor Michele Antonioli. "Lunchbox" was chosen to be in the final Gala Concert at the Northwest Regional American College Dance Festival, and "Transmissible Joy" tweaks ballet with whimsical gestures created by choreographing the classical movements of ballet to a reggae beat.

Tickets are available from the Drama/Dance Box Office between 11:30 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday. Tickets are $15 for adults, $12 for students with Griz Cards or seniors and $5 for children under 12. For more information call the box office at 243-4581.
