MISSOULA—

Nineteen students from Billings have been awarded scholarships from The University of Montana.

Felicia Frank, Katrina Heser, Katie Moline and Kelli Morrissey, all 2007 graduates of Billings West High School, each received a $1,000 William Enderlein Scholarship.

Frank plans to major in journalism at UM. Her parents are Suzette and Paul Frank of Billings.

Heser, who will major in journalism at UM, is the daughter of Jeanni and Jeff Heser of Billings.

Moline plans to pursue a degree in pharmacy at UM. Her parents are Barry and Sheri Moline of Billings.

Morrissey is the daughter of Kerri Connors of Salt Lake City and John Morrissey of Billings.

The William Enderlein Scholarship was established in 1997 through the estates of Philip and Esther Enderlein in memory of their son.

UM Honors scholarships of $1,000 went to Crystal Gurney, a 2007 graduate of Skyview High School, and Ali Lubbers, a 2007 graduate of Billings West High School.

Gurney is the daughter of Brian Gurney and Carolyn Willis of Billings.

Lubber’s parents are Mark and Carol Lubbers of Billings.

An $8,000 Honors Scholarship was awarded to Kasey Austin, a 2007 graduate of Billings West High School. She is the daughter of Dan and Carol Austin of Billings.

Haynes Foundation Scholarships in the amount of $8,000 went to Louis Habeck and Amy Kaufman, 2007 graduates of Skyview High School.

Habeck will major in fine arts at UM. He is the son of Bob and Maribeth Habeck of Billings.

Kaufman plans to major in media arts. Her parents are Omi Preheim Church of Billings and David Kaufman of Newton, Mass.

Jack and Isabel Haynes, who owned and managed several Yellowstone Park photo shops, established the scholarship fund in 1960.

UM License Plate $1,000 scholarships were awarded to Courtney Mostad and Christopher Wilkins.

Mostad graduated from Billings West High School this year. She will major in fine arts at UM. Her parents are Randy and Debbie Mostad of Billings.

Wilkins is a UM freshman majoring in business management, marketing and finance. He is a 2006 graduate of Billings Central Catholic High School and the son of Corrine and Gerry Wilkins of Billings.

A portion of the cost to purchase Montana’s UM license plates makes the License Plate scholarships possible through the University's general scholarship fund.

Bonhomme scholarships of $1,000 went to Brittany Durell and Kira Pecarina.

Durell, a UM junior, majors in accounting and finance. She is a 2005 graduate of Billings West High School and the daughter of Gary and Paula Durell of Billings.

Pecarina is a sophomore at UM majoring in German and pre-physical therapy. She graduated from Billings Senior High School in 2005. Her parents are Lori Bigwood-Pecarina and Ron Pecarina of Billings.

Sara Campbell, Chris Schuman and Elizabeth Wright each received a $1,300 Bonhomme Scholarship.

Campbell is a UM sophomore majoring in health and human performance. She is a 2005 graduate of Skyview High School and the daughter of Pat and Marty Campbell of Billings.

Schuman, a UM senior, majors in business management. He graduated from Billings Senior High School in 2003. His parents are James and Norma Schuman of Billings.

Wright is a 2005 graduate of Billings Senior High School and a sophomore at UM majoring in human biology and botanical sciences. She is the daughter of Leila and Dean Wright of Billings.

The Bonhomme Scholarship Fund was established in 2001 by the estate of Peter and Elvi Bonhomme of Big Timber.

A $6,000 Louis V. Dubay Scholarship went to Sarah Johnson, a 2007 graduate of Billings Senior High School. Johnson will major in journalism and Spanish at UM. She is the daughter of Linda and Gordon Johnson of Billings.

The scholarship was established from the estate of Dubay, a longtime Missoula resident.

Alison Vold, a senior at UM majoring in Spanish education, received a $2,000 Van Bramer Scholarship. Vold is a 2003 graduate of Skyview High School. Her parents are Susan and Steven Vold of Billings.

The scholarship was established in 1980 through the will of Susan Van Bramer. The Van Bramers were longtime residents of the Billings area.

Amanda Ackerman, a 2007 graduate of Billings West High School, received an $8,000 Fox Foundation Scholarship. Ackerman plans to major in botany at UM. She is the daughter of Terry and Jill Ackerman of Billings.

The Fox Foundation Scholarship was established in 1960 by the estate of Sadie Fox, who moved to Montana with her family in 1887, first to Helena and then to a ranch near Stark.
