BROWNING STUDENTS RECEIVE UM SCHOLARSHIPS

MISSOULA—

Eight Browning students have been awarded scholarships from The University of Montana.

Browning Educational Endowment scholarships in the amount of $1,300 each went to Mistee Rides At The Door and Wendy Running Crane.

Rides At The Door, a senior in Native American studies at UM, also received a $2,800 Burt and Eva Spaulding Scholarship. She is a 2002 graduate of Browning High School and the daughter of Darnell and Smokey Rides At The Door of Browning.

Running Crane is a UM senior in sociology. She also was awarded a $2,100 Knute W. Bergan Scholarship. She graduated from Browning High School in 1988. Her parents are Bob and Charlene Burns of Browning and Lockley and Tracy Bremner of St. Ignatius.

The Browning Educational Endowment Fund was established in 2000 by Dean and Kristi Laughlin Drenzek, who taught in Browning for several years.

The Spauldings, both UM alumni, established the Burt and Eva Spaulding Scholarship and Opportunity Endowment in 1999.

The Knute W. Bergan Scholarship fund was established in 1975 through the will of -more-
Ruth Bergan in memory of her husband.

Jeffrey Hoyt, who graduated from Browning High School this year, received a $700 Sandra Jensen Kelly Scholarship. He is the son of Jim and Brenda Hoyt of Browning.

The memorial scholarship was established in 1990 for Kelly, who was a strong supporter of UM. She died of cancer at the age of 42.

Tyler Hoyt received a $1,500 Heisey Foundation Scholarship. He is a sophomore at UM majoring in psychology. He graduated from Browning High School in 2005 and is the son of Jim and Brenda Hoyt of Browning.

Marcia St. Goddard, a 2003 graduate of Browning High School, was awarded a $2,500 Heisey Foundation Scholarship, a $1,000 Viola O’Connor Memorial Scholarship and a $600 Anna Marie Lucas Scholarship.

St. Goddard is a senior at UM majoring in health and human performance. Her parents are Margie and Daryl St. Goddard of Browning.

The Heisey Foundation Scholarship was established in 1992 in honor of the major food distributor Heisey Company.

The Viola O’Connor Memorial Scholarship was established with a bequest from Viola O’Connor.

The Anna Marie Lucas Scholarship was established in 1987 through her will.

Misty Salois, a 1996 graduate of Browning High School, received a $1,800 Kate and Russell F. Stark Memorial Scholarship. The Starks established the memorial fund in 1984.

Salois is a graduate student at UM in counselor education. She is the daughter of Lenore Salois and Edwin Running Wolf of Browning.

Ann Douglas, a 2001 Browning High School graduate, was awarded a $3,000 Helen Roberti Scholarship.

Douglas is a graduate student in UM's counselor education program. Her parents are Russel and Carol Douglas of Browning.

The goal of the Helen Roberti Scholarship is a deeper academic understanding of Native American history, culture and literature and the leadership skills needed to lead America's tribal colleges.

A $4,170 Dennis and Gretchen Eck Native American Scholarship went to Vernon Grant, a senior at UM majoring in health and human performance.

Grant is the son of Toni and Gene Grant of Browning.

The scholarship was established in 1993 by the Ecks, both of whom are 1966 graduates of UM.
