General

Article I

Elections Procedure

Sec. 1. A member shall vote in that class of which he is a member according to credits.

Sec. 2. A primary election shall be held between April 15 and April 30, inclusive. A general election shall be held between May 1 and May 5, inclusive, provided that it shall be held at least five days after the primary election. The primary election for freshman representatives to Central Board shall be held within six weeks after the commencement of classes fall quarter, at the call of the president of ASMSU, and the general election shall be not more than two weeks later.

Sec. 3. Each candidate for an official position must satisfy the credit requirements set forth under Div. I, Art. V, of the by-laws, must be nominated by a petition bearing his own signature and twenty other signatures of active members qualified to vote for him, and must file this petition with the Student Auditor. The closing filing date shall be April 7 for the spring elections, and the Friday preceeding the week of the primary elections for the fall freshman elections and special elections. If an above date is not a school day, the first subsequent school day shall be the closing date. Spring election petitions shall be validated by Central Board not later than April 12, and petitions for other elections on the Monday of the week in which the primary is held.

Sec. 4. Write-in votes shall be counted in both the primary and general elections. The eligible candidates for an elected official position who receive the highest number of votes in the primary elections and who consent to be candidates shall be nominated and voted on in the general election, even though one candidate may have received a clear majority of the votes cast.

Sec. 5. Failure by the incumbent of any position of the association to comply with the qualifications for active membership set forth in Article I, section 3, shall be deemed to create a vacancy in that position.

Sec. 6. Central Board shall call a special election to fill a vacancy in any elective position within three weeks after the vacancy occurs.

Sec. 7. The names of all candidates shall be published in the Kaimin immediately after the validation of petitions by Central Board and the names of all nominees shall be published immediately after the primary election. Notice of all closing filing dates and election dates shall be conspicuously given in the Kaimin. Notice of special elections shall be given at least twice.

Sec. 8. The number of candidates to be nominated by a primary election for a general election shall be twice the number of vacancies in each position to be filled.

Sec. 9. A tie vote in a primary election shall cause the names of those candidates involved to be included on the general election ballot, provided the number of votes cast would qualify each tying candidate in the absence of the tie. No candidate shall qualify for a general election as the result of a tie between other candidates receiving a greater number of votes.

Sec. 10. Central Board shall provide for a special election to determine a general election winner, in the event of a tie vote.

Sec. 11. Regularly enrolled freshmen shall be eligible to vote for ASMSU officers only after they have elected representatives to Central Board.

Sec. 12. It shall require a plurality of the votes cast for a given position to effect the election of any candidate.

Sec. 13. Officers and class representatives shall be installed at the first Central Board meeting following their election and shall hold office until their successors are installed.

Sec. 14. No electioneering shall take place in the building in which an election is taking place.
