LOCAL MUSICIANS OFFER NOON-HOUR PERFORMANCES AT UC

MISSOULA -

Drop by the University Center Atrium at noon to enjoy the sounds of local musicians at two upcoming "Nooners" performances.

David Boone will perform Wednesday, March 19. Boone is a popular local artist from Seeley Lake who has been performing his blend of pop, rock and blues in Missoula and around the Northwest for the past six years.

John Flordis will play the UC Atrium at noon on Wednesday, April 2. Flordis has been part of the Missoula music scene since the early 1990s and has toured extensively in the West. He describes his music as "Big Sky of Montana meets the Rust Belt of Cleveland."

Both shows last for one hour. All "Nooners" events are free and open to the public.
