Central Board Minutes
September 25, 1959

ABSENT:

Miller

Administration Representative

ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE REPORT

John Keefe reported that he was able to hire the Tommy Dorsey Band for $600 on October 13 if Central Board approved. He explained that the band was passing through Missoula on its way to MSC's Homecoming, hence the low price. He pointed out the fact that with Martin Denny and the Tommy Dorsey Band we would have 2 "name band" activities this quarter at a good price, and that the money made on the Dorsey Band would be good bargaining material for bringing in entertainment spring quarter. Duane Adams questioned the soundness of having two main attractions so close together. Meyers moved we hire the Dorsey Band for October 13. Ulrich seconded; Passed 11-1. Adams opposed, Brown and Stone abstained.

Keefe also reported that the Blue Hawks would let him know on Tuesday, September 29, if they can play for Homecoming.

SENTINEL REPORT

Risse reported that all people appointed were present at the meeting with Upshaw. He said that the main reason for the yearbook delay was that the editor had tried to do too much himself and had become overburdened with menial tasks such as indexing. Many sections of the book are almost done and need only a few hours work to complete them.

Mr. Lord estimated that the presses could run one 16-page section a day, and it is assumed that Upshaw, with the help of the Masquers and his assistant editors, can keep up with the schedule.

COMMUNITY CONCERT PROGRAM

George Blake, the representative from Community Concert Series, reported that the ticket selling drive, headed by Janet McFarland and Carol Coates will be held from October 4 to October 10. He said that he needs 75 to 100 students to sell tickets. A meeting will be held October 4 for the workers, and at that time they will receive instructions and workers kits. Each ticket sold by a worker is worth 50¢ on his own ticket. He also said that only 2 of the series were being announced now, with Risse Stevens as the main attraction. The other two programs will be announced later, and depend on the response of the people and the decision of the Board of Directors.

OLD BUSINESS

Risse reported that Laurie Freseman had done over 40 hours of work in the ASMSU office last spring quarter. He asked that she be hired as assistant secretary again this year. Adams so moved, Meyers seconded. Passed 11-1. Brown, Stone abstained.

Committee chairmen and Central Board members were reminded to bring their typing to the office to have it done.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Jean Tate
Secretary, ASMSU
