ADAMS CENTER PARKING LIMITED FOR SATURDAY'S OBAMA RALLY

MISSOULA—

People planning to attend Saturday's Rally With Barack Obama are encouraged to use alternative transportation or plan to walk from other areas of The University of Montana campus to reach the Adams Center.

The Washington-Grizzly Stadium expansion and UM's steam tunnel construction project have led to fewer parking spaces surrounding the Adams Center. Parking is available in lots campuswide, and rally attendees may park in any space that is not designated as handicap or Quick Stop.

However, the public is encouraged to walk from area neighborhoods, since a large crowd is expected for the rally.
