MICHIGAN STUDENT UNION BUILDING ORGANIZED, INCORPORATED IN 1904

Contains Lobby, Cafeteria, Swimming Pool, Offices, Assembly Hall and Other Features.

In 1904 the University of Michigan Union building was organized and incorporated. It is from the University of Michigan Union booklet at material is taken for the fourth description of union buildings at other campuses, that the Montana students may know how to judge what they want in their building.

A questionnaire on which Montana students may express their preferences will be out a week from today, according to "Kelly" Skeels, chairman of the committee in charge of the questionnaire. The most encouraging feature about the Michigan Union is the use of the building made by the members of organizations. During the last year there are 1,800 meetings, dinners, and gatherings of all kinds held in the building.

To the right of the main entrance on the first floor is what is called the lobby. This room serves as a place where members may visit with one another in a place apart from the crowd of members passing in and out of the building. That part of the Union which would ordinarily be designated as the lobby has been named the Concourse. Here is the "meeting place" of the Union where dinner parties assemble or where members meet by appointment. It forms an ideal place to sit and chat with friends. The bulletin board in the hall lists the events of the week and day scheduled for the Union building.

At the main desk are the cashier's and room clerk's desks, and mail racks, the cigar and candy counters. The lobby to the left of it is used for selling tickets to University and union meetings. It also serves as the registration desk for conventions of which more than 30 have this year made their headquarters in the Union.

The telephone exchange, local phone booth, long distance station and the manager's offices occupy this section. Here is also the entrance to the swimming pool gallery which enables members to watch swimming exhibitions and contests.

The main dining room located at the west end of the main corridor seats 200 persons. This room is used for men exclusively except Sunday dinners. The small room adjoining the main dining room is a private dining room for

TO DISTRIBUTE STUDENT UNION QUESTIONNAIRES

Preferable Features of Proposed Building to Be Selected On Basis of General Opinion. Blanks Must Be Returned by February 15.

Questionnaires on what Montana students want in their student union building will be distributed a week from today, probably with the Kaimins, according to "Kelly" Skeels, chairman of the questionnaire committee. Some of them may be distributed to the various fraternity and sorority houses but all must be returned by February 15, according to Skeels.

An introductory statement of instruction opens the questionnaire. It states the purpose of determining what sort of a Union building the Montana students want. A list of the features included in buildings already built on other campuses, some of which have been described in the Kaimins recently, follows this information. Some of these features are the store, A. W. S. and A. S. U. M. offices, cafeteria, auditorium, hall room, lounge rooms for men and women, alumni headquarters, publication rooms, trophy, banquet, billiard rooms, headquarters for non-fraternity students, Memorial room and a reading room with open shelf. Space is left on the questionnaire for any other features which the student should think desirable, and space is also left for enlarging upon any of the topics. Students are encouraged to write on the back of the questionnaire any further suggestions they may think desirable in the features named.

It would be impossible to incorporate all of these into Montana's building, but the student union building committee would like to know which ones the Montana students consider the most essential, according to the questionnaire introduction. In marking the topics, the students will mark them either A, B, or C, in which system of grading A means essential, B, desirable, but not essential, and C, not especially desirable. This information is important to the student union building committee and each student is urged to exercise his best judgment in grading the topics.

SIX COLLEGES IN TOURNEY

Scribes to Play Pharmacy Club Tonight.

Scribes and Pillrollers will open the annual intercollegiate basketball tournament at 7:30 this evening when the two clubs meet at the University gymnasium. The Schools of Forestry and Law will play the second and closing game of the evening.

All of the six clubs entered in the tourney have handed in lists of their players to Harry Adams and games will be played on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings at 7:30 until Wednesday, February 19, when the Forestry and Law teams will play.

The only rules governing the tournament are that no varsity or freshmen players who are on the squad are eligible and a rule about postponing games. MEN'S VARSITY TO DEBATE IDAHO, GONZAGA AT MOSCOW AND SPOKANE

Tryouts for Team Will Be Held March 28. Judges Will Be Faculty Members Chosen Later.

An announcement has been made that a men's Varsity debate team will be selected to meet the University of Idaho and Gonzaga university sometime during the month of April. These debates will be held in Moscow and Spokane.

It is also thought that contests may be arranged with Oregon State college, the University of Oregon, and Washington State college, but it is not definitely known if the Montana team will continue on to the coast to debate with these schools.

The team to take this trip will be composed of two men who will be selected at tryouts to be held on Friday, March 28. This will give the contestants only two days to prepare for the tryouts as the spring quarter begins on Wednesday, March 28.

All members of the debate squad are eligible to try out for this team, the personnel of which will be chosen by three faculty members who will act as judges. The question will be, "Resolved, That all the nations should adopt a policy of complete disarmament except for such forces as are necessary for police protection."

It is thought that each contestant will be allowed seven minutes for his opening speech and five minutes for rebuttal.

The Freshman men's debate team and the Varsity team composed of Don-

"The Journal has just notified us of the Blackburn dinner Tuesday night. Quinn Blackburn is away from camp making a topographical survey of the Bay of Wales. We are sending this message to him by dog team, but answer may not get back here in time, so I am taking the liberty of sending you this radio. Please express to Mr. Blackburn at the testimonial dinner his associates are tendering him the congratulations of the inhabitants of Little America on having completed 50 years of service with the Northern Pacific railroad. I am glad of this chance to tell Mr. Blackburn that Quinn has done great work for our expedition and is a fine shipmate whom everyone admires and respects. Signed, Richard Byrd."

The average for the University men was 15.17 points per man as compared with 16.87 for the men last year. The average for University women is 18.83 as compared with 20.06 last year in the autumn quarter. The general average for students in the University last quarter is 16.81. This shows a decrease from last year's autumn quarter when the total average was 18.09.

Freshman women lead the freshman men. Freshman women had an average of 16.30 grade points per person with the men having 12.06 grade points per man. The total average for the freshmen was 14.35. This average is slightly lower than the autumn quarter of 1928 when the total average was 14.97.

North hall led the residence halls with an average of 19.58 grade points per person. Corbin hall is second with 18.84 and South hall last with 13.93. These averages include both upperclassmen and freshmen living in the residence halls.

The index for the autumn quarter 1929 is 1.092 for the total University men and women. This is higher than the index number for the autumn quarter in 1928 which was 1.056. The index number is the grade points divided by the credits of the total University men and women. In other words it means that last autumn quarter

Opportunity.

NEXT Saturday the Carleton Symphony Band will give two concerts in Missoula. The first will be at 2:30 in the afternoon and the second, an evening program, will begin at 8:30. The band is being brought here by the Missoula high school and by The Frontier. It is unique in that it is the only college symphony band in the United States.

The Carleton players differ also from other organizations in the number of the various instruments of each kind and in the seating arrangement. On the stage the woodwinds, which include the clarinets, alto clarinets, bassoons, oboes and flutes, are placed in the position usually occupied by the violins in a symphony orchestra, that is, in the front and on the left side of the stage. This gives a much sweeter and more melodious effect than does a regular band and saves the eardrums of the audience from the blare produced by the brasses in a regular band.

The program to be given will also be out of the ordinary. Among the numbers offered will be Wotan's Farewell and Fire Music from Die Valkyrie of Wagner; two Debussy numbers, "The Golliwog's Cake Walk" and "The Little Shepherd"; "The Triumphal Entry of the Boyars" by Halverson; a Gounod selection and the Marche Slav by Tchaikowsky. These are only a part of the whole program but will suffice to illustrate the variety of entertainment and the fact that this concert will be an event to be remembered in Missoula. Most of the orchestration has been made especially for this band by James R. Gillette, conductor, and the limitations and advantages of the group have therefore been carefully studied to produce the finest effects in small halls.

If you desire entertainment of an unusual kind and like music you will not miss the performance of the Carleton Band Saturday.

Communication

To the Editor:

We view "A Non-Greek's" letter in the last Kaimin with mixed emotions.

First of all, we ask, why place the responsibility for this great wrong, if there is any wrong, on the manager of Varsity Varsity, Elmer Hugo? If there has been any injustice done why not place it directly on that so-called submerged majority on our campus, the "barbs."

And why should the barbs, who contribute little or nothing to the entertainment, be given the best seats? Last year seven of eight acts in Varsity Varsity were given by the Greeks. We venture to say that seventy per cent of the college attendance at the show was contributed by the fraters and sorors.

And while we mention it, why all this "hush, hush" business concerning the barbs? If they would erince half as much interest in the show as the opposite group on the campus they would have much more fun than they do at present. The "barbs" are a howling minority who want representation without taxation.

Ask Mr. Non-Greek to suggest a plan.

Fair Exchange

Six Stone Hatchets for Office Table.

A glossy new office table, his own personal property, in exchange for six stone hatchets—this is the exchange effected yesterday by Prof. Harry Turney-High of the Economics department. Prof. Turney-High had the table, and Prof. Paul Bischoff of the foreign language department admired it. Prof. Bischoff had the six axes, and Prof. Turney-High admired them. The two went into a huddle, and agreed to trade. Says Mr. Turney-High: "Each of us thinks he got the best of the trade. We're probably both right."

The table is a good one, as tables go, but not particularly unusual. The axes, on the other hand, are something of an oddity. They were fashioned by hand, many ages ago, by patient Indians. Five of them are from Ohio—were fashioned by Indians of central United States—and one is from Montana. The other two—small, narrow axes, pointed on one end and polished flat on the other—are from Central America, and are the product of members of a Nicaraguan race. "I am really quite pleased to get them," said Mr. Turney-High. "What am I going to do with them? Why, give them to the University, of course!"

Search for Reality" will be the subject of her talk.

Alpha Kappa Psi will meet in the Craig hall seminary at 8 o'clock tonight.

Freshman debaters are requested to meet in Room 206 of the Student Store at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening.

Major Treichler will speak at the Art Exhibit tonight. The Bird personally guarantees an excellent talk; and from our opinion of the pictures and our experience of the Major we look for the talk to be not only humorous in spots, but peppery.

The attendance at the exhibit has been gratifying, but we missed YOU there; but not you, or you. You would be neither interested, nor interesting.

We are going to ask him to play Manhattan Serenade; exact time and success of our request will be announced in Friday's Bird.

Then there is the Carleton Symphony Band which will be at the High School auditorium Saturday, February 8. We understand that they will hold the performance until after the basketball game. It will be highly worth your while to attend.

The beamish weather has melted a few of the campus glaciers. We note that "Hello Walk" is still there.

Hello.

We are going to make an attempt at a symposium which should be amusing. "Dances, from a Chaperone's Point of View." If faculty wives ever read this column, (we know some of them do), will they please search their memories to see if they have a point of view, and if they do, will they be prepared to speak a few pointed phrases on the subject. Anonymously, of course.

It is our opinion that chaperones are treated to great degrees of courtesy and discourtesy.

In about three weeks, when the sun gets warm, and the grass starts to blossom, we are going to get our hair cut very short, and run around on the golf course without a hat or coat, and let the breezes toy with our skull.

Hurrah for spring. We hope there isn't a snowstorm going on by the time the paper comes out.

Speaking of haircuts. Let each man look to his own. What this world needs is a barber college where people are taught how to get their heads trimmed. There are several heads of hair we would like to get into with our fingers. Perhaps someone thinks that about ours.

Also the femme. We do believe that if women are to have long hair that it should be confined by pins, and not so confined that it looks near to falling in snarly cascades down their backs.

Over the Horizon

HERE they come—the nucleus of an all-electric merchant marine. Yesterday, they were a dream. To-day, they are well over the horizon, linking the ports of the east and west coasts with fortnightly service. The goal of the Panama Pacific Line is to build three more turbine-electric ships thus enabling weekly New York-Frisco sailings.

Even now, the three liners California, Virginia, and Pennsylvania, constitute the largest fleet of turbine-electric commercial ships in the world.

Besides propelling these ships, electricity hoists freight, raises anchors, mans pumps, turns rudders, drives winches, and warps the vessels into their berths. It lights lamps, spins fans, operates elevators, cools and cooks food. Its magic touch is apparent on every deck.

The planning, production, and distribution of such equipment has been largely the responsibility of college-trained men who are working with General Electric and who have aided in bringing these ships over the horizon.

TIME OF CONCERT CHANGED TO 8:30

Carleton Band Will Begin Program After Game.

The time of the Carleton Symphony Band's concert next Saturday evening has been changed from 8:15, as was previously announced, to 8:30 o'clock, so as not to conflict with the Montana-Whitman basketball game which is going to be held at 7:30. The afternoon concert will be held at 3:30 as announced.

Plans have been made by the Montana band to stage a dinner in honor of James R. Gillette, the conductor of the Symphony Band. Mr. Gillette, who organized the Carleton band seven years ago, is an organist, composer, arranger and writer in addition to being conductor of the organization. He has written more than 100 compositions for organ, voice and piano, his four most popular numbers being "Dragon Flies," "Chant d'Amour," "The Rippling Brook" and "From the South."

His cantata, "A Legend of Nacoochie," has been sung by high school choruses throughout America with notable success. "The Organist's Handbook," the only dictionary of organ music published, which Mr. Gillette spent ten years compiling, has been adopted as a standard text book by a great many schools and colleges and is used by over 2,000 organists.

MASQUERS TO PRESENT TWO PLAYS BY WILBUR DANIEL STEELE THURSDAY

University Thespians Choose "Ropes" and "The Terrible Woman" for Next Series of One-Acts.

Two plays representing different types of entertainment will be given at the Little Theatre next Thursday night in "Ropes" and "The Terrible Woman" by Wilbur Daniel Steele.

"Ropes" is a tense, dramatic story of life in a lighthouse on the New England coast. Paul Whalen, his wife, Jenny, and their daughter, Pauline, have been living there for the past seven years. Paul likes the life but Jenny wants to go back to the mainland where there is music, dancing and people. She begins to feel sorry for herself and becomes irritable towards her husband and daughter.

Jim, a government inspector, arrives to look over the lighthouse. He and Paul had been rivals for Jenny and Paul had won out because at the time his prospects seemed better.

Here the old triangle situation comes up with Jenny's old love for Jim coming to life. There follows a sequence of intense scenes done in a manner only Steele can do. Jenny at last finds that the marital ties of seven years duration are only ropes that bind her to her husband and child. The cast follows:

GRIZZLIES MAKE SWEEP OF CONFERENCE GAMES

COUGARS AND VANDALS DOWNED ON HOME FLOORS BY FIGHTING MONTANANS

Rule, Rohlfis, Kilroy, Rankin, and Chinske Attain Equal Honors in Victories.

Montana made a clean sweep of its Pacific coast conference games by smashing the Washington State Cougars last night, 32-23. The Grizzlies pushed over the Idaho Vandals Saturday night by a 29-17 score. These two games and the two played with the same teams on the floor here were all that were scheduled with conference teams, so Montana will not be placed in the final standings, but the Grizzly superiority over teams of high calibre has been clearly shown.

In the WSC game last night Billy Rohlfis was the main cog in the offense, although the whole team was breaking fast and shooting well. Rohlfis was high point man for the contest with 12 points, bringing the Grizzlies out of a 14-14 tie shortly before the half to give them an 18-14 lead. Mel Hein, WSC football star, was the shooting star for the Cougars, making nine of his team's points.

The Montana boys started their Pa-louse invasion with a bang Saturday night when they blew into the Idaho gym and wrecked the hopes of the Vandals for a come-back victory. This is the second victory that the Grizzlies have claimed over the boys from the big potato state and it was even more decisive than the victory which they annexed on their home floor earlier in the season.

The Vandals tried every way to stop the Montana chinook and were only able to check it once at the opening of the second quarter. The Idaho defense was short lived as the Grizzlies regained their scoring streak and finished the game outplaying the men from Moscow in every department. At half time the Grizzlies were leading 18 to 5 and their lead was never threatened.

While Coach Fox of the Idaho aggregation used ten players in each half, Montana finished with the same lineup that started. McMillan, star Idaho forward, held the scoring honors for the Vandals although the Grizzly guards limited him to only three field goals and a free throw.

"Harp" Kilroy and Billy Rohlfis shared the scoring for Montana and for the game with four field goals and a point from the free line for a total of nine points each. This game gave the Grizzlies three victories and no defeats in the Pacific Coast conference.

The lineup and box score:

Whitefish Defeats Collegians in Series

Although the aerial trip of the Presbyterian Collegians to Kallispell was successful the results of the hoop games at Whitefish were not. Friday's game with the high school team was lost 44-23 and the next night a 20-14 loss was marked in the score-book.

The team left here at 3:25 Friday afternoon and arrived in Kallispell one hour and five minutes later. Automobiles carried them to Whitefish to end the trip. On the return made Sunday the cabin plane ran into a snowstorm which delayed them slightly.

The Whitefish team, considered one of the strongest in the northwest part of the state, is composed of young giants. Each man is over six feet tall. They have already beaten North Central high school at Spokane which, last season, had the champion high school team of Washington. Members of the Collegians say that Whitefish will be a contender for the state championship.

Those who made the trip were E. Carer, Percy, Stillings, Clack, Webster, K. Ekegren and Dixon, manager.
