HAMILTON HIGHER EDUCATION CENTER OFFERS SPRING COURSES

MISSOULA —

Registration is now open for spring 2009 courses offered through The Hamilton Higher Education Center, the affiliate of The University of Montana in the Bitterroot Valley.

HHEC will hold a free open house and orientation event for people to explore higher education opportunities in the Bitterroot Valley from 4 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 6, at the Carriage House, located at 310 N. Fourth St. in Hamilton.

Through face-to-face and online courses offered from various schools and colleges within UM, HHEC students can enhance professional skills, complete course work for a degree or attend college for the first time. Spring semester 2009 begins Monday, Jan. 26, and ends Friday, May 15.

Courses are available in accounting, business law, computer modeling, entrepreneurship, anthropology, college writing, psychology and communications. Two graduate-level courses also will be offered: Foundations of Educational Leadership and Strategic Planning for Technology.

Course descriptions, registration and more information are available online at <http://www.umt.edu/hhec> or by calling Jessica Carter of UM Extended Learning Services at 406-243-6496 or e-mailing jessica.carter@umontana.edu.
