UM PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS FREE CONCERT BY CRACKER

MISSOULA—

University of Montana Productions will celebrate its 40th birthday with a free concert by Cracker from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 4, on the UM Oval.

The concert is the organization's thank-you event for the Missoula community and UM students, alumni, faculty and staff for their support during the past four decades.

If it rains, the performance will be moved to the University Center Ballroom.

Cracker, the group that introduced brash irreverence and irony to alt-rock in the 1990s, are back and in top form on their 429 Records debut, "Sunrise in the Land of Milk and Honey." More information about Cracker is online at <http://www.crackersoul.com>.

A free showing of the movie "Land of the Lost" will take place after the concert at 9:30 p.m. on the Oval.

For the past 40 years, UM Productions has been promoting and producing live events, ranging from emerging comics to the Rolling Stones. The Associated Students of UM organization is entirely funded and run by students. UM Productions fulfills its mission by bringing quality entertainment to the campus and community, while providing an experiential learning opportunity for many students who work as coordinators, managers, marketers, stagehands, event staff and office personnel.

Over the years, scores of talented UM Productions staff members have gone on to become very successful in the entertainment industry.
