MONTANA USINGS

THE king of lethargy is back on the campus again; spring with all its attributes of sunshine and warmth permeates ruthlessly the spirit and ambition of the collegiates. Even the pessimistic defenses of a columnist crumble before the irresistible onslaught of spring brightness. After a long winter of despair and privation (not necessarily collegiate) the world is eagerly facing the new opportunities that the spring of 1931 may present to it. Business in general has offered small suggestions of improvement together with a prevalent spirit of optimism and employment.

WITH the coming of spring, campus activities will assume a new and livelier interest. The University has a number of important activities that are annual features of the spring schedule. The foremost and largest is the annual interscholastic track meet which the University sponsors. Soon hundreds of high school students will flock to Missoula to take part in a track meet which is considered one of the largest in the West. Previous to that, however, the University will participate in the national spring pastime of housecleaning by observing the traditional Aber Day. At the same time the students will have the opportunity of selecting candidates for the final elections of the student officers.

ONE change in the constitution of the Associated Students of the University of Montana is contemplated for the spring elections. Upon recommendation of Central Board a revision changing the selection of Kaimin editor from popular vote to appointment by Publications Board will be voted upon. In the past the Kaimin editor has been elected in the customary manner that all the other student officers have been elected. Under the present political system which Montana maintains, usually a number of editorial candidates are presented. The successful aspirant was often elected not upon his qualifications but mostly upon his personal and affiliated popularity. This inherent evil of the present system is hoped to be overcome through an accurate examination of the candidate's qualifications by the Publications Board. If the measure passes Publications Board, composed of the editor of the Kaimin, business manager of the Kaimin, editor of the Sentinel, editor of the Alumnus, editor of the Frontier, the student auditor, two faculty members and two students chosen by Central Board, will select the Kaimin editor each year.

Politicians Must Offer Petitions Before 4 o'Clock

Candidate Names for Student, Class Offices Will Be Disclosed Next Week

"Absolutely no petitions for A. S. U. M. or class offices will be accepted at the A. S. U. M. office in Main hall after 4 o'clock this afternoon, nor will they be accepted before that time, unless accompanied by a certificate of eligibility, and unless they contain the signatures of at least ten active members of the A. S. U. M., and the petitioning candidate," said Bob Hendon, A. S. U. M. business manager, in his final warning to aspirants for student offices, today.

Several petitions were in at the beginning of the week, according to Hendon, and quite a few more have come in since that time. These are in charge of the student auditor at present, but announcement of all petitioning candidates will be made next week.

May Write in Names

In case only one petition is submitted for an office, the student body will be given the opportunity of writing in the name of any eligible member at the primary election, Aber Day. Otherwise the names to be announced next week, will appear on the ballots Aber Day to determine the two final contestants for each office.

Varsity Vodvil Tickets Will Be Placed on Sale Next Thursday Morning

Two Fraternities, Four Sororities and Independent Women Will Present Acts in Annual Show to Be Held Saturday April 18 at Wilma Theater

Tickets for the 1931 Varsity Vodvil, scheduled for a week from tomorrow evening, will be placed on sale beginning next Thursday morning, April 16, continuing through until Saturday night, April 18. They may be obtained at the Wilma booking office, on the second floor of the Wilma building.

Seven acts, survivors of the eliminations held March 7 in the Little Theater, will make up the program, which, advance reports say, will be one of the best in years. Two fraternities, four sororities and the independent women of the University are represented.

Acts for Show

The titles of each act were given out by Manager George Hillman yesterday afternoon for the first time. Alpha Phi will present "Music Time in Tulp Land," Kappa Alpha Theta will give "Vegetable Varieties," Sigma Kappa is to present "Ardent Athletes," or "This Ain't No Bull." "Sweets on Parade" will be given by Delta Gamma and the name of the Independents' act is "Black Face Type." "A Modernistic Jack and the Beanstalk" will be presented by Sigma Chi and Phi Delta Theta will give "Slips Don't Count."

The order in which the acts will be given has not been determined yet. There are four full-stage acts. These four acts will draw for first position on the program, in order that there will be no chance for favoritism being shown any group. The remainder of the places will be assigned by the management of the show.

Ticket Sales

In order that there may be no confusion as regards sale of tickets, no sales will be made except under the following conditions:

1. No tickets will be sold until 10 o'clock, Thursday morning, April 16.
2. No mail orders will be taken.
3. Only downtown business men may phone orders.
4. There will be no limits to the size of the blocks.
5. First there, first served.
6. Tickets reserved by business men over the phone must be paid for by Saturday noon, April 18.

People who are desirous of obtaining good seats are advised to get in touch with friends and send a representative to the Wilma office bright and early Thursday morning, to buy a block. The management will make arrangements for the benefit of those students who are unable to get downtown Thursday morning. It will leave

Montana Masquers Will Present Program of Three One-Act Plays

Harold Shaw, Sophomore, Writes Play Which Appears on Program at Little Theater, Thursday, April 23

Montana Masquers will present three one-act plays at the Little Theater, Thursday evening, April 23. One of these is by Harold Shaw, sophomore of the University.

"A Fool of a Man," by Edward Finnegan, Boston newspaper man is a tragedy-comedy. The scene is laid in New England but the situation is universal. Horace Bundy, central figure, is a simple, middle aged soul, who had married a woman above his station but who had always been merely a plodder sticking simply to a tiresome routine and never realizing any ambitions that he might have had in his youth. An opportunity for partnership in the firm for whom he works comes to him and thus he is faced with the most crucial problem he has ever encountered. Although the play is sentimental rather than obviously dramatic, there is an intensity of feeling and a depth of character portrayal that requires superb acting.

"A Fool of a Man"

Eugene Hunton who plays this part has already revealed his ability and versatility in two other Masquer productions. First, as one of the inmates in the old man's home in "Blind Windows" and last quarter as the clergyman in "Granite."

Those who are cast in "A Fool of a Man" are: Horace Bundy, Eugene Hunton; Mrs. Bundy, Helen Spencer; Eddie, George Long. This play is under the direction of Marian Cline, University senior.

"Marshall"

"Marshall," by Ferenc Molnar, famous Hungarian writer, will be produced for the first time in America by the Masquers. Molnar has written a large number of outstanding successes which have been produced exactly in the three residence halls, at the Main hall telephone booth and in the Student Store. People may sign up on these lists for tickets, providing the money is paid when the list is signed. Persons in charge of these lists will go to the Wilma office the first thing the opening day, along with representatives of other organizations, and by so doing, good seats may be secured.

As formerly, there will be two shows. The first one will begin at 7 o'clock, the second at 9 o'clock. According to the advertising, "seven clever, snappy acts, with over 150 beautiful, alluring, glorious chorus girls," comprise the bill. Over 200 persons will appear in the acts.

Barbs Offer Club's First Social Affair

Novel Dances Will Feature Mixer in Women's Gymnasium Tonight

Arrangements have been completed for the first social affair of the newly organized independents which will be a mixer in the women's gymnasium tonight. Tickets for the dance are still on sale in Main hall. It is expected that all independents will avail themselves of this opportunity to become acquainted with the other members of their organization.

According to Georgia Mae Metten, chairman of the dance committee, the dance promises to be one of the most entertaining mixers that have ever been held. Several novel dances have been arranged on the program as well as entertainment skits. "There will be something doing every minute from 9 until 12," the dance chairman said yesterday, "every independent should be sure to make the most of this opportunity and come to the dance. A good time is guaranteed."

Committee Hears First Reports on Track Meet Work

Tanans and Bear Paws Must Have One Hundred Cars to Handle Transportation Problem

First definite action in the Students' Interscholastic committee campaign for the Twenty-eighth Interscholastic meet got under way yesterday, at the committee's meeting in Dean T. C. Spaulding's office.

At this time, committee and division chairmen reported all progress accomplished to date. Campus decorations, house decorations and publicity committees reported and outlined their plans. Dick Fox, Bear Paw Club Grizzly, and Hazel Borders, adviser of the Tanans, were instructed to begin arranging for cars to be used in transporting contestants. This is one of the main problems facing the committee. Nearly 100 automobiles are used by the Bear Paws and Tanans during Track week, in caring for the visitors.

Publications Board Passes On Petitions

Cooney, Verheek and Overholser Are Recommended to Offices For Next Year

Three recommendations for appointments to student offices were made Wednesday afternoon by the Publications Board. They are as follows: Walter P. Cooney, Missoula, as editor of the 1932 Sentinel; Joel F. Overholser, Fort Benton, as business manager of the 1931-32 Kaimin, and Herbert Verheek, Ogden, Utah, as business manager of the 1932 Sentinel. These recommendations will be acted upon by Central Board at its next meeting.

Cooney, a junior in the School of Journalism, has had considerable experience with year-book work. He was on the staff of the Bitter Root, Missoula County high school annual. Last year he was associate editor of one of the books of the 1930 Sentinel. The past year he has served as associate editor of the Sentinel, under Editor Larry Swanson.

Overholser, also a junior in the School of Journalism, has had considerable experience. For the past two years he has served on the business staff of the Kaimin. He also has had practical experience in newspaper offices.

Verheek, a sophomore in the School of Business Administration, has served the past year as assistant to Wesley Walcott, this year's business manager of the Sentinel.

Other business handled at this meeting of the board was the authorization of Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, to go ahead with the soliciting of local advertising for "Campus Rappings," annual razz sheet which it puts out every Aber Day.

Montana Debate Team Schedules Three Contests

Grant Kelleher, Edward Alexander Will Make Tour of Pacific Coast Universities

Grant Kelleher of Butte and Edward Alexander of Whitehall, both members of the sophomore class, were chosen as a debate team to make a trip to the coast. They will represent the State University in three debates with northwestern universities, May 3, 4 and 5. The tour includes Washington State University, Whitman college and the University of Idaho.

On May 4, the team will go to Moscow, where it will meet the University of Idaho. On May 5, it will meet Washington State college at Pullman, and on May 7, it will meet Whitman college at Walla Walla, Washington. The original tour included the University of Washington, University of British Columbia, University of Oregon and Oregon State college, but these schools have cancelled debate schedules for the remainder of the year. The question debated upon will be: Resolved: That the intervention of the federal government in the wheat situation through the Agricultural Marketing act has been a detriment to the farmer. Montana recently won a debate from Washington State on the negative side of the latter question.

Grant Kelleher and Edward Alexander will leave Missoula on the third of May.

S. O. S. Gives Ovarations to Two Coaches

Farewell to Milburn and Welcome Of Oakes Are Features Of Meeting

Mingling sorrow with enthusiasm, Montana students last night said good-bye to Major Frank W. Milburn, retiring Grizzly coach, and hello to Bernard "Bunny" Oakes, his successor, in the first S. O. S. of 1931, before the steps of Main hall.

"Singing on the Steps," beloved and impressive Montana tradition, started promptly at 7:30 o'clock when Bob Hendon, yell king, called four new men to be tapped Bear Paw, sophomore men's honorary, to replace those who did not return to school this quarter.

The new members of Bear Paw are: Jack Toole, Klippen; August Vidro, Anaconda; Robert Schroeder, Missoula, and Michael Kennedy, Belt.

Archie Grover, co-captain with Emile Perey of Montana's 1931 track team, was the first speaker introduced by Hendon. Predicting a decisive victory over Montana State college this year, Grover concluded his talk and called on Captain Perey, who added to Grover's predictions, and gave a brief account of the work undertaken and completed so far this season by the track squad.

Carl Walker, president of the Associated students spoke of the "Major" and his stay at the University. He then called on Major Milburn for his last public appearance to the student body.

It was with regret that the "Major" said good-bye, but not until he promised that Montana "Would always be his school, and in his opinion the best in the country, next to his alma mater, West Point."

Following Major Milburn's talk, the group remained silent for half a minute, a tribute to the man who has enriched himself in their hearts during his five-year stay at the University as head football coach and commander of the local unit of the R. O. T. C.

"Bunny" Oakes, next introduced by Hendon, made his first appearance as Montana's new coach. Coach Oakes expressed satisfaction with the turnout for spring football practices, and invited the students to watch these workouts from the bleachers whenever possible, during the time he is here.

President C. H. Clapp, in the last talk of the evening said good-bye again to Major Milburn, and welcomed Coach Oakes, when the first stroke of 8 o'clock by the University hall bell halted his talk. The singing of "College Chums" concluded S. O. S.

Committees Are Chosen For Clean-up

Virgil Lockridge, Bob Allen, Henry Brown and John Erickson Are Selected for Committee

Two Aber Day committees were made public yesterday. The High Court committee headed by Virgil Lockridge with Bob Allen as his assistant will have charge of a crew of five men responsible for properties used in High Court procedure and the arrangements of the men's gymnasium for the dance Aber Day night. Henry Brown and John Erickson have charge of all social arrangements and will select the chaperons and music for the dance that night.

Governor J. E. Erickson and Chancellor M. A. Brannon will be invited to attend Aber Day, according to Billy Rohlfis, clean-up day manager.

Everything for Aber Day has been arranged except some minor things which cannot be completed until the last couple of days. The county commissioners have promised three trucks and drivers and are arranging for three more which are at Lolo at present.

The official cars have been chosen, and no other cars will be allowed on the campus. This is a precautionary measure to insure safety to the working students and to eliminate the possibility of wrecks.

Leo Kottas was appointed chief justice of the high court by Phi Delta Phi last week. He will be assisted by Tom Bonner and Russell Smith, associate justices. Wesley Wertz will act as bailiff. Claude Johnson, Eugene Grandey, Cliff Gribble and George Allen will assist in the writing of official documents.

INTERSCHOLASTIC TRACK ATTENDANCE MAY EXCEED 1,000

Many Schools Respond to Bulletins; Entry Blanks, Complimentary Tickets Will Be Mailed This Week; Several Late Applications In Little Theater Contest Refused

More than 1,000 contestants from 140 high schools from every part of Montana will attend the twenty-eighth annual Interscholastic Track meet, to be held in Missoula, May 13, 14 and 15.

Bulletins concerning the meet were mailed out to all high schools

some time ago and since then, inquiries have been numerous, indicating a growing interest in this big Montana classic. Entry blanks were sent out during the past week, according to Dr. J. P. Rowe, head of the Interscholastic committee. All complimentary tickets will be mailed out within the next week.

Interest in Meet

"More interest seems to be shown this year than ever before," Dr. Rowe said yesterday afternoon. "Several schools are planning on sending their representatives by auto. In three or four instances, schools are sending their entire senior classes to Missoula. Interest in the Little Theater tournament this year exceeds all others. With the entry date past, we are still receiving applications for this tournament, which we are obliged to turn down."

Missoula county high school won the 1930 meet with 32 1-3 points. Miles City took second with 24, Butte and Whitefish tied for third with 18, Bellevue, Anaconda, Beaverhead county, Malta, Flathead county and Stevensville being others to break into the scoring columns consistently.

Records Set

Five new records were set last year and one tied. Peden, diminutive speedster from Custer county, tied the record of 10 1-5 seconds in the century, set by Moore of Granite in 1926. In the 220-yard event, he set a new record of 22 3-10 seconds, to break the old mark of 22 3-5 first set by Buck Stowe, Missoula, in 1919, and subsequently equalled by four others.

The record of 17 seconds for the high hurdles, first set by J. Covert of Billings in 1914, to be equalled later by four others, was scrapped last year when Maple of Bellevue stepped them off in 16 1-5. Pat Caven, Custer county, now a member of the frosh squad, reeled off the low hurdles in 26 2-10, to break the record of 26 2-10 seconds set by Cliff Jacobson of Missoula, in 1927.

Milburn and Oakes Are Honored by Missoulians At Dinner Tuesday Night

More Than 300 Attend Football Banquet at Florence Hotel in Honor Of Montana's Past and Present Football Coaches; Set Of Matched Golf Clubs Given to Milburn

Major Frank W. Milburn was paid one of the most wonderful tributes ever offered to anyone by Missoula residents Tuesday night, and at the same time Bernard F. Oakes was welcomed and made to feel that he will receive every bid of aid and cooperation that the town can offer. The occasion was the football dinner given at the Florence hotel by Major Milburn and Bunny Oakes by nearly three hundred friends and football enthusiasts.

As a fitting climax to an evening of praise, the major was presented a set of matched golf clubs, the best set that has ever been seen in Missoula.

Speakers

W. L. Murphy, a former University quarterback, presided as toastmaster, with Coach Milburn on one side of him and Coach Oakes on the other. Washington J. McCormick was the first speaker of the evening, on "The King is Dead, Long Live the King." He sketched for the crowd the great amount of time that an athlete puts in for his school, the strain and worry of keeping up his grades and the small reward that is his if he does not happen to be a star or a letterman. Humorously, he suggested that players be given school credit for their work.

John L. Campbell, representing the "downtown coaches," told of the great interest taken in University athletics by Missoulians, especially old time players, and then introduced the new coach, telling of the impression made by Bunny upon all who had met him. Mr. Oakes was brief in his response, but all present felt his sincerity and desire to produce a team of fighters and sportsmen. He stated that he planned no revolutionary changes, and that he was glad to note the spirit that existed both on the campus and school, turned in what was probably the outstanding work of the meet. When he went 12:10 in the pole vault to better the record of 11 feet 8 1/2 inches set by Maxson of Flathead in 1927 by almost 14 inches.

Varnell Again Starter

George Varnell, sports editor of the Seattle Times, recognized sports authority, and a member of the national committee on football rules, again will serve as starter for the meet. It will be his fifteenth year in this capacity.

Starting blocks will be used in the dashes this spring, for the first time. This will eliminate delay and confusion between heats. As in other years golf and tennis meets again will be held.

Prom Committee Makes Plans for All-School Dance

Annual Junior Prom Will Be Open To All Students This Year, According to Committee

New plans were discussed for Junior Prom but are not specifically definite, the members of the executive committee of Junior Prom said after their meeting Tuesday afternoon in Main hall. The dance will be open to all students in school. This is not, according to the committee, a financial move but a dance to include Alumni, seniors and freshmen. The freshmen were included because many of them do not return and the dance for those students will be a farewell.

Plans for the coronation of the Junior Prom queen will be revised. Her escort will consist of junior, sophomore and freshmen girls.

At the meeting the executive committee arranged the dates for the sub-committee meetings. The dance will be an open air affair, probably to be held somewhere in the country.

Petitions to A.S.U.M. Offices

CANDIDATES for official positions in the government of the Associated Students must turn in their petitions and certificates of eligibility this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Primary elections for offices in both the student organization and in various classes will be held next week or the week after. The holding of Aber Day will determine the exact time of election.

In the last three or four years interest in the petitioning for offices has been so lax as to hardly warrant holding a primary election on Aber Day and a general election later in May. Indications this year point toward an increased interest in a number of students petitioning for offices, but the real proof comes in the vote count on election day.

Offices which will be contested this year are president, vice-president, business manager and secretary of the Associated Students and class offices of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer and Central Board delegate.

As previously announced the Kaimin editor may not be a contested office this year. On Aber Day the revised amendment to the constitution of the appointment of this office will be put to a vote. Through an omission on the ballot last year, this revision did not come to a vote. It should be in effect at present. With its passage on Aber Day, the Kaimin editor will hereafter be appointed.

Although the candidates to the various offices contested will not be known until just before the election, it is not too early to begin campaigning for every student vote on Aber Day. It is the same story for campus politics as for national: the primary election is the most important and has the least out to vote and the most to grumble about the results.

Voting is a privilege that has been fought for in history and it appears to be unappreciated. Let's have an all-campus vote at the elections this year.

Their First Get-Together

STARTING their organization out with a bang, the barbs of the University campus will hold their first social get-together in the women's gymnasium tonight. The dance, an informal mixer, will begin at 9 o'clock, with music of the best, a good floor, and the prophecy of a good crowd to make the occasion one of the best dances of the spring quarter.

In that the organization formed by the barbs last week and named the Associated Non-Fraternity and Non-Sorority Students of the University of Montana, is one of the largest student organizations on the campus, it is natural that all of its members are not well-acquainted with one another, at least not as well known as the members of such a social group should be. It was decided, therefore, that an informal mixer was the best way for all of them to get together and become better acquainted, with a resultant closer working unit than could be obtained among an unacquainted group, no matter under what standards it was organized.

The dance this evening is all that the name implies—an informal mixer. Dates are not necessary, as every barb on the campus as a member of the organization is urged to come and will be welcomed. The informal air that should go with an informal dance will prevail, no doubt, for the interest that has thus far been manifested in the new organization indicates that its first dance will be as successful as its first meeting.

Tickets for the dance are only 25 cents for everyone, man or co-ed, and the fun you will have on that 25 cents will be more than equal that had at any $1 dance of the year. It's a bet!—M. W.

THE UDDLE

Don't forget to remind uncle, dear children, of the one day of the spring quarter when he must arise early. That is the day of the band concert, because uncle wants to go, and must dub his daily round early in the morning so that his afternoon will be free. If he fails to remember to get up early, he must do without his game of golf, because nothing can keep uncle from a band concert. So please remember, children, because your old uncle sometimes becomes a bit confused about things.

It's just as one of our nieces said: "In the spring quarter there are always so many things coming up."

An oversight has caused the night watchman to complain bitterly. The fault lies entirely with uncle, too. He forgot to officially declare the opening of the bleacher season, and the watchman is having a time explaining it on his nocturnal rounds.

Without further ado, children, we hereby declare the bleacher season open and announce a new set of rules.

Rule 1—The Time and Place.

Section 1. There is always a proper time and a proper place.

Sec. 2. The proper time is when the watchman is not around.

Sec. 3. The proper place, when the moon is just peeping over the edge Sentinel, is not in the press box, because silhouettes shall not be displayed.

Rule 2—The Play

Section 1. The length of the game will be as long as possible and it will not be divided into periods unless it is necessary to scratch the back, blow the nose or look around for the night watchman.

Article 1. An explanation must be offered by whichever side first declares intermission, after which the play will resume as soon as possible.

Sec. 2. Teams shall make every effort to avoid interference with another set of players.

Rule 3—Players and Equipment

Section 1. No player shall wear equipment which in the opinion of the officials endangers other players.

Sec. 2. No player shall be barred because of speed, color of eyes or hair, or former condition of servitude.

Article 1. Blondes preferred, however.

Rule 4—Eligibility for Amateur Competition

Section 1. Juniors will be entered as amateurs. Freshmen will, with the sophomores, be entered as professionals.

Article 1. Seniors are ineligible because they should know better.

Rule 5—Penalties

Section 1. The only penalty is getting caught, or getting one of the players home late.

Disillusionment

There's a certain fascination To a grove of trees at night, A queer hallucination That puts reasoning to flight. You seldom feel On even keel Beneath the moon's deceiving light.

You think her eyes are pretty blue, Her figure rates okay You're sure at last, here's something new, A love that's going to stay. But your mistake Comes when you take A look at her in light of day.

Disillusioned, then you stage A daylight love affair To find by night, your daytime rage Is more than you can bear. You say adieu And swear that you Have changed to bachelor then and there.

You woman-hate for just a week Before you tire of men, Unwillingly, then you seek To do some willing wren. And find that night The moon's pale light Has forced you back in love again.

Psychologist Speaks Here On April 27

Ruckmick, Iowa Professor, Speaks On Facial Expression in Emotion

Christian A. Ruckmick, eminent psychologist, will be in Missoula, April 27, at which time he will give an illustrated talk at University Main hall on "Facial Expression in Emotion." Dr. Ruckmick, who is professor of psychology and director of the psychological research laboratory at the University of Iowa, Iowa City, has spent the greater part of his time for the past several years in making detailed researches into the field of emotion. His stay at Missoula, sponsored by the University Department of Psychology, will be made while on a lecture tour of western states. Dr. Ruckmick is considered by fellow psychologists as the ultimate authority on his subject.

Dr. Ruckmick's talk at this time is especially timely, as there is a widespread interest at present in the study of facial expression in relation to emotion, trying to co-relate the two. The study is valuable in matters of social control and in gaining a better understanding of personality, by being able to interpret emotions by facial expression. "Points which will be discussed by Dr. Ruckmick at his lecture here on April 27 may be used to advantage in the carrying on of daily business, or in daily contacts," according to Professor F. O. Smith, head of the Department of Psychology at the University. Dr. Ruckmick, who is a graduate of Amherst and gained his Ph.D. at Cornell, has conducted actual tests in his research laboratory at Iowa University.

The talk will be held at Main hall of the University, 8:15 p. m., with an admission of 25 cents. Tickets will be on sale by April 20, and may be bought either at Main hall at that time or at the door.

Razz-Diggers

Campus dirt is now being cleaned up from all parts of the campus. Be on your watch for the dirt chasers. The Theta Sigs are dashing around with open eyes and ears in search of more filth to be published in their annual Campus Ravings, razz sheet, on Aber Day.

The dirt done is done and the time is coming when a fervorous hilarity, will zoom upon all the students unaware of such dirt spilt during the year.

Doubtless many students will not rest till these small yellow sheets full of razz are set before the eyes of all guilty offenders of the past year. Campus Ravings will be a razzing good sheet this Aber Day, so hope for the best.

SPRING QUARTER DIRECTORY SUPPLEMENT IS PUBLISHED

New and former students not in attendance the school year, 1930-31 and entering the spring quarter have been arranged in the following directory form by the registrar's office. The information is the same as was in the student directory for the autumn quarter and includes the names, alphabetically listed, the home addresses, majors, ranks, Missoula addresses and telephone numbers of the students. The registrar's office suggests that you paste this list in the back of your student directory for the autumn quarter, making it complete for the year.

Football Players Show For Tryouts on Gridiron Under Oakes' Tutelage

First Day of Spring Practice Sees Thirty-Odd Candidates in Uniforms
In Answer to Call of Bunny Oakes; New Coach Asks
For Players, Experienced or Not

Thirty-odd men have been cavorting about on Dornblaser field during the past week, answering the call of Bunny Oakes and his staff for football candidates. The new coach started work in earnest on Tuesday, driving the men just enough to take the winter's kinks out of their muscles and to put some new ones in. No lengthy scrimmages will be held for some time yet, most of the attention at present being paid to conditioning the players.

Hard Work
The tackling dummies have been taking lots of punishment all week as the candidates smacked them with worlds of vigor, if not with mid-season form. Joints and muscles that have been used very little during the winter months have been called into play again as the men have shown their tackling ability on each other. Two former Grizzlies worked with the coaching in pointing out the errors the men were making these first few days. Jimmy Morrow and Ted Mellinger have been cut there in suits, getting into the work in earnest. Bunny Oakes has worked with everyone, going down the line and taking each man separately. Major Milburn and Harry Adams cannot be distinguished from the players as they dive for the men or the tackling dummy, rolling on the turf with the rest of them.

Few Lettermen
Among the men who are sweating away at fall work in spring weather are Benson, Botzenhardt, Breen, Brown, Burns, Caven, Cosper, Crowley, Cox, Cooney, Castor, Currie, Daily, Davidson, Dahlberg, Disbrow, Dwyer, Eckley, Fox, Evenson, Hinman, Soenke, Shaw, Thompson, Thrallkill, Vidro, Vickerman, Wilson, Williams, Wilcox and Prather.

Once again Coach Oakes sends a call for more candidates, whether experienced or not.

Mrs. Robert Warden and Mrs. Ted Hodges of Great Falls, graduates of the University, are visitors in Missoula. They will remain as visitors for their parents for several weeks.

Marguerite Brown and Dorothy Hannifan went to Butte for the weekend.

FORE FOUR!
Happy Hippy Harper Hailed for Hole-in-One
Attention Mr. Ripley! We have all heard yarns of finding golf balls in crow's nests or a cow's ear but Hazel Harper, Montana co-ed, should be awarded an honorary membership in the hole-in-one club for a very spectacular freak drive made yesterday on the University golf course.
The lady golfer, playing with a foursome of her chums, drove off the first tee landing the ball in one of her chum's jacket pocket 50 yards down the fairway. Before bouncing into the pocket, the ball hit the shoe of the young lady—Margaret McKay by name—who must be credited with part of the beautiful shot.
Johnny Lewis, official caddy and scorer for the foursome, is the witness for the uncanny shot. The two other young women in the party were Billy Nash and Ruth Wallace.

Time Trials Will Be Run By Trackmen

Varsity and Frosh Athletes Will Run Against Clock Saturday Afternoon

First time trials for both Varsity and freshmen members of the track team will be run Saturday afternoon. For the past two days the athletes have been working hard and galloping through odd distances for conditioning purposes. The Varsity and frosh will run together Saturday.

Alvy Cosper, mammoth frosh shot-putter, yesterday moved his 257 pounds from the nine-foot circle to the spring football practice on Dornblaser field. Coach Oakes could find no suit to fit the large fellow, but "Doc" Schreiber, head of the Department of Physical Education, offered substitute in a pair of baseball pants. Cosper in spite of his size can run the 100-yard dash in less than 11 seconds. He will try for a position in the line.

Several of the jumpers are suffering from "charley horses," a rather painful muscle strain prevalent in track men during early season.
Clarence Watson, fast sophomore miler, whirled around the track yesterday afternoon to lead the field. Blakeslee, a natural two-miler and a varsity veteran, spurred on the last 200 yards to run an untimed but apparently fast mile run.

Hi-Jinx Manuscript Prize Will Be Given

Manager Michael Kennedy Announces Twenty-five Dollar Award

Twenty-five dollars will be paid to the writer, or writers, of the manuscript accepted for the 1931 Hi-Jinx, according to Michael Kennedy, next year's manager.

All manuscripts must be submitted to Kennedy before the close of this quarter, but as yet no definite date has been set. The time limit for submitting the manuscripts will be announced in next Friday's Kaimin.

Hi-Jinx, all-University razz show, changed this year to a musical comedy, proved to be a big success. Curtis Barnes was the author of the show, which was entitled "A Million for a Man." Miriam Barnhill directed the production.

In a Fish Brand Slicker you're always Under Cover

POURING cats and dogs. Class at nine o'clock. Will you arrive wilted and forlorn—or dry and well-groomed?
For this occasion and hundreds of others like it, a Fish Brand Varsity Slicker is indispensable.
Roomy, comfortable and absolutely water-proof, it protects you, clear down to the cuff of your trousers, as thoroughly as if you went all the way under cover. Full-lined, too, for warmth on blustery days. Built with wear-resisting sturdiness.
There is a wide range of Tower's Fish Brand models. Send for illustrated folder. A. J. Tower Company, 24 Simmons St., Boston, Mass.

CINDER CHATTER

At last this fella Sol has decided to give Jock Stewart and his boys a break. From now on there is going to be plenty of action on Dornblaser field.

Bob White, who did some sensational running while at Butte High, is going to make it plenty tough for the boys who run the half mile.

The list of freshman track candidates reads like a potential gathering of Olympic Stars and if they can hurdle the grades there will be plenty of material for next year.

Among those who are turning out for their first year of varsity track are: John Bills, E. Covington, Kermit Eckley, Tom Lowe, Jack White, Elton Good, Bob White, Clarence Watson, A. Glenn, J. Baty, R. Flint, J. Gans, Al Dahlberg, Dave Rossiter and Tom Rowe.

It is less than a month till the first meet and with the present material Coach Stewart is going to make it plenty interesting for a few coaches west of Missoula.

The track schedule for this year is as follows: Class Meet, Missoula, May 1-2; Triangular Meet, Spokane, May 9; State Intercollegiate Meet, Missoula, May 16; University of Idaho, Missoula, May 23; Conference Meet, Seattle, May 29-30.

Don Stevingson, Emile Perey, Archie Grover, George Grover, Hugh Lemire, Bob Nelson and Harold Ruth are among the veterans who will compete for the last time in intercollegiate track.

Washington State defeated Idaho and Whitman in a triangular track meet last Saturday by a score of 87 1-6 points to the Vandal's 57 5-6 and Whitman's 13. The Cougar tracksters captured eight firsts and tied for another, while Idaho copped five and a tie for one.

The Twenty-Eighth Annual Interscholastic meet will be held this year May 13-16. This gathering of high school athletes is today the second largest in the United States.

The record for the low hurdles was broken last year by Pat Caven, who covered the sticks in 26.2. This record was formerly held by Cliff Jacobson of Missoula at 26 1-2.

Dr. Turney-High Speaks to Press Club Wednesday

Sociology Teacher Ranks Newspaper As Quasi-Institution With Social Traits

Dr. Harry Turney-High, professor of Economics and Sociology, was featured on the program of the Press club meeting held in the Shack, Wednesday night with a talk on the "Newspaper as a Social Institution." Dr. Turney-High stated that a social institution must have, structure, permanence, personnel, authority, purpose and codes, laws and regulations.
According to Professor Turney-High the newspaper may or may not be a social institution. He classified the newspaper as a quasi-institution. Many purposes are accomplished by the newspaper as such an institution. Dr. Turney-High said these benefit every possible field of life today, principal among these being social, criminal, economic, political and educational.
The meeting was closed by a one-act skit presented by members of the junior class. The play was "Murder at Bridge," featuring Pat Regan and Jerry Alquist as Mr. and Mrs. Brown and Freda McCaig and Fred Steiner as Mr. and Mrs. Jones. A news story contest on the events of this play was held and the prize was awarded to Betty Foot for the best written story. Thomas Mooney presided over the meeting.

Dean Receives Work Of Former Student

G. L. Dally, ex-'24, Sends Bulletin To Dean T. C. Spaulding

Dean T. C. Spaulding of the School of Forestry is in receipt of a Forest Service Bulletin which was written by George Lee Dally, ex-'24, once a student in the School of Forestry here and now district forester at Bartow, Florida.

The bulletin, composed of 40 pages, is named "Suggested Conservation Programs." It gives numerous suggestions for programs to be used in women's, garden, civic and service clubs, schools and other organizations. Included in its pages are recitations, poems, songs, playlets and games.

Dear Folks:
Well, my golf game is improving. I found I could buy 50c balls at $4.00 a dozen, so I can take a greater chance with my strokes. I was always afraid they would go over Mount Sentinel and I never would find them. Do come in and see these new bags and clubs.
Very truly,
CHUCK.

Twenty-four Enter Golf Tournament

Student-Faculty Competition Opens Spring Golf Schedule on University Course

Student-Faculty golf tournament will be played Sunday, April 12, as scheduled, on the University course. Twenty-four contestants have entered for matched play. This tourney is the opener for a number of competitive matches which are scheduled throughout the spring quarter.

It has been decided that the score will be figured as one point for the first nine holes, one point for the second nine and also a point for the total number of points. Each match will count one point for the team side. The total score of each team will be figured and the winner decided by this method.

Those who have been matched and officially entered are: M. Wedum-Kirk Badgley, R. Lewon-J. W. Stewart, D. Fitzgerald-Harry Adams; R. Flint-G. D. Shallenberger; J. Dahlin-W. E. Maddock; Bob Davis-Darrell Parker; J. Mayland-J. H. Ramskill; W. Smith-J. Crowder; R. Struckman-I. W. Cook; A. Johnson-W. R. Ames; B. Hendon-T. C. Spaulding and J. Speer-J. P. Rowe.

It has been requested that all students listed get in touch with their opponents and arrange for the time of play, which must be on Sunday, April 12. Scores will be turned in immediately after the match.

Harry Adams, director of intramural sports, said today that all students who have been picked as four-some managers for their departments get their teams selected for the opening of the inter-college matches which will begin on Wednesday, April 15. The names of their men must be turned into Mr. Adams not later than Tuesday evening.
