Among the first events on campus during Homecoming week will be a UM office and residence hall decorating contest Wednesday, Oct. 7, and a Homecoming buffet from 5 to 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 8, at the Food Zoo, located in the Lommasson Center. The buffet is open to the public and costs $9.50.

Receptions and open houses that are free and open to the public will be held Friday around campus, and class reunions will take place during the weekend at various community and campus locations.

The College of Visual and Performing Arts will hold a reception from 4 to 5:30 p.m. Friday in the Performing Arts and Radio/Television Center lobby to celebrate the college’s name change from the School of Fine Arts. "Gershwin & Friends," a benefit concert by mezzo soprano Michelle Berger for the Esther England funds, will take place from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Friday in the Music Recital Hall.
