LEARN BIODIESEL FUNDAMENTALS AT FREE WORKSHOP

MISSOULA –

The University of Montana College of Technology and the Montana State University-Northern Bio-Energy Center will offer a two-day workshop on biofuels at the COT West Campus in Missoula on Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 3-4.

“The ABCs of Biodiesel,” an introductory workshop in the fundamentals of biofuels, will meet from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. each day. The event is free and open to the public, but space is limited and registration is required.

Workshop participants will receive an introduction to biofuels, learn about the chemistry of biodiesel production and lab scale biodiesel production, and see biodiesel demonstrations.

For more information or to register, call Jenny Gorsegner at 406-243-7916 or e-mail jennifer.gorsegner@umontana.edu.
