Central Board Minutes
April 28, 1955

The meeting was called to order by Pres. Don Chaney in the Lodge. The minutes were read and approved. Chaney reminded the Board that today is All-University Day.

PUBLICITY-TRAVEL
The Grizzly Growlers are painting county signs for the picnic on the oval. There will also be a table with printed material on the University and a display similar to last year's in the registration room.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE
The Central Board party was changed to May 15, at O'Hares, due to Mothers Day on May 8. The banquet for new and old members will be Thursday evening May 5.

PUBLICATIONS BOARD
Gaughan moved acceptance of the Publications Board recommendation of the appointment of Portia Breitenstein, Charlene Mudd, and Marcia Smith as Sentinel associate editors. Seconded by Bachman, Passed.

Kay Blazsek, new Sentinel business manager, has appointed Camie Peterson as her advertising manager. An associate editor and an assistant editor will be appointed next fall.

SWIMMING AWARDS
Gaughan moved acceptance of the athletic department's recommendations for swimming awards, after examining the participation records of the swimmers. It was seconded by Bachman and passed unanimously.

ICE RINK
Gaughan reported that there had not been an ice rink committee meeting for a month, but that the main worries at that time were: the condition of the ice, the size of the rink, and the lack of University students' attendance.

AMENDMENTS
Gaughan suggested that Central Board members should campaign for the amendments. Nicholson was appointed to set up the teams, which are to go around Monday night.

STORE BOARD
Eyer explained that little has been done to the inability of the committee to meet. He said that either a special meeting of the corporation or a special student vote would be necessary to change anything. He said he hoped to get a meeting before the last meeting of this Central Board.

AMENDMENT ON FACULTY
DeForth suggested that as long as the President would not be able to give Central Board the information it had requested before the end of the group's term, that the Board definitely state its wishes. Leuthold moved to recommend an amendment to the new Central Board. Gaughan seconded the motion. Eyer amended the motion to delete the phrase, "recommend to the new Central Board," DeForth seconded the motion, and the amendment was defeated 6-3. Leuthold's motion passed 7-0. DeForth then moved to recommend the following motion to the new Central Board, to strike the constitutional provision "faculty members" and substitute "two non-voting faculty advisers with four-year terms (alternating), chosen by the President after consultation by Central Board with the President." The motion passed 8-0, with one abstention. Refer to Eyer's original proposal.
To show Central Board the difference between today's group and the old Central Boards, Eyer read the minutes of Central Board under William Jameson.

LETTER FROM KARLIN
DeForth read a letter from Karlin protesting the condition of the tennis courts. Gaughan moved that a committee be appointed to look into the possibility of taking care of the tennis courts. DeForth seconded the motion. It passed unanimously. The committee will include DeForth, Ryan.

BUDGET-FINANCE
All the provisions except that of the Kaimin were tentatively accepted by Central Board with majority votes.

Discussion:

Athletics—Bachman explained that the change had been made due to the fact that the agreement on the Field House pledged 50 per cent, and thus 2 per cent had been taken from accounting, and put in athletics with the stipulation that it be used for accounting purposes, so that the definite 50 per cent would appear to be given for athletics. Then, if the third pledge on the bonds were required, our accounting would show 50 per cent given to athletics already, and no more could be taken.

It was also suggested that the ski coach be appointed before the last Central Board meeting of spring quarter, so that he could be of some use in planning a full program.

Band—Equipment—Bachman explained that the band equipment fund was set on the basis that the Music School provide, over a period of four years, equal funds to buy equipment, primarily marching band equipment.

Kaimin—there was considerable discussion on the heavy ad load the Kaimin has to carry to meet expenses. It was suggested that Budget and Finance reconsider the Kaimin and try to give it more money. The group unanimously approved the suggestion.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Present: Chaney, Leuthold, Dundas, Bachman, Hellinger, Moholt, Erickson, Lambros, Abbott, Wunderlich, Crippen, Gaughan, O'Hare, Nicholson, Ever, Atkinson

Respectfully submitted,

Shirley DeForth
ASMSU Secretary
Associated Students

of

Montana State University

CONSTITUTION
Preamble

This association, composed of the students of the Montana State University, exists for the control of all matters of general student concern.

Article I

Name and Membership

Sec. 1. The name of this organization is the "Associated Students of Montana State University."

Sec. 2. All registered students of Montana State University who have paid the activity fees as set forth in the By-Laws or have arranged for their deferment are active members of ASMSU.

Sec. 3. A student shall remain an active member only so long as he is registered or is entitled to receive credit in the term for which he is registered.

Article II

Association Government

Sec. 1. The government and activities of the association shall be carried on through, (1) the association as a whole with a general governing body known as Central Board, (2) the particular class organizations as integral units of the association, (3) special and standing committees as hereinafter provided for, (4) and any other associated organization that may from time to time be deemed necessary by the association.

Sec. 2. The association may also cooperate with independent student groups in common interests. Such cooperation of itself shall not impose any financial responsibility on the association.

Sec. 3. Each class organization may provide for its own government subject to the general regulation of Central Board.

Sec. 4. The associated organizations may enact their own constitutional government.
Article III
Official Positions

Sec. 1. The official positions of the association shall be all of the elective positions. These shall include, (1) officers of the association as a whole, (2) class representatives to Central Board, (3) ASMSU elective representatives to all associated organizations, (4) class officers.

Article IV
Officers

Sec. 1. The officers of this association shall be president, vice-president, business manager and secretary.

Sec. 2. The president shall preside at the meeting of the association and shall be ex-officio chairman of Central Board, and of the Athletic Board. He shall be the official representative of the association.

Sec. 3. The order of succession of the office of presidency in the absence of the president shall be the vice-president, secretary, and business manager.

Sec. 4. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings and shall carry on the official correspondence of the association, and of Central Board. A duplicate copy of the minutes of each meeting shall be immediately filed with the president of the University, one faculty member of Central Board and the student auditor.

Sec. 5. The business manager shall have charge of all entertainments, functions and business of ASMSU not awarded to committees as outlined in the constitution. He shall have such further duties as are enumerated in Article X, Sec. 6.

Sec. 6. Qualifications: (1) president and vice-president must have attended Montana State University seven quarters and must have at least 90 quarter credit hours at the time of election, (2) business manager and secretary must have attended Montana State University five quarters and must have at least 60 quarter credit hours at the time of election, (3) should the University term be changed the nearest equivalent to the above qualifications shall control.

Article V
Central Board

Sec. 1. All affairs and activities of ASMSU shall be under the control and supervision of Central Board.

Sec. 2. All meetings of Central Board shall be open to the general student body, except as where otherwise provided for.

Sec. 3. The board shall be composed of the following members: (1) president, vice-president, secretary and business manager of ASMSU, (2) two faculty representatives, (3) a member of the Alumni Association selected by that association provided that such member shall not be one of the two faculty representatives designated above; in the event that the Alumni Association fails to appoint a representative by the first meeting of Central Board in the fall, the alumni member shall be chosen by the remaining members of the board, (4) the freshman and sophomore classes, at the time of the regular election in the spring, shall each elect a representative to the board who will sit for two years. The junior class shall elect a representative who will sit for one year; candidates must be members of the class they represent according to credits, at least two quarters of the year for which they seek election; not later than four weeks after the beginning of actual school work of fall quarter, the incoming freshman class shall elect by ballot in the regular fall freshman election a representative to Central Board who shall serve until the installation of newly elected officers following the regular spring elections, (5) the Kaimin editor, president of AWS, chairman of Traditions Board, and the auditor of ASMSU shall also sit on the Board. Additional non-voting positions may be created by a 2/3 vote of Central Board.

Sec. 4. Each member of the board shall have one vote with the exception of those designated in the present Article V, Sec. 3, Clause 5. The president shall vote only in case of a tie or when necessary to constitute a quorum.

Sec. 5. Seven voting members of the board shall constitute a quorum. This provision shall include the chairman.

Sec. 6. A star chamber session of Central Board may be called by a 2/3 vote of Central Board.

Sec. 7. All actions, recommendations or decisions of any committee shall be subject to the approval, modification or rejection of Central Board.

Sec. 8. Any member of the board who is for any reason unable to attend the meetings may be removed by the action of 2/3 of the remaining members of the Board.

Sec. 9. Central Board may enact by-laws at any meeting by a majority vote.

Sec. 10. It shall be the duty of Central Board to interpret this constitution. Where this constitution should but does not control a given question, Central Board shall submit an amendment at the earliest opportunity, and may regulate the matter in the interim.

Article VI

Committees

Sec. 1. The activities and interests of ASMSU shall be handled in the first instance through the following standing committees, subject to the supervision and approval of Central Board: (1) Budget and Finance Committee, (2) Athletic Board, (3) Publications Committee, (4) Debate and Oratory Committee, (5) Traditions Committee, (6) Social Committee, (7) Outside Entertainment, (8) "M" Book Committee, (9) Convocations Committee and (10) any other standing committee which Central Board shall deem necessary for the administration of ASMSU.
Sec. 2. The activities and interests of ASMSU in the Student Union Building shall be represented through the Student Union Executive Committee.

Sec. 3. The president of ASMSU shall be chairman of the Athletic Board; the business manager shall be chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee; the vice-president shall be chairman of the Social Committee. All other chairmen of the standing committees enumerated in Sec. 1. of this article shall be appointed by Central Board.

Article VII

Elections

Sec. 1. Only active members, as defined in Article 1, are eligible to hold any official or appointive position, or to vote in any ASMSU election. No person shall hold or be a candidate for two official positions as enumerated in Article 3.

Sec. 2. For class representatives a member shall vote in that class of which he is a member according to credits for two quarters of the regular school year. It shall require a majority of the votes cast for a given position to effect the election of any candidate.

Sec. 3. A primary election shall be held between April 15 and April 30 inclusive. The final election shall be held between May 1 and May 5, provided that it shall be held at least five days after the primary election. The primary shall be held within six weeks after the beginning of actual work fall quarter, at the call of the president of ASMSU, and the final shall be not more than two weeks later.

Sec. 4. Each candidate for an official petition must be nominated by a petition bearing his own signature and at least 15 other signatures of active members qualified to vote for that candidate. Such petition shall be filed with the student auditor. Closing filing date shall be April 7 for the spring elections, and the Friday preceding the week of the primary for the fall freshman elections and special elections. If an above date is not a school day, the closing date shall be the first school day following. Spring election petitions shall be validated by Central Board not later than April 12, and other petitions on the Monday of the week in which the primary is held.

Sec. 5. All voting shall be according to the Australian ballot system, and the names of the candidates shall appear on the ballot in alphabetical order. Voting shall be in charge of a special committee appointed by the president of ASMSU and approved by Central Board. Electioneering is prohibited at the polling place. Each voter must show his ASMSU activity card as identification before being permitted to vote, and such cards will be checked with the names on the voting roster.

Sec. 6. The student body shall be given the opportunity of writing in their choice for each office at the primary. The two who receive the highest number of votes in the primary and are eligible and consent to be candidates shall be nominated and voted on in the final election even though one candidate has received a clear majority.

Sec. 7. Officers shall be installed immediately after election. Officers shall hold office until their successors are installed.

Sec. 8. Failure by the incumbent of any association position, elective or appointive, to comply with the qualifications for active membership set forth in Article I, Sec. 3, shall be deemed to create a vacancy in that position.

Sec. 9. Central Board shall call a special election by secret ballot to fill a vacancy in any elective position within three weeks after the vacancy occurs. Petition rules are enumerated.

Sec. 10. The freshman class shall elect temporary officers at a general meeting called by the president of ASMSU at the close of freshman week.

Sec. 11. The names of all Candidates shall be published in the Kaimin immediately after the validation of petitions by Central Board, and the names of all nominees shall be published immediately after the primary. Notice of all closing filing dates and election dates, excepting the date of the spring primary, shall be conspicuously given in the Kaimin. Notice of special elections shall be given at least twice.

Article VIII
Impeachment

Sec. 1. Any ASMSU officer, student representative to Central Board, or any class officer may be impeached. Impeachment proceedings may be instituted by a petition to Central Board signed by ten per cent of those eligible to vote for that position.

Sec. 2. Central Board shall appoint a committee of three to hear impeachment charges instituted as provided above. The personnel of this committee and the proceedings thereunder shall be provided for in the by-laws. If the committee recommends removal from office and this recommendation is confirmed by a 2/3 vote of all voting members of Central Board, not including the officer impeached, the officer shall be removed from office.

Article IX
Meetings

Sec. 1. The association shall meet upon call of the president of Central Board.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the president of Central Board to call a meeting of the association upon petition of any 75 members.

Sec. 3. A notice stating the time and place shall be published in the Kaimin at least three University days before such meeting, provided that Central Board may call such meeting to be held on shorter notice by declaring an emergency;
in that event the notice may be posted on the official University bulletin board.
Article X

Finance

Sec. 1. The association shall be supported and maintained by funds derived from the following sources: (1) student activity fees, (2) receipts from all entertainments, activities and benefits conducted under the supervision of the association, (3) any proceeds received from its associated organizations, (4) donations.

Sec. 2. All net profits over and above reasonable reserves for operations made by any associated organization created to carry on association interests shall inure to the association at the end of each fiscal year. The manager of the organization shall, subject to the approval of Central Board, determine the operating reserve needed for the organization.

Sec. 3. The fees, donations and receipts from whatever source are to be used only for purposes of the association under the direct supervision of the Budget and Finance Committee and the student auditor. However, no incumbent of any official position of the association shall receive any salary or compensation by virtue of that position; no part of such funds shall inure to any member of this association or individual, provided however that the Budget and Finance Committee, with the approval of the student auditor, may in their discretion authorize a reasonable compensation for work or labor done, or material furnished.

Sec. 4. Any funds remaining in any association account at the end of the fiscal year shall be transferred to the Student Reserve Fund Corporation, as soon as reasonable accounting permits, provided that as to the balance in any particular account the Budget and Finance Committee may authorize it be carried over from year to year.

Sec. 5. A salaried auditor appointed by the president of the State University shall have general advisory powers on all matters concerning finance. The responsibility and duties of the auditor shall be: (1) to serve on Central Board and all of its committee in an advisory capacity, where finances are involved, (2) to enforce ASMSU Constitutional and By-law provisions in regard to finances, (3) to have complete responsibility for keeping satisfactory financial records, (4) to provide financial reports or information upon request, (5) to prepare or to have prepared an annual report covering financial transaction of all organizations and activities subject to the supervision of the student auditor and (6) the business manager of ASMSU shall be chairman of the Budget and Finance Committee and shall be financial manager of all ASMSU funds; he shall also be custodian of all property of ASMSU, subject to the direction of Central Board, provided that any individual or organization receiving ASMSU property at the direction of Central Board shall be the custodian thereof and responsible for its safekeeping; any property or funds belonging to this organization on the day of dissolution shall go to the Montana State University.

Article XI
Amendments

This constitution may be amended by ballot in either the primary or final election of spring quarter. Such proposed amendment, shall be submitted to vote by a majority approval of Central Board, or by a petition of fifteen per cent of the active members of ASMSU. Forty per cent of active members must vote, and 2/3 of those voting thereon must approve in order for the amendment to pass.

The proposed amendment or amendments shall be published in the Kaimin in at least two issues a week of the two weeks prior to voting. A special meeting of ASMSU, to discuss the amendment, may be called under the provisions of Article 9.

Article XII
Special Enactment

Sec. 1. This Constitution shall go into effect when the members of the 1939-40
Central Board take office in the spring quarter of 1939. It shall repeal and replace all existing Constitutions.

Article XIII

ASMSU Planning

Sec. 1 Central Board is empowered to enact special by-laws which may override Article 6, and to liberally interpret Article 11, section 3, when necessary for the purpose of effectuating governmental reorganization. On petition of ten per cent of the active members of ASMSU, an immediate student vote shall be called to determine whether any such by-law shall remain in force. All by-laws enacted under this section will expire on May 5, 1955.

Sec. 2. A committee, known as ASMSU Planning Committee, is established for the purpose of making long-range structural and constitutional plans for co-ordination of ASMSU activities. The committee will recommend appropriate action on such plans to Central Board.

Sec. 3. Article 12 will expire on May 5, 1955.
By-Laws

Division I

Article I

The student activity fee of ASMSU shall be thirty dollars ($30.00) which is payable in three quarterly installments of ten dollars ($10.00) at the time of registration each quarter.

Article II

The apportionment of the regular activity fee is the responsibility of Central Board upon recommendation of the Budget and Finance Committee. (At present of the original fee of $15.00, 15% goes to the Sentinel, 5.8% to the Kaimin, 48.5% to athletics and budgeted appropriations to the band, debate, oratory, minor sports, women's athletics, classes, ASMSU committees, reserve fund, and the balance for administration.)

Article III

Every active member of the ASMSU shall be entitled to one copy of the Sentinel, provided that he or she has been active for three quarters or has made an equivalent cash deposit for those quarters he or she has not been in attendance.

Article IV

Sec. 1. The permanent freshman elections shall be held upon the call of the president of ASMSU six weeks after the beginning of actual work in fall quarter. Sec. 2. In the election of permanent officers, the election procedure for the regular spring elections including a primary and run off, held not more than two weeks apart, shall be followed. Voting, both for the class officers and class representatives to Central Board shall be by ballot. Each candidate shall file petitions with the student auditor not later than the Saturday noon preceding the primary election, signed by at least twenty qualified members of the freshman class in addition to his own signature. These petitions shall be validated by 12 Central Board prior to the primary election.

Sec. 3. Only those members of the freshman class who will be freshmen according to credits for two quarters of the regular school year shall be qualified to vote in the freshman elections.

Sec. 4. Regularly enrolled freshmen students shall exercise the privilege of voting for the four general ASMSU officers only after they are duly organized; such organization shall include the election of permanent class officers.

Article V

In case of a vacancy of officers of the association as a whole, or of class representatives to associated organizations, a special meeting of the association or of the class affected will be called by the Central Board. Nomination will be made from the floor and voting will be by secret ballot, the person receiving the largest number of votes to duly fill the vacancy, provided that at least 20 per cent of the members of the association or class affected vote, or, at the discretion of Central Board, an election patterned after the regular ASMSU election be held. A special committee appointed by Central Board will count the ballots. In filling a vacancy of a class representative to Central Board, those students who are members of that class according to credits for two quarters of the current regular school year, shall be entitled to vote.

Article VI

The nominations of candidates for any vacancy of the class officer of president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer will be made from the floor providing that the qualifications set forth in Article VII, Sec. II of the Constitution have been fulfilled; that each candidate nominated is present in person at the time of his nomination; and that at least 15 % of the members of that class vote. Voting will be by secret ballot and the candidate receiving the largest number of votes shall duly fill the vacancy. In filling a vacancy in a class office, those students who are members of that class according to credits for two quarters of the current regular school year, shall be entitled to vote.
Article VIII
Impeachment
(See Constitution Article VIII, Sec. 2)

This committee shall be composed of one faculty member and two student members, none of whom shall be members of Central Board.

Article IX

Sec. 1. To determine eligibility of candidates for class officers and representatives, 15 hours per quarter, the normal student load, shall be used as a basis for estimated future credits earned. Possible attendance at future summer sessions shall not be taken into consideration.

Sec. 2. To be eligible as a candidate for class office or representative the student must have as a minimum the following credits at the end of spring quarter in which he is a candidate, including the credits for which he is currently registered: sophomore class office—30 credits; junior class office—75 credits; senior class office—120 credits.

Article X

Candidates for membership on Store Board are subject to special qualifications provided in the Store Board corporation charter and by-laws.

Article XI

In addition to the qualifications required by Central Board for ASMSU offices all women candidates shall be further subject to those qualifications required by the Associated Women Students.
Division II

Article I

ASMSU Committees

Sec. 1. All ASMSU committees are responsible to Central Board for their actions.

Sec. 2. The chairman of each committee shall present a written report of the activities of his committee to the secretary of ASMSU at a date not later than the Saturday preceding the closing date of each quarter in which the committee is active.

Article II

Athletic Board

Sec. 1. Membership — This board shall consist of two faculty members who shall be the chairman of the Faculty Athletic Committee and the Director of Athletics, three student members of Central Board who shall be the president of ASMSU (ex-officio chairman), the secretary and the business manager of ASMSU, three additional student members appointed by the president of ASMSU with the approval of Central Board, and two alumni members appointed by Central Board upon the recommendation of the Alumni Association. In the event that the Alumni Association does not make this recommendation by the first meeting of fall quarter, then Central Board shall make its own alumni selections. All members of this committee shall be voting members with the exception of the chairman who shall vote only in case of a tie or when necessary to constitute a quorum.

Sec. 2. All sports in which the University carries on intercollegiate athletic competition shall be under the control of this board.

Sec. 3. This board shall have charge of: (1) the athletic budget, (2) athletic supplies, (3) athletic grounds, (4) schedules, (5) letter awards, (6) gate receipts, (7) payment of guarantees, and (8) athletic managerships.
Sec. 4. Executive Officer. A manager, employed jointly by this board and the University, serving as executive officer is to be responsible to the board for:

1. presentation during the spring quarter of each year of an annual budget for the following fiscal year,
2. control of cash income and expenditures,
3. purchase, care, and maintenance of property including supplies, equipment, buildings, and grounds,
4. Athletic Board staff employment and its organization,
5. schedules, including financial arrangements,
6. submission to the board of qualifications for awards. (Note: The responsibility for keeping detailed records of qualifications is to be delegated to the student manager of the sport involved.)

Sec. 5. Major Sports Awards. Athletic Board shall grant all athletic letters and all other insignia given to major sports participants within its jurisdictions under rules of the Skyline conference with the provision that a certified record of a player's participation according to Skyline rules be submitted with the recommendations for awards to Central Board.

Article III

Budget & Finance Committee

Sec. 1. Membership and Meetings. This committee shall consist of the business manager of ASMSU, (ex-officio chairman); two other student members, one of whom shall be a woman, and one faculty representative of Central Board. The ASMSU auditor shall be an advisory member of this committee, without vote. The chairman shall appoint a secretary who shall regularly file a copy of the minutes of each meeting with the president of ASMSU and the student auditor.

Sec. 2. Duties. The duties of this committee shall be carried out with the procedure as follows:

Clause A. This committee shall appear before Central Board at its first regular meeting of spring quarter to discuss and to receive suggestions for the budget for the coming year.
Clause B. This committee shall have the power to call for budget estimates and to request representatives to appear at its meetings from any ASMSU committees or organizations.

Clause C. It shall be the duty of this committee to prepare and submit a budget of estimated income, and expenditures for the ensuing year to Central Board at any regular meeting prior to April 20 of the preceding year. At this meeting or any meeting prior to final ASMSU elections, Central Board shall tentatively approve the budget with modifications, if any are made.

Clause D. The first regular Central Board meeting after final ASMSU elections shall be a joint meeting with both the old and new members attending. At this meeting the budget shall be presented for final adoption, only the old members having the privilege to vote. The new Central Board shall have the privilege of discussion.

Clause E. The following procedure is approved for this committee for entering into contracts and payments of claims: (1) official requisition blank shall be used, (2) requisitions are to be signed by the manager, director, or chairman of the respective ASMSU organization, activity, or committee, (3) requisitions in excess of $25.00, and requisitions for expenditures not included in the approved budget shall carry the prior approval and signature of the ASMSU auditor.

Article IV

Convocations Committee

Sec. 1. Membership. This committee shall be composed of five members of ASMSU appointed by Central Board.
Sec. 2. The members of Convocations Committee shall be members of the Public Exercises Committee, and shall attend the meetings of that committee.

Sec. 3. Convocations Committee shall meet regularly to arrange for and select programs for ASMSU convocations.

Article V

Debate & Oratory Committee

Sec. 1. Membership and Meetings. This committee shall consist of: (1) the debate and oratory manager, as chairman, elected by Tau Kappa Alpha subject to approval of Central Board, (2) two other student members elected by Tau Kappa Alpha, (3) the debate and oratory coach. The members of this committee shall be elected each spring to serve for the following year. The chairman shall appoint a secretary who shall regularly file a copy of the minutes of each meeting with the president of ASMSU and the student auditor.

Sec. 2. This committee shall have charge of all student matters relating to debate and oratory. This shall arrange intercollegiate schedules and represent the student body in arranging intramural contests.

Sec. 3. Awards. To be eligible for a debate and oratory award one must have participated in at least five intercollegiate debate, oratorical or extemporaneous speaking contests during the school year.

Article VI

The 'M'Book Committee

Sec. 1. Membership. This committee shall consist of five members of ASMSU appointed by Central Board.

Sec. 2. The committee shall have general supervision over the publication of the annual 'M'Book.
Article VII
Outside Entertainment Committee

Sec. 1. Membership. This committee shall be composed of three students and two faculty members appointed by Central Board.

Sec. 2. The committee shall make arrangements for the presentation of outside entertainment in accordance with the referendum passed at the general election in the spring quarter of 1933.

Sec. 3. The committee shall be careful to select such entertainment that shall be of general interest to the entire student body.

Article VIII
Publications Committee

Sec. 1. Membership. This committee shall be composed of the following members:

A. Voting members:

1. The chairman, who is to be appointed by Central Board, is to be a journalism major of junior or senior standing. The chairman is not to be editor of any of the three major publications on campus.

2. Five members, one of whom is the two-year senior delegate, the other four to be appointed by Central Board, not more than two to be majors of the same department.

3. Publications adviser to be appointed by the President of the University on the approval of Central Board.

B. Non-voting members:

1. All editors and advisers of recognized campus publications.

2. The student auditor.

Sec. 2. The official publications of ASMSU and positions pertaining thereto, shall be as follows:
A. The Montana Kaimin (the official ASMSU newspaper).

1. The editor, business manager, and associate editors are chosen by Central Board upon recommendation of Publications Committee. Publications Committee shall publish in two issues of the Kaimin a notice that the committee will receive applications for the offices of business manager and associate editorships. The committee will select their recommendations for these offices from applications submitted for those positions.

2. Four associate editors will be chosen spring quarter. A fifth associate editor may be chosen the following year at the discretion of Central Board. Applicants for the position of associate editor shall have served on the Kaimin staff or have had one year's practical newspaper experience, and have attended Montana State University at least two quarters including the one in which they are selected.

3. The business manager of the Kaimin must have junior standing at the time of selection. A knowledge of advertising and business procedure along with service to previous Kaimin business managers should be considered in making the selection for this position. (Paragraph waived for the duration).

4. The editor of the Kaimin must be a journalism major. He must have had one quarter of copyreading practice and/or one quarter of reporting practice and have served on the Kaimin. He must have attended Montana State University at least three quarters, including the quarter in which he is selected. He is a non-voting member of Central Board.

5. The faculty adviser to Kaimin shall be a member of the staff of the School of Journalism, appointed by the Dean of the School of Journalism, subject to confirmation by Central Board. The adviser of the Kaimin shall advise the editor and the business manager of the Kaimin pertaining to all matters in relation to the publication of the Kaimin. In the event of a difference of opinion, either party may appeal to Publications Committee for settlement.

6. The editor of the Montana Kaimin is to receive $70 per month for an eight-month period, beginning the first of October, and the business manager of the Kaimin is to receive $50 per month for a nine-month period beginning the fifteenth of September and ending the fifteenth of June, in lieu of all other compensations. Associate editors of the Kaimin are to receive $10 each per month beginning the first of October for a period not to exceed eight months. The Kaimin is authorized to employ such student help as necessary for the distribution of the Kaimin, the rates to be established by prevailing student scales, and this motion supersedes the arrangement as approved on March 28, 1946, for payment of the circulation manager. This payment will come out of the Montana Kaimin budget.

B. The Sentinel (the ASMSU yearbook).

1. The editor is chosen by Central Board upon recommendation of Publications Committee by junior members of the editorial staff of that year. Persons who have served in the capacity of assistant editor will be shown preference in the selection of editor but nothing contained herein shall be so construed as to limit the selection of editor to the three persons serving in that capacity.

2. Three assistant editors, juniors, or seniors during the year they hold the position, shall be appointed by Publications Committee from applications turned in to the Sentinel editor.

3. A business manager of the Sentinel shall be chosen from applications submitted to the chairman of Publications Committee by junior members of the business staff of that year. The three assistant editors shall be eligible for this position providing they have worked at least part of the year in that department. All other junior members of the business staff shall also be eligible for the position.

4. Central Board shall appoint the adviser to Sentinel from the faculty or administrative staff of the University upon recommendation of the adviser to Publications Committee.

5. The editor of the Sentinel is to receive $70 per month for an eight-month period, beginning the first of October, and the business manager of the Sentinel is to receive $40 per month for the same period, in lieu of all other compensations. The three associate editors of the Sentinel are to receive $10 for six months; and the photography editor shall receive $35 for eight months.

Sec. 3. In addition to the foregoing, the duties of the Publications Committee shall consist of the following:

A. To hold regular scheduled meetings with properly recorded minutes, copies of which shall be filed with the president of ASMSU and the auditor's office.

B. Publications Committee must submit a recommendation of appropriations for recognized student publications to Budget and Finance Committee each year by the end of winter quarter.
