Dec. 29, 2009

NEWS TIP:

MONTANA ASSOCIATION OF SECONDARY SCHOOL PRINCIPALS TO MEET AT UM -- Region #1 of the Montana Association of Secondary School Principals, a professional organization of Western Montana middle and high school administrators, will hold its winter meeting from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, Jan. 6, at The University of Montana's Phyllis J. Washington Education Center. Discussions will include redefining public education for the 21st century; partnering with UM's Phyllis J. Washington College of Education and Human Sciences to provide professional development programs for administrators of Western Montana's public schools; and the development of family resource centers in middle and high schools through AmeriCorps and Women's Opportunity & Resource Development Inc. The media is welcome to attend the meeting. For more information, call Robert DoBell, Stevensville High School vice principal, 406-777-5481 ext. 129, or e-mail dobellr@stevensville.k12.mt.us.
