ASUM PROGRAM COUNCIL TO PRESENT
THREE-NIGHT COFFEE HOUSE

MISSOULA--

The Program Council of the Associated Students at the University of Montana will sponsor a three-night Coffee House in the Gold Oak Room of the University Center beginning Tuesday (Jan. 11) from 10 p.m. to midnight.

Featured in the Coffee House will be George Beel, a 20-year-old UM junior majoring in English. Beel will perform on both the 12-string guitar and the piano. He has studied the guitar for six years and classical piano for more than 10 years.

Kenneth Jones, a member of the social recreation committee of the ASUM Program Council and organizer of the event, said that the program will include selections of Crosby, Stills & Nash, Gordon Lightfoot, and other contemporary folk artists, as well as Beel's own material.

There will be no admission charge for the Tuesday night performance, James said.

Wednesday's performance will be from 7:30-9 p.m. Thursday's performance will be in two sets, with the first one from 8-9:30 p.m. and the second from 10-11:30 p.m.

Admission of 25 cents will be charged for both the Wednesday and Thursday performances. Free coffee will be provided by the University Center each night.
