12 UM STUDENT SCULPTORS
PRESENT EXPERIMENTAL SHOW

MISSOULA--

Twelve student sculptors at the University of Montana cooperated to present an experimental art show through Jan. 21 in the Gallery of Visual Arts in Turner Hall at UM.

The sculpture, consisting of triangles made of electrical conduit and shaped into five-foot by five-foot forms, was originally created by the students in a fall quarter sculpture class. The main feature in the show involves the daily rearrangement of 32 equilateral pyramids and the resulting spatial qualities.

Students producing the art show include Michael J. Ryan, Anaconda; Frank A. Culbertson, Wynn Miller and Anne Lee Wilson, Billings; Terri M. Button and Glenn H. Carter, Butte; Kathryn Carmen Paquin, Clinton; Parris J.A. Young, Missoula; Kay Lillian Willson, Ryegate; Susan Coleman Hatley, Santa Maria, Calif.; Garrett W. Nelson, Barrington, N. J., and Michael Satterly, Wanamassa, N. J.

The gallery display is open to the public without charge from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday through Friday or by appointment.
