DR. SALLY WANG TO LECTURE
AT U OF MONTANA MONDAY (FEB. 14)

MISSOULA- -

Dr. Sally Wang (pronounced Wong), an assistant professor of history at the University of Montana, will lecture on Sino-Russian relations in room 36C F-G of the University Center at 7:30 p.m. Monday (Feb. 14), the eve of the Chinese New Year.

The lecture, which is open to the public without charge, is second in a series of lectures sponsored by SICHIHUA (The Four Seasons' Flowers), an organization interested in the culture, history and politics of Mainland China.

Dr. Wang's lecture "will focus on the broader dispute, tracing its origin, development and future outlook," according to Gary Israel, a UM senior in political science and director of SICHIHUA.

Dr. Wang received bachelor and Master of Arts degrees in history and a doctorate in history at the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, specializing in Russian and Far Eastern studies.
