MISSOULA--

The Women's Center on the campus of the University of Montana will be the site of five basketball games between member teams of the Montana Women's Inter-collegiate Sports Association.

Montana State and Rocky Mountain will begin Saturday's activities with a 9 a.m. clash. Also coming to Missoula will be teams from Flathead Valley Community College and Western Montana College. The University of Montana will play two games, taking on MSU at 12:00 p.m. and Western at 3:00 p.m.

The UM women have had a good year with 6 wins and 4 losses, in spite of this being the first season of play for all but one of the team members. Senior Gail Hager is the only veteran on the team, as well as being team captain. Coach Zona Lindemann referred to this season as being "a building year" and seemed confident that the experience gained from this year's play would result in a strong team next year.

Lindemann also said that the team is "very well balanced." High scorer Vicki Brown from Butte is shooting 40% from the floor and averaging 14 points per game. The rest of the team is not far behind.

This is the 6th season of play for the UM women.
