COUNTY PUBLIC HEALTH PROGRAM
TO BE DISCUSSED TUESDAY AT UM

MISSOULA--

The Missoula Citizens' Lobby will sponsor a town meeting entitled "Missoula County's Public Health Program: What It's Like Now--What It Ought To Be" at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday (March 14) in the University of Montana Theater.

The introduction to a panel discussion will be by two physicians--Norman Nickman, who will discuss "The Present Program," and James Law, who will discuss "What Other Communities Are Doing." Included will be a film entitled "Community Health in Action."

Dr. Robert McKelvey, executive director of the Rocky Mountain Mathematics Consortium, will be moderator for the panel discussion. Participants will include three local medical doctors--H. E. Braun, B. J. McLaverty and Nickman; Mrs. Peggy Burt; Ernie Burgess, a representative of Low Income Group for Human Treatment (LIGHT); Jim Parker, a board member, Missoula Health Planning Council; Mary Patton, director of Missoula Community Coordinated Child Care; Carl Schroer, minister, University Congregational Church, and Elsie Toavs, nursing consultant, State Public Health Department.

Comments and resolutions will be accepted from the audience.
