MISSOULA

A drill team from Big Sandy and Indian-style dancers from Browning and Missoula will perform Saturday (March 18) at the University of Montana during the fifth and final general session of the 25th annual state meeting of the Montana Association, Future Home-makers of America.

Performing for FHA students and adult leaders will be the Big Sandy FHA Drill Team, the Star School Dancers from Browning and the Kuscama Dancers from Missoula.

The fifth general session, with Beverly Spring, Belgrade, 1971-72 state FHA treasurer, presiding, will begin at 1:30 p.m. Saturday in the University Center Ballroom.

The Kuscama Indian Dancers, who comprise a nonprofit youth organization devoted to learning, understanding and preserving Indian culture and traditions, were organized five years ago in Missoula. The group includes the 1971 National Champion Wilgus Lodge, Order of the Arrow, Indian Dance Team.

Saturday's FHA events at the University also will include the fourth general session from 9:30-11:30 a.m. in the UC Ballroom, with Elizabeth Rodriquez, Worden, presiding.

Miss Rodriquez is the 1971-72 state FHA parliamentarian.

Special music at the fourth session will be provided by the State FHA Chorus under the direction of Jona Morton, Bigfork, 1971-72 state FHA music chairman.
Kathi Kruckeberg, Missoula, who is chairman of FHA public relations, will be moderator of a panel discussion entitled "Fulfilling Personal Potential" during the fourth session. The discussion will be followed by a business meeting, with Karen Kukkola of Sand Coulee, who is a student at Centerville High School and state FHA president, presiding.

Awards will be presented Saturday night.

The 1972-73 state FHA officers to be installed during Saturday's banquet will include Angie Vik, Plentywood, who attends Medicine Lake High School, president; Colleen Sweeney, Belt High School, vice president; Donna Bratsky, Bridger High School, secretary; Diane Van Gorden, Valier High School, treasurer; Jeanette Brownell, Belgrade High School, historian; Corinne Reichelt, Big Sandy High School, parliamentarian.

Chairman for 1972-73 to be installed Saturday will include Bonnie Nesbit of Powderville, a student at Custer High School, Miles City, projects chairman; Jan Wright of Wolf Point, Circle High School, public relations; Julie Huls, Corvallis High School, music, and Colleen Castlio, Polson High School, recreation.
