$4,200 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO BE AWARDED
AT 16TH ANNUAL DEAN STONE BANQUET

MISSOULA--

A total of $4,200 in scholarships will be awarded to University of Montana journalism and radio-television students April 20 at the 16th annual Dean Stone Night banquet in the University Center Ballroom.

Richard Dudman, chief of the Washington Bureau of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch, will speak at the banquet.

Dudman was one of 87 newsmen who accompanied President Nixon to China in February. In recent weeks, he has been on a world tour and has reported events in Saigon, Tokyo and Northern Ireland. In 1970 Dudman was captured by Communist guerrillas in Cambodia and held 40 days before being released. He is the author of two books, "Men of the Far Right" and "40 Days With the Enemy."

Three new scholarships will be awarded. The Connie R. Craney award of $600, presented by the Garryowen Broadcasting Co. through the Greater Montana Foundation, will be given to a radio-television major. Two $150 awards from the Montana Association of Journalism Directors will be presented to journalism students. And the $100 Ronald E. Miller Award, honoring the memory of Mr. Miller, a 1929 graduate of the Montana School of Journalism, will be given to a journalism student.

Dean Stone Night, sponsored by the UM School of Journalism, honors the late Arthur L. Stone, first dean of the journalism school and editor of the Missoulian from 1906 to 1914.

The public may obtain tickets at $3.25 from the School of Journalism.
