NEXT LAND AND WATER SEMINAR
SCHEDULED FOR APRIL 25

MISSOULA--

The third in a series of Land and Water Seminar discussion programs will be at 12:10 p.m. Tuesday (April 25) in room 106 of the University Venture Center.

Featured speakers will include Boyd Opheim, district 2 fisheries manager for the Montana Fish and Game Department, and Ron Marcoux, fisheries management biologist.

Marcoux and Opheim will discuss water quality and land use problems. Robert A. Rothweiler, information education officer, will show a film on Rock Creek.

Sponsor of the Tuesday discussion sessions is the Land and Water Seminar Group, which is under the direction of Robert McKelvey, executive director of the Rocky Mountain Mathematics Consortium.
