The meeting was called to order by Don Chaney. The minutes were read and approved. Dean Hellinger, representing the Independents, and Inez Myer, Student Union committee were introduced.

FROSH ELECTIONS

Abbott reported that petitions are available for the freshmen, although not many have been picked up. The petitions are due Oct. 22, Friday, with the primary election set for Tuesday, Oct. 26, and final elections Tuesday, Nov. 2.

TRADITIONS BOARD

Miller reviewed the Homecoming schedule, including the SOS, pep rally in the Field house after the snake dance, Homecoming parade, and the half-time ceremony.

He presented the names of the cheerleaders for approval: Marilyn Shope, yell queen; Patti Forzley, Sue Hodges, Cara Boggess, Lynn McCaffery, Dave Wyatt, and Dick Riddle. Abbott moved that they be accepted, Eyer seconded, passed unanimously.

Montana's Homecoming game Saturday with Utah State has been proclaimed National Olympic Day by George "Jiggs" Dahlberg. His declaration coincides with action of the Joint Congressional Resolution authorizing Pres. Eisenhower to proclaim Oct. 16 as the first National Olympic day. It is being launched this fall as an annual day of re-dedication to the amateur sports ideal, represented by the Olympic games. A collection will be taken at the end of the game.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE STUDENTS

O'Hare suggested that foreign students be invited to a meeting where something of particular interest to them would be discussed, such as the honor system, or the ice rink. After a short meeting, coffee would be served, and she asked the following to give brief explanations —Abbott, elections; Eyer, explain Central Board; followed by a question and answer period.

The groups approved her general proposals, and set the meeting for three weeks from today, or Nov. 4.

CENTRAL BOARD PARTY

A Central Board party was suggested, but it was decided that we should wait until after freshman elections. The group preferred a Sunday night party.

HONOR SYSTEM

O'Hare was appointed chairman of the honor system committee. She asked for suggestions for members, in order to be able to present her committee at the next meeting.

LEADERSHIP CAMP

O'Hare suggested that co-chairmen be appointed for leadership camp, if Central Board wanted to sponsor it. DeForth moved that CB sponsor leadership camp this year. Gaughan seconded, passed unanimously.

Abbott, Eyer, and Leuthold were appointed to recommend three chairmen to Central Board next week.

BUDGET AND FINANCE COMMITTEE

Bachman moved that the following allocation of the General Fund be approved: Senior class, $50; Traditions Board, $200; Leadership Camp, $120; M Club blankets, $250; and Director of Student Affairs, $600. The board approved unanimously. These were only the major items of the General Fund budget.

Bachman also reported that Budget and Finance had met with Wunderlich and Cogswell to discuss faculty activity cards. She said they will continue to investigate the matter, but it does not look too hopeful, since the faculty already gets a very good deal on athletic season tickets.

She also reported that $2,940.85 has been spent on the well. There is $40,811.11 in the General Reserve in Helena, and $1,115.60 in the checking account. There is also about $1,480 in defense bonds. Bachman moved that expenses for the well be included in the $40,000 allocated for use by the president. It was seconded by Eyer, and passed.

ICE RINK COMMITTEE

Chaney reported that the members of the ice rink policy committee are Larry Gaughan, CB representative; Jane Baier, AWS representative; and faculty members Heurtler and Stoodley.

KAIMINS TO COLLEGES

O'Hare suggested sending Kaimins to the presidents of Skyline colleges. Chaney commented on the fact that BYU has sent the Universe to the ASMSU president for the past several years. DeForth moved that we give the Kaimin $21 to send subscriptions to the student body presidents of the Skyline schools. Bachman seconded, and it passed unanimously.

INVITATION TO BOZEMAN

O'Hare suggested that we ask the MSC student body officers to be our guests for dinner, the game and a dance for the Bobcat-Grizzly game, Nov. 13.

Bachman so moved, Gaughan seconded, passed unanimously.

Watson also suggested that we have an ASMSU-AWS mixer the night of the Dad's Day game, and it was approved.

There will be a Central Board executive meeting every Tuesday night at 7 to plan the Thursday meetings.

There being no further business the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,

Shirley DeForth
