MISSOULA--

Jim Zellick, starting quarterback for Missoula Sentinel High School the past two years, has signed a national letter of intent to attend the University of Montana next year, according to head coach Jack Swarthout.

Zellick also has experience as a defensive back and it is that skill that the UM Coaches hope to put to use. Swarthout says the 6-0, 205 lb. athlete has enough speed and strength to be used as a linebacker.

"Zellick is the caliber of person we've been building our program around," Swarthout says, "and we think he'll be a tremendous asset to the team."
