ACCENT ON GIVING
AT UM WOMEN'S CLUB
CHRISTMAS PARTY DEC. 10

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Women's Club will have a Christmas party in December for UM faculty and staff members' children from preschool ages through third grade, but the accent will be on giving rather than receiving.

The party will begin at 4 p.m. Dec. 10, a week from Sunday, at the University Congregational Church, 401 University Ave.

Refreshments will be served and Santa will visit the children. Children should bring a pair of small mittens (one pair per family) and 25 cents for refreshments to the program. The mittens will be presented as Christmas gifts to youngsters in the local Head Start program.

Entertainment at the party will include songs and guitar music by Mary Ann Burnham and Mary Burt and dancing by several persons dressed as clowns.

No reservations are needed.
