MISSOULA.....

Tickets to Grizzly basketball games for University of Montana students will be sold only on game days according to UM ticket manager Gary Hughes. "We will sell student tickets beginning at 5:15 on the day of the game unless there is such a demand for tickets that would require us to sell in advance," Hughes said.

The cost of student tickets for the first six home games will be 50¢ and the admission charge for the Bobcat-Grizzly game on Jan. 16 will be $1.

The charge for the final seven home games will be based on the attendance at Montana's two home games this Friday and Monday nights. The Grizzlies open their season against Morningside College Friday night and host Stout State Saturday night.

The UM freshman team will play preliminaries against Lethbridge Community College and the Carroll College JV, respectively, at 5:30 each evening. The varsity contests will start at 7:30.
