25 'CENTER COURSES'
SCHEDULED FOR WINTER QUARTER

MISSOULA--

Twenty-five University Center Courses--ranging from beginning photography to fundamental Chinese--have been scheduled for winter quarter at the University of Montana.

The classes, slated to begin Jan. 8, are open to UM students, faculty, staff and the Missoula community.

Registration for the courses will be Jan. 2-5 in the UC Activities Office from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. and at the UC Information Desk from 6 to 9 p.m.

Classes included in the winter quarter program are beginning, intermediate and seminar photography; mathematics; copper enameling; beginning and intermediate judo; drawing and painting; yoga; beginning and intermediate guitar; macrame; aesthometry (string art); interior design; parliamentary procedure; yarn decorations; speed reading; sculpture; electronic music; hand-loading ammunition; fundamental Chinese; beginning knitting; upholstery; music exploration and paper mache crafts.

The classes are open to the general public but University students will be given course preference where there are course limits. UM students must register at the UC Activities Office.

All course fees must be paid in full at the UC before the start of the third class. No refunds will be given after the start of the third class.

The noncredit courses are offered at the same cost to the entire community regardless of state residency. The average cost for each course is $12. Money orders or checks should be made payable to the University of Montana and sent to the Program Coordinator, University Center. For further information phone 243-2642 or 243-4103.
