Andrew G. Grande, 22, Missoula, has been designated as the 1,200th commissionee in the 57-year history of the Army ROTC program at the University of Montana, Capt. James D. Moreland, associate professor of military science at UM, has announced.

Grande was honored as a Distinguished Military Graduate at UM in December, when he was commissioned a 2nd lieutenant in the Army. He also received his bachelor's degree in business administration at UM in December.

He is scheduled to report to the U.S. Army Artillery and Missile Center, Fort Sill, Okla., Jan. 19 to begin a two-year program in the artillery basic course. Grande will then enter the Army Transportation Corps.

Grande, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin T. Grande, 625 S. 5th St. E., Missoula, is a June 1969 graduate of Hellgate High School, Missoula.
