FORMER STANFORD PROFESSOR
TO SPEAK TUESDAY AT UM

MISSOULA--

Dr. H. Bruce Franklin, a noted Marxist critic and former professor at Stanford University, will present a free public lecture under the sponsorship of the UM Department of English at 8 p.m. Tuesday (Jan. 15) in room 131 of the UM Science Complex. He will discuss "Work, Crime and Art: The Case of Herman Melville."

Franklin is one of the critics to see science fiction as worthy of scholarly interest.

He has published a number of science fiction works, including "Future Perfect: American Science Fiction of the 19th Century." His most recent publication is "The Essential Stalin," a book dealing with Stalin's most important writings.
