MONTANA DANCE COMPANY
DANCE-FILM PRESENTATION
SATURDAY AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

Members of the Montana Dance Company will be featured in "Ariadne's (pronounced Airyoddnee's) Dance," a dance-film presentation, at 4 p.m. Saturday (Jan. 26) in the University of Montana Music Recital Hall.

Nancy Jean Brooks, a UM drama instructor, is choreographer for the program in partial fulfillment of the master of fine arts degree requirements from the University of Utah, Salt Lake City.

The Montana Dance Company has been working on Saturday's presentation since October. "Ariadne's Dance," based on abstracted motifs of historical sacred dance, is designed as a communications experience through its environmental and organic qualities.

Dana Bunnell, assistant professor of drama at UM, is dance company director.
