The meeting was called to order by Bill Reynolds. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

Reynolds brought up the Community Concert question. We have the decision of whether or not to join the downtown organization as we will have some members from town as our guests next week. Last year we paid $4200, which let us in at student rates and did not contribute appreciably to the town budget. We did not sell 1400 seats, though but only about 600. This year the tax is off the tickets and we have two options:

1) Continue as in previous years and pay $4200, thus helping the budget in securing higher class and a greater number of artists or
2) pay $3500 and not contribute to the improvement of the program.

Schlieman brought up that the University band had requested $5,000 from Budget and Finance to buy new overcoats for the members of the band. Budget and Finance recommended that the band raise $2,500 and Central Board will match this. This recommendation will be carried through to the future Central Board members to consider when the band raises their half of the money.

Kugler said that Publications Board was having trouble getting applicants for business manager of the Sentinel. They are going to get more publicity on the matter.

Thorsrud reported that the social chairman will meet Thursday at 4 p.m. Reynolds will talk to them on student government.

Reynolds brought up the ideas the members of the Constitutional revision committee had. They thought of having a senate to increase student representation, which would meet once a month. Over them would be an executive council that would meet once a week. In making up the senate there would be one representative from any living group with 1 to 70 members, two representatives from 70 to 150 members and three representatives from those with over 150 members. There was the off-campus problem to contend with in this idea, however. Plans for bringing these ideas before the student body were discussed.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
